BUSINESS COLLEGE NOTES

Lee Horton of Sikeston visited us last Saturday. Lee had a week's furlough, spending the most of the time with parents near Doe Run. He is well pleased with his position in Sikeston, and requested us to send a young man stenographer to a certain company in one of the prominent cities of Southeast Missouri, but our supply is exhausted at this time, hence we are unable to fill the vacancy. Prof. W. E. Turley, principal of one of Brown's business colleges in St. Louis, was in Farmington Sunday. Mr. Turley is one of our graduates and is making good in his present responsible position. Prof. Kinder was called to Piedmont Sunday afternoon, owing to the serious illness of a brother. William Moothart was down from St. Louis spending Saturday and Sunday with his father and friends. Warden was to have accompanied him, but just before leaving was requested to remain as he was in line for a promotion and had to meet some of the head officials of the Missouri Pacific. These young men are making good in the fullest sense of the term and were pleased with their work and surroundings generally. Warden reports having received the promotion and now draws a very lucrative salary. The monthly Remington Award contest was given last Friday, and the following students were winners of the highest award contested for in April: Misses Nannie Barnhouse, Mame Wheeler, Messrs. Clyde Phillips, M. L. Kertz and Clyde McClintock. The winners of the first award or penant test are: Misses Augusta Lawrence, Lois Hunt, Edna Barton, Bertha Hoehn, Minnie Roux, Lydia Hinz and Vera Blankenship; Messrs. Floyd Halter, Ferd Kertz and Carroll Phillips. Miss Nannie Barnhouse has accepted a position as stenographer and general assistant in the office of the St. Joseph Lead Company at Bonne Terre, having begun her work Monday of this week. Miss Minnie Counts of R. F. D. No. 2 was a welcome visitor one day last week. The following students successfully passed their first test in the president's office last week: Misses Johanna Saling, Maude Richter, Messrs. Floyd Halter and John Waring. Clyde McClintock passed his second shorthand and typewriting test given by President Moothart last Thursday. (Continued on page 8.)

Whooping Cough

"When my daughter had whooping cough she coughed so hard at one time that she had hemorrhage of the lungs. I was terribly alarmed about her condition. Seeing Chamberlain's Cough Remedy so highly recommended, I got her a bottle and it relieved the cough at once. Before she had finished two bottles of this remedy she was entirely well." writes Mrs. S. F. Grimes, Crooksville, Ohio. Obtainable everywhere. (adv.)
