LIFE'S STICE.

There is no doubt that the Louisiana Purchase World's Fair is the greatest show on earth the Fair, and if the Exposition officials left anything undone for the meaning, your consideration to it pleasure and entertainment of the editors I can't think what it was, for we were treated royally. Or course there will be people who found in the blessing besides the complain, but they are the kind that find fault at everything. One complaint was that the editor were invited before everything was finished, but as it is there is mor than one can see for a week of steady sight seeing. As I said has week, it is a good thing that every thing is not finished, for we would wear ourselves out. Four days is quite enough to spend at the Fair that must be seen to be properly at one time, for after you are so appreciated. When viewing the tired, it is impossible to enjoy any thing to its full extent.
