THE AMERICAN RED CROSS IN PEACE TIME
Child Welfare

Boys and girls who learn early to take proper care of their teeth, throats, eyes, ears and stomachs, have made a long step toward healthy manhood and womanhood. Through its public health and nursing services, the American Red Cross aims eventually to reach all school children with teachings regarding disease prevention and health promotion. Here's a school nurse treating a little girl for sore mouth, at the same time imparting a valuable lesson in tooth brushing and proper diet.

A merchandise car jumped out of a southbound Frisco freight train in the yards here last night landing clear of the right-of-way and so traffic was not delayed. The wrecker from Springfield came after the car and took it back this evening.

Two men, giving New Orleans as their home, were picked up Sunday by City Marshal Roe Strong, and placed in the Hotel de Strong over night, being released Monday and given 30 minutes to leave town. They "bummed" their way on Frisco passenger train No. 104.

There will be a dinner and bazar at the Christian church, Saturday December, 4th. Adv.

Through Rose Wilder Lane is in a foreign land her mother, Mrs. A. J. Wilder, of Rocky Ridge farm, gave a party for her. As the guests entered the spacious living room, though they were not greeted by the living presence of Rose, still, she was very much in evidence, as her smiling countenance greeted one from the den, the mantle, the table and every available place wherein a photograph could be placed. The guests spent the afternoon reading letters Rose had written home, describing her trip across, the visits made to Paris, Poland, etc., the conditions encountered there, the plans of her work, descriptions of places, peoples, and their customs as well as their costumes. After setting around the big, comfortable fire place, eating apples and nuts, each one present wrote a letter to Rose, wishing her a Merry Christmas. Although, Rose Wilder Lane is a writer of great note, a woman of affairs of the world and numbered among those who are named in the "Who's Who in America," she is remembered still by those present as their schoolmate. The guests were Misses Ada Hoover of Kansas City, Maude Reynolds and Mesdames Jessie Freeman Fuson and Blanche Coday Anderson.
