A Big Sale

In this issue of the Mirror will be found a page advertisement of a land auction at Coker, which has been plotted for a town, Monday, July 10, at which time the G. W. Miller tract of 1,040 acres will be placed on sale. Read the notice of the sale and make preparations to be present and bid on some of this land, which you can buy at your own price and on easy terms. It is rare that such an opportunity as this is offered and the time to avail yourself of the chance is when the chance is offered. Remember the date--July 10.

The Springfield papers report the suicide of Jake Shook, long a passenger conductor on this division of the Frisco.

A BOOSTER SPECIAL

The Springfield Jobbers and Manufacturers' Association Here Today

Today at 10:02 a. m. is the time for the arrival in Mansfield for a 20-minute stop of the special booster train over the Frisco from Springfield to Mammoth Springs of the Springfield Jobbers & Manufacturers' Association, who are making this trip for the purpose of enabling the manufacturing, wholesale, jobbing and banking interests to become better acquainted with their customers. Let's all turn out and give the boosters a hearty welcome to our city.

The train will be met by the Mansfield Concert Band. M. A. Freeman will probably accompany the boosters from here, by request. The train will stop here for Mr. Freeman on the return trip.

In Cupid's Court

A pretty home wedding was solemnized at the home of M. A. Freeman and wife at 8:30 o'clock last evening, when their daughter, Miss Opal, was united in marriage to Walter C. Coday, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. A. Russell of Hartville before a large concourse of relatives and friends gathered upon the lawn, many out of town guests being present.

The words which made them husband and wife were pronounced before the altar on the front veranda of the home, which was beautifully and artistically decorated for the occasion. The wedding party marched to the altar to the strains of Lohen-grin's wedding march played by Miss Bertha Miller, having previously sung "Because I Love You, Dear," accompanied on the piano by Miss Alice Tomblinson.

Miss Gladys Fuson was the ring-bearer, the attendants being G. C. Freeman, brother of the bride, and Miss Ruth Haverty, the bride and bridesmaid being most becomingly attired and carrying bouquets.

After congratulations and best wishes, ice cream, cake and punch were served.

The presents received were numerous and beautiful, attesting to the high esteem in which the happy couple were held.

There were also a number of presents received by the bride at a linen shower given in her honor Friday evening by Miss Blanche Burney.

The newly wedded couple are among our best known and most popular young people, being prominent in social and religious circles.

The groom is the manager and director of the Mansfield Concert Band and city assessor and is one of our most promising young business men. The young lady has chosen for his life partner has hosts of friends, whom she has won by her charming personality depth of culture and refinement of character.

Mr. Coday and bride will soon be at home in a new residence to be erected on the property Mr. Coday recently purchased of the High heirs.

The Mirror joins their scores of friends in congratulations and best wishes.

The marriage of Miss Sophia Hoover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Hoover of Mansfield, Mo., to Mr. Clad H. Thompson took place yesterday morning. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Burris A. Jenkins at his home. Mr. Thompson is a member of The Star's editorial staff.

After July 1 they will be at home at 4341 Harrison Street.

The above is from Sunday's Kansas City Star. The Mirror joins with the many friends of the bride here in congratulations and best wishes.

Lots of rain.

PROMINENT BANKER CONFESSES

Feels That His Friends Should Know All

In a recent letter to the Hays Medicine Co., of Paducah, Ky., manufacturers of the famous new treatment for general disability, "Hays' Specific," Mr. S. B. Hughes, one of the most prominent bankers in the State of Kentucky, says:

For the benefit of any of my friends and acquaintances who may be afflicted with kidney or liver trouble, I state that I have found in Hays' Specific an efficient remedy and, I believe, a permanent cure for myself. For some time I was a sufferer from a disorder of these organs and finally resorted to Hays' Specific. It is with no degree of pride that I permit my name to be used to promote the interest of the manufacture of this remedy, but that it may be of some benefit to my friends.

This great preparation is for sale now in Mansfield by Fuson Drug Co. --Adv.

Call for the Author

One of the features of the preliminary song service last night was the singing by Homer Rodeheaver, choir leader, of "Jesus of Calvary," the music and words of which were composed by James J. Bell, 2407 Norton avenue, a pupil of Carl Busch. There was a call for the author and Mr. Bell, who was on the platform, stood up and bowed an acknowledgment to the applause which followed.

Mr. Bell, mentioned in the above clipping from the Kansas City Journal, is a Mansfield boy, a son of T. B. Bell and wife and brother of Mrs. J. E. Craig. His many friends here are pleased to learn of his progress in musical circles and of the prominent part he played in the Billy Sunday meetings.

His morning subject will be: "Men who are lost--why do they remain lost?"

We were pleasantly surprised yesterday to meet D. R. Ford of Kansas City, special agent for the Springfield Fire & Marine Co., who was here on business with the local agents, Craig Bros. Mr. Ford, who was for some time postmaster at Cameron, was a schoolmate of the Mirror editor in the Cameron High School.

Young man, why worry about your calling? The business world is calling you, and calling loudly. Wake up! The Springfield Business College guarantees to place you with a good firm, at a good salary, where you will have every chance for promotion, just as soon as you are ready. What more do you want? Write J. A. Taylor, President, today. --Adv.

A. M. Curtis and Bert Ellis of Hartville were here Thursday.

ON TO SPRINGFIELD

Big Southern Route Delegation to Boost for the Official Ozark Trail

An enthusiastic meeting of good roads boosters, representing nearly every business interest in Mansfield and including several farmers, was held at the G. A. R. Hall Monday afternoon to make further arrangements pertaining to the Ozark Trail convention at Springfield next Tuesday and Wednesday. It is planned for about 100 to attend from Mansfield and help show the convention that the Southern Route through Mansfield is THE route. Dr. F. H. Riley was chosen marshal of the Mansfield delegation and he will see to it that the delegation from the Gem City of the Ozarks makes itself heard and seen at the convention.

M. A. Freeman attended a meeting at Cabool last week of representatives from the various towns on the Scenic Southern Route--from Rolla to Rogersville. At this meeting plans were made for the Southern Route delegation, including delegates from Ava, Hartville, Willow Springs, West Plains and other cities interested in but not directly on the route, to make the trip in autos to Springfield in a body and let the world know that we want the official Ozark trail road. It is planned to arrive in Springfield the day before the convention meets and be ready the morning of the convention to make a noise for the Southern Route, banners, badges, songs and other paraphernalia assisting. The Mansfield Concert Band will accompany the Mansfield delegation and help to show just how good a place Mansfield really is.
