

Armistice Day Celebration

The great and new national holiday—Armistice Day—was celebrated in Mansfield. The celebration was under the auspices of the American Legion Post of Mansfield, and the days' program consisted mainly of speaking and orchestral music in the evening at the Nugget Theatre. The buildings was tastily and appropriately decorated for the occasion, and the orchestra furnished excellent music. The Theatre was filled to its seating capacity, and the Legion boys and other citizens of Mansfield were highly and pleasantly entertained by some splendid addresses; the speakers of the evening consisting of Mayor J. E. Craig, J. Lon Dennis and the Rev. J. W. Paterson. Many good and pleasing things were said by these speakers, and the praise for the boys was very great. The sentiment seemed unanimous, that "there was nothing too good for these boys". The American Legion of Mansfield wishes at this time to thank the people for their attendance, and all those who assisted in making the occasion pleasant and the evenings entertainment a success. "Home Baking"

When one thinks of good home baking today, there is always a mental picture of grand mothers goodies. But there has been as much advance in the gentle art of home baking as there has in the sciences.

The Educational Department of the Dr. Price Baking Powder Factory is doing great work in the improvement of home baking. The most helpful results of this work have been embodied in a new cook book which is said to be the last word in baking perfection.

That this book may reach every home, every grocer has been authorized to present a copy of the New Dr. Price Cook Book to all purchasers of Dr. Price's Phosphate Baking Powder.
