Knitting Women

By
KATHLEEN NORRIS.

"Of one million sweaters furnished by the Red Cross to American soldiers, half were made by the hands of the knitting women of America."—January Report.)

We are the knitting women; weaving swift
 Our webs of olive drab and navy gray; -
 We are the women, keeping thought away
 By this new work of love, this eager gift
 Through which our men, facing the bitter fight
 Under the stars of far and foreign lands,
 Shall know that still a million women's hands
 Uphold them in the darkness and the night.

We are the knitting women, knitting fast
 A web of love; our million hearts are sent
 As one, with ev'ry marching regiment,
 Love's own democracy is come at last.
 High over stricken France the black smoke towers;
 Beneath it, in the hurry and the noise
 Are eastern, western, northern, southern, boys,
 No longer yours or mine,—forever ours!

We are the knitting women; weaving strong
 A web of prayer; our eyes with tears are dim,
 But, wife or mother, we shall search for him
 Across the seas, morning and even-song.
 Lord God,—we pray—look down on what we do!
 Bless this our work, help us to play our part.
 The God of Battles—Father, still Thou art
 The God of waiting—waiting women, too!
