A Modern Nursery Rhyme

Baby by
Here's a fly!
Let us kill him, you and I.
Ere he crawls
Up the walls
And dire ill befalls,
I believe on those six legs,
Are a billion typhoid eggs!
There he goes
On his toes,
Tickling baby's nose!
Now we must run right away
For the antiseptic spray,
To sterilize
Where the fly's
Little microbes stray!
Only think neath his two wings
Lurk all sorts of hard named things!
Every fly
Fresh supply
Of these horrors brings!
So we have to analyze
Neutralize and immunize,
Vaporize,
Sterilize,
Just to kill the flies!
—Carolyn Wells.

It was then learned that Bert was wanted for horse stealing at Youngstown, Ohio, and Wichita, Kans., and we understand he has been taken to the latter place. Bert's companion was here yesterday, leaving on the Frisco that evening. The couple spent a few days in the Hartville jail.

MAXWELLS IN MEXICO

Automobiles Lead the Way in Carrying Troops on Punitive Expedition

Maxwell motor cars have achieved the signal distinction of attaining the most southerly point in Mexico of any automobile engaged in the punitive expedition in that country. Letters from the United States Army officers have been received by the Buquor Motor Company, Maxwell distributors in El Paso, Texas, testifying to the fact that the sturdy Maxwells have pushed farther south over the tortuous Mexican trails than any other make of car. These letters contain words of praise for the splendid service given by the Maxwells under most discouraging conditions.

One of the American officers, who drove a Maxwell car in the army's movement to the south, writes as follows from San Antonio, Chihuahua: "The car is standing up well. It has been given tests to which no other car with the expedition has been subjected. We have used the car on patrol duty and the roads—save the word—are unworthy of the name. Every member of the staff who has used this car is a Maxwell booster, for the car has done everything we have called for."

In addition to the service performed by cars actually in the fighting zone, the famous non-stop Maxwell, the car that ran 22,000 miles without a single stop of the motor, has proven an efficient auxiliary to Uncle Sam's fighting force. The car was used recently by United States officers at Douglas, Arizona, which is the western center of military activities along the international boundary. The efforts of the non-stop Maxwell have been supplemented by a fleet of Maxwells none of which have seen less than 10,000 miles of Arizona stage service. When a new camp was established out of Douglas, the Maxwells transported the soldier over the rough roads, nine troops to a car.

These military performances by Maxwell cars prove what an effective unit for defense can be afforded by the motor car facilities of the United States. They prove also the claims in the service of private owners. The Maxwell is an ideal car for service in Mexico because of its ability to trail the treacherous mountain trails and the long stretches of desert country.

Obituary

Virginia Rucker Rush was born in Tennessee, Aug. 24, 1853, moving to Missouri about 40 years ago with her husband, Joseph Rush, who preceded her in death. To this union were born 12 children, four boys and eight girls. Of these six are living, only three being present at the time of her death, which occurred Tuesday as a result of a paralytic stroke. She was converted six years ago and joined the General Baptist church at Prairie Hollow, being baptized by Rev. McCall. She lived a true Christian life until death. Thus ends a useful life. She was 62 years, 9 months and 19 days of age. Rev. J. M. England conducted the funeral at the Baptist church yesterday; interment in the Mansfield cemetery.—C

Charles Ray Morgan, son of S. P. and Berta Morgan, was born May 27, 1911, at Alma, and departed this life June 10, 1916, at Mansfield, aged 5 years and 14 days. His parents formerly resided at Mansfield, but during his last illness lived at the home of Mrs. Morgan's parents, J. M. Pierson and wife. His death was due to dropsy. He leaves a father, mother, brother and four sisters to mourn his death, but let us be thankful that our loss is his eternal gain, as he has gone to be with Jesus while eternal ages roll. Prayer services were conducted at the home, also at the Crane cemetery, where he was laid to rest. The verse of Scripture used as a text was: "Suffer little children to come unto Me, and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." This and a short talk were given by Mrs. Venie Wilson. One main thought was that we should all be ready to meet this sad hour; be prepared, as was little Charlie, to meet the Lord in peace. May God comfort the sorrowing hearts of the bereaved and help them to look above to Him who "doeth all things well." May they be sure of their peace, and make their calling and election sure for another home, not made with hands. The parents extend a word of thanks for all kindnesses shown by neighbors during the little one's illness and death.—G

PROMINENT BANKER CONFESSES

Feels That His Friends Should Know All

In a recent letter to the Hays' Medicine Co., of Paducah, Ky., manufacturers of the famous, new treatment for general disability, "Hays' Specific," Mr. S. B. Hughes, one of the most prominent bankers in the State of Kentucky, says:

For the benefit of any of my friends and acquaintances who may be afflicted with kidney or liver trouble, I state that I have found in Hays' Specific an efficient remedy and, I believe, a permanent cure for myself. For some time I was a sufferer from a disorder of these organs and finally resorted to Hays' Specific. It is with no degree of pride that I permit my name to be used to promote the interest of the manufacture of this remedy, but that it may be of some benefit to my friends.

This great preparation is for sale now in Mansfield by Fuson Drug Co.—Adv.
