HOUSE COMMITTEE OPPOSES BEVERIDGE AMENDMENT.

Presents a Measure of Its Own, Which the President, It is Said, Will Oppose.

Washington—A meat inspection amendment to the agricultural appropriation bill has been completed by the house committee on agriculture, and will be known as the Wadsworth substitute for the Beveridge amendment.

PRESIDENT NOT PLEASED.

The president has set the seal of his unqualified disapproval upon the measure. Chairman Wadsworth sent a copy of the new proposition to the president, and he received from the president a letter in which the latter in unmistakable terms makes it plain that it is totally, absolutely and in every essential particular unsatisfactory to him.

THE PRESIDENT'S LETTER.

Secretary Loeb has given out a summary of the president's letter, in which the secretary says: "In the letter to Mr. Wadsworth the president stated that almost every change in the proposed house amendment was for the worse."

GOV. PATTISON OF OHIO DEAD

CALL CAME WHEN THOUGHT TO BE IMPROVING.

A SKETCH OF HIS CAREER

He Will Be Succeeded by Andrew Lintner Harris, a Republican, Who Served the State With McKinley.

Cincinnati.—Hon. John M. Pattison, governor of Ohio, died at his home in Milford, a suburb of this city, at 5:20 o'clock Monday afternoon. He had passed a good night and there was no report of any serious change during the day.

SKETCH OF HIS CAREER.

John M. Pattison, boy soldier, lawyer, state legislator, member of congress and governor of Ohio, was born in Clermont county, Ohio, June 13, 1847. He enlisted as a volunteer in the United States army when but 16 years of age, in 1864, and entered college immediately after being mustered out, graduating at the Ohio Wesleyan university, Delaware, O., with the class of 1869, having been a college mate of United States Senator James B. Foraker.

CHIO'S NEW GOVERNOR.

Andrew Lintner Harris, lieutenant-governor, who, under the constitution, becomes governor during the balance of the term for which Pattison was elected, is a republican. He was born in Butler county, Ohio, November 17, 1855.
