

The Farmington Times.

Volume 36

FARMINGTON, ST. FRANCOIS COUNTY, MO., SEPTEMBER 9, 1909.

Number 37

Published Every Thursday by The Farmington Times Printing Company.

New Fall Footwear Advance Showing of New Fall Styles

We have now ready for your inspection our immense line of New Fall Footwear.

All the new and favorite styles are here. Smart and attractive patterns that are seldom found outside the large cities. We have skimmed the market over and now offer you the cream in style, fit and quality.

SEE THESE ON DISPLAY IN OUR SHOW WINDOWS

Karsch's

Farmington - - - - - Missouri

TOWN AND VICINAGE

New kraut at Kleins.
Poultry food at Kleins'.
Plenty of cabbage at Klein's.
New canned goods at Klein's.
Emmett Asbury was a St. Louis visitor this week.
George Forster was a St. Louis visitor this week.
Let Maeko do your jewelry repairing—Under Photo Gallery.
The little child of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Herrington died this morning.
Watches, clocks and jewelry repaired by Maeko—Under Photo Gallery.
Miss Mary Castleman of Potosi has been visiting Mrs. Fernie Castleman.
An attractive line of watches and jewelry at Robert Tetley Jewelry Co.'s store.
Miss Ethel Morris will attend school at Hardin College, Mexico this year.
If your elstern needs cleaning, drop me a postal card or see me.—Henry Dorsten.
Eye-glasses fitted and repaired by a graduate optician. See Maeko, under Photo Gallery.
Mrs. Richard Burks and children of Blodgett were the guests this week of Mrs. John T. Burks.
Musical instruments of all kinds at the Robert Tetley Jewelry Co.'s store. Bargains in these goods.
Dr. and Mrs. Charles R. Fleming and son Ward spent the past week at Aurora, Mo., visiting Dr. Bart Fleming.
Judge and Mrs. J. Q. Mitchell of Bonne Terre visited the family of their son, Judge J. D. Mitchell several days this week.
Mr. Marion Vest, one of Desloge's industrious mmmers and wealth producers, was a Farmington visitor Tuesday.
You will find bargains in sewing machines just now at the Robert Tetley Jewelry Co., All kinds of sewing machine fixtures.
Miss Bessie Cover will attend the State University the ensuing term, and Miss Ruth Swink will resume her course at the Christian College at Columbia.
Misses Sarah and Louise McAthur and Florence Wernsey of St. Louis spent last week here, the guests of Miss Anna Butterfield.
Dr. E. G. Simmons came in from Houston, Texas, Tuesday to spend a short time with his family, who are located here for the winter.
Mrs. Susan Walker returned from St. Louis Tuesday, where she had been to see her son, Bart, who is still sick at Mullaughy Hospital.
Mrs. Barney Peltz and little son, Lawrence, have returned from St. Louis, where they have been since the opening of the base ball season.

Mr. and Mrs. Zeno Swearingen and children have returned to their home in St. Louis after spending a few days with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Swearingen, and sister, Mrs. F. M. Horton of Flat River.
There will be no preaching at the Lutheran Church next Sunday, as Rev. Kling, the pastor, will preach on that day in the grove in north St. Louis where seven churches are celebrating their annual mission festival.
Mrs. James Hayden and little son of Cape Girardeau visited Mrs. M. R. Smith this week. Her mother, Mrs. J. H. Rider, who has been here for a couple of weeks, returned to the Cape with her Wednesday.
Miss Frances Barbour left Thursday night for Farmington to take up her duties of principal of the Granger school. Miss Frances is one of Clay county's best teachers and the Farmington schools are fortunate in securing her services for another year.—Liberty Tribune.
An attempt was made last Thursday night to break into the kitchen of the Cornman residence in the southern part of town, but Mr. Ira Cornman was aroused by the fumbling at the lock of the door, and started to investigate, when the night prowlers skipped out. They were seen by some of the neighbors running away.
Mr. Jeff Hawn of Rural Route No. 3, one of our very best old citizens, called at The Times office last Saturday and renewed his subscription. Mr. Hawn is one of The Times' oldest subscribers, his name having been on its books ever since the present editor took charge, and that was over thirty years ago. It always makes us feel better to have such old friends drop in and say "howdy."
Next Sunday will be the last service of the present conference year at the Farmington M. E. Church, South, and Rev. Wm. Court pastor, will leave Tuesday for Fredericktown, the seat of the St. Louis Annual Conference. The members of the church are urged to be present at both morning and evening services. The Lord's Supper will be administered at the morning service. The evening service will be at 7 o'clock.
The Centennial Celebration in St. Louis, October 3d to 9th, will be observed by special church services on Sunday, October 3d. The Southern Methodist Churches of the city have agreed to invite the former pastors of the several Churches to occupy the pulpits on that Sunday. Rev. Wm. Court, pastor of the Farmington M. E. Church, South, has been selected to occupy the pulpit of the Cabanne church, of which he was pastor the year before he went to the Far East as a missionary.
Down in Ripley county there is much interest taken in the mining properties that are being developed.

The premium list and program for the Fair to be held here October 12 to 16 is out, and anyone desiring one should call at the office of the Secretary or address him at Farmington. The Secretary is receiving many inquiries about the Fair from stockmen in Southeast Missouri and Illinois, and a large number of applications have been made for concessions. A number of stalls in the barn have been reserved already, and it would be well for exhibitors to reserve stalls now, that they may be sure to get good ones.
Mr. Jos. Meadows of DeLassus, one of our old and much esteemed citizens, made The Times a pleasant call last Saturday. Mr. Meadows is 78 years old and is still hale and hearty. He was married when he was 19 years of age and his wife was 17, and they have lived happily together for 59 years. They came to Missouri shortly after the close of the civil war, and have made their home most of that time in St. Francois county. Mr. Meadows following farming. He is a Union veteran of the civil war, but says he went into the army a Democrat, and he has never voted any other ticket. The Times congratulates him and his aged life companion on their hale old age, and hopes that many more happy years are in store for them, and that they may live to celebrate their diamond wedding.
DEATH OF REV. CREIGHTON.
Rev. James Alexander Creighton, a member of Paris Presbytery, Synod of Texas, died of paralysis at his home in Ennis, Texas, on September 3. Some six years ago he suffered a stroke of paralysis, and another about three years ago. He recovered, in a measure, and enjoyed fairly good health until a few weeks ago, when he was stricken with something like acute indigestion, but his condition was not alarming to his family or friends. However, at an early hour on September 3, he had the third stroke which proved fatal, he dying very suddenly. Mr. Creighton was born in Ohio in 1848, but his ministerial career, dating from 1880, was spent in the South, in Tennessee, Texas, Missouri and Arkansas. He graduated from Princeton Theological Seminary in 1880, and was ordained by Paducah Presbytery. Among the churches he served were Columbus, Ky., Farmington, Mo., Abilene, Colorado, Sweetwater, Anson, Wax, Alahele, Lone Elm, Corsicana, Alabama, Frost, Texas. He leaves a devoted wife, and a little son eight years old.—Christian Observer.
TEACHER-TRAINING CLASS AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH.
The teacher-training class at the Christian Church in this city, under the direction of Judge G. O. Nations, recently completed the course of study outlined by the International Sunday School Association and took their final examination on August 25. The questions for the examination were prepared and the examination papers were graded by Dr. J. H. Bryan of Kansas City, State Superintendent of Teacher Training, who says that the grades of this class were exceptionally good and their papers in excellent form. Following are grades made on the final examination:
Judge G. O. Nations, teacher 100
Mrs. Pattie F. Buck 99
Judge John S. Clay 98
Robert M. Talbert 98
Mrs. Cora O. Houchins 97
Mrs. Lida M. Fleming 97
W. N. Fleming 97
J. W. Buck 95
W. H. Houchins 93
The international association will grant diplomas to this class. It is expected that an appropriate commencement program will be rendered about the 25th of the present month, and that National Superintendent Marion Stevenson will make a public address on the occasion and will award the diplomas to the class.
DOMESTIC ART AND SCIENCE.
All those interested in the cooking and sewing courses offered at Elmwood, please meet Miss Simmons in Elmwood library on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The meeting called for Tuesday was not held owing to bad weather. The cooking course will be given if there are as many as ten applicants.
John Schulerberg of Ste. Genevieve, whose wheat crop was caught in the recent flood, decided he would try and save part of it. He had it raked out of the mud and dried, and he saved 4,000 bushels, which will bring him 60 cents a bushel.

IN HONOR OF HIS 21st BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY.
Last Monday evening Miss Zora Nations entertained a number of friends at her home in this city on the occasion of the twenty-first birthday anniversary of her brother, Heber Nations. The decorations were in the colors of Carleton College football team, in whose plendid record last year Heber took a prominent part. The musical talent of Prof. McFerrin and the accomplishments of other professors and students of the college contributed much to the enjoyment of the evening. Light refreshments were served, and the guests departed at a late hour, after showering on the guest of honor hearty congratulations and cordial good wishes for many happy returns of the anniversary of his birth.
The following were among the guests: President and Mrs. George B. Thomas, Prof. and Mrs. Harold Mead, Prof. Paul McFerrin, Prof. Chester F. Chase, Misses Mildred White, Nellie Pipkin, Ruth Swink, Robbie Pipkin, Ruth Huff, Effie Bess, Ruth Spangh, Lizzie Giessing, Della Bess, Emma Giessing, Alma Smith, Florence McCormick, Susie Tucker, Valery Soldine, Ida Green, Grace Hamilton, Grace Highley, Lulu Counts, Anna Buck, Laura Soldine, Ruth Evans, Mary Ledbetter, Edna Ware, Lizzie O'Sullivan, Mary Carro, Edna Oesterlin, Ethel Morris, Bessie Cover, Mabel Sackman, Wilma Denman, Roberta Tetley, Edna Scimmons, Elizabeth Marlow, Blanche Gale and Alice Thomason, and Messrs. Kossuth Wood, John Huchin, Harold Houchins, Billy Binkledge, Clyde Morsey, Yancy White, Harold Crow, Melville Shaner, Fielding McCormick, Walter White, Ed Swink, Philip Pipkin, Merrifield Huff, Milton Spangh, Peter Giessing, Arthur Calvird, Earl Williams, Henry Giessing, Emmett Asbury, Taylor Smith, Bryan Forster, Robert Chalk, Lee Mitchell and Forster Cole.
MUSICAL FESTIVAL.
Last Friday night the first entertainment of the season given by home talent was under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., and owing to the extremely warm evening was not as largely attended as the cause demanded. Vocal and instrumental music and elocution composed the program. Those who sang were Mrs. Lillian Gillespie, Miss Margaret Noland and Mrs. C. O. Nelson. The instrumental performers were Misses Bessie Cover, Augusta Lawrence and Ethel Morris. Miss Nell Pipkin, Miss Mabel Sackman and Miss Mabel Grimes, the new primary teacher at Elmwood, recited. There was a butterfly drill that was very pretty, and a pantomime, "Rock me to Sleep," by Misses Ethel Smith and Alma Denman. The closing number was by the choir of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. The whole entertainment was admirably planned and carried out by Mrs. C. O. Nelson, and much enjoyed by the audience.
CENTENNIAL RALLY CHRISTIAN CHURCH.
The program for the Centennial Rally at the Christian Church next Sunday is given below:
10 a. m.—Bible School, "Every member of the church in Bible School," is the Slogan. Superintendent J. S. Clay will speak.
11 a. m.—"The Beginning of the Movement," by G. O. Nations.
3 p. m.—"The Work of Woman," Mrs. J. B. Burks, and the "Place of the Lord's Supper in the Movement," T. D. Fisher. Communion at close of afternoon services.
7:45 p. m.—"Progress and Achievements of a Hundred Years," R. M. Talbert.
Special music at each service and the public is invited.
ART AT ELMWOOD.
All persons interested in any of the art courses kindly meet Miss Brown Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the library at Elmwood, the Tuesday meeting having been postponed on account of bad weather. There will be an interesting course in applied art, consisting of the following subjects: stenciling, beaten brass and leather work. The china will include all the newest ideas in conventional design. All those intending to enter the class for any work either now or later, please attend this meeting, as Miss Brown wishes to go to St. Louis Saturday to purchase materials.

RIGHT HERE

Is the place to drive up for a thirst killer or to take the dust from the parched and dusty throats of the automobilist, bicyeler or driver. Don't pass our store without refreshing yourself with a glass of pure, sparkling ice cold soda water, or an ice cream soda flavored with pure fruit juices. You can get it to ravish the palate at

MASON'S BAKERY.

LITTLE FOLKS' PARTIES.
Last Friday afternoon, September 3, at 2 o'clock, the lawn of Mrs. Walter L. Hensley swarmed with little children. There were fifty-seven of them who came in honor of the fourth birthday anniversary of master Robert Thornton Hensley. Everything necessary to make the children happy at a party was there, and they all enjoyed it to the fullest extent. Each little guest had four sticks of candy tied with a ribbon to carry home as a souvenir, and they all wish Robert many more happy birthday anniversaries.
Mrs. Ed. Henderson invited about forty little girls to spend the afternoon last Thursday with her daughter, Mary, whose birthday anniversary the occasion was. They had a fine time dressing bottles up like doll babies and some proved very expert. It was a most enjoyable afternoon, and all left wishing their little hostess many happy returns of the day.
Mrs. Henderson also entertained Wednesday afternoon for her little daughter Margaret, and the children as usual had a good time.

GRAND RECITAL.
Fifty-Sixth Annual Faculty Recital of Carleton College, Thursday, Sept. 16, 8 p. m., at M. E. Church.
All who love the best in music and literature are urged to be present. Everybody is welcome. The annual Faculty Recitals of Carleton are always hailed with much pleasurable anticipation by the people of Farmington, and the recital of next Thursday promises to be the best yet given.
All the teachers are very highly recommended and are experienced in their line of work.
Program:
Nocturne Chopin, Op. 37, No. 2
Novellette in F. Schumann
Mr. McFerrin.
My Mother Bids Me Bid My Hair
The Secret Schubert
Miss Mercer.
Sixte of the Neighborhood
Miss McLaughlan.
Romance in G. Beethoven
Zigeunerweisen Sarasate
Mr. Chase.
The Transfiguration of Miss Phillips
Florence Kingsley
Miss McLaughlan.
Valse (original edition)
Moszkowski, Op. 34, No. 1
Mr. McFerrin.
Carnival de Venise Pagadini
Mr. Chase.
Dreams of Day, Jill German
Hills o' Skye Harris
When Maidens go a-Maying German
Miss Mercer.
Catholic Church Services.
Services at 8 o'clock a. m. in Farmington Catholic Church on the coming Sunday, September 12th. Mass at Doe Run at half past nine o'clock.
JOSEPH COLLINS, PASTOR.
Use our 29c coffee—Klein's.

Miss Augusta Lawrence
Teacher of
Piano and Theory of Music
Graduate of Forest Park University under Mr. E. R. Kroeger of St. Louis.
Telephone No. 7.

In the mile event Lester Albright ran second to Pipkin, the Farmington boy, and the home boy's race was good, too, because no one in Southeast Missouri has any possible chance against Pipkin, who is much older than our school boys and, besides, is almost ready to enter into competition with the best known runners of the United States. And we will venture the assertion right now that Pipkin will "make good" in any company, for he is just simply built for the running game, keeps constantly in the finest possible condition, and his stamina, unlimited. Time, 5:29.—Charleston Enterprise.

ELMWOOD RECITAL.
The Presbyterian Church was crowded Monday evening by a large audience, attracted by the announcement that the teachers of Elmwood would give a recital. Miss Elsie Cayce's organ playing and Miss Clark's singing were both well known to be of a high class, and in addition to these Miss Grimes, the new teacher of expression at Elmwood, was to be on the program, which was sufficient to draw lovers of good music. Each one gave several numbers, which were very much enjoyed. After the recital a reception was held in the school parlors.

Miss Elsie Dupuy Cayce
Teacher of
Piano, Organ and Theory
Post-graduate degree in piano from two well-known Colleges. Pupil of best masters in organ. Special attention paid to beginners.
Phone 196.

FOR SALE.
No. 1 RECLEANED FELTZ SEED WHEAT, from 40-bushel crop, absolutely free from smut and cockle, $1.20 per bushel, subject to fluctuation.
WM. RIEHL & SON,
Potosi, Mo.

FOR SALE.
Saw mill outfit, consisting of 20 H. P. Engine, 25 H. P. Boiler and No. 1 DeLouch mill. Cheap. Address C. F. Mauch, 3212 Green Ave., St. Louis Mo.

FOR RENT.
Three small houses near Elmwood Seminary. Apply to J. S. Clay.

PROF. CHESTER F. CHASE
VIOLINIST
RESUMES TEACHING SEPT. 9
AT CARLETON COLLEGE
This is the second year of this department, and it opens with an enrollment of 45 students from the cities of Farmington, Flat River and Bonne Terre, and from other vicinities. This department guarantees students as full-fledged artists and offers violinistic opportunities to students as great as can be had at any Conservatory of Music in this country.
Enroll with Prof. Chase at Carleton College after Sept. 9th, and receive the benefit of a full year.

PROF. PAUL LUTHER McFERRIN
PIANIST AND TEACHER WITH CARLETON COLLEGE
EARLY IN SEPTEMBER.