

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS

IS AT THE MONARCH

in his newest picture
"HIS MAJESTY,
THE AMERICAN"

Here's a picture for you—a romance with a regular hero, and heroine and oodles of villains an' everything. And such a hero! He cleans up everything from New York to the Mexican Border and then hops to Europe to show them how to handle a revolution. Can he do it? Well—you know Doug!

Thursday and Friday

July 22 and 23

ADMISSION: Children, 15c.; Adults, 25c.

LEADWOOD

Geo. Taylor and family, of DeSoto, are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Taylor. George holds a position at time-keeper with the Mo. Pac. Ry.

Samuel Eugene Williams tried to deposit his John Henry Ford in the Leadwood Bank one day last week, but was unable to get it any further than the door. It tore the screen door down in trying to get in.

J. F. Beckler was called to Dayton, Ohio, recently on account of the serious illness of his brother. John said before leaving that he expected to see the next President before he returned.

William Towle, assistant cashier of the Bank here, is visiting relatives in Dexter this week.

Geo. (Powder) Belknap is in St. Louis this week.

Willard Nance went to St. Louis the last of the week to seek employment.

The Leadwood baseball team received its second defeat of the season last Sunday at Desloge, by the close score of 7 to 6. Two of Leadwood's regular players were out of town that day, which left a big weak spot in the infield.

William Gier, of St. Louis, was visiting relatives here the last of the week.

Nathan Levy left the latter part of last week for an extended trip through the West. He expects to visit Colorado, Utah, and California, returning home after the first of August.

L. C. Smith is visiting relatives in Rolla this week.

F. T. Westlund left Sunday for Burlington, Iowa, where he has a good position. He has been working at carpenter work for the last few months for the St. Joseph Lead Co.

Emmett Mason returned home Sunday from Arcadia, where he has been spending his vacation for the last week.

R. F. Ramsey returned to St. Louis Monday after spending a week here with relatives. Mrs. Ramsey and baby did not return with him, as they expect to continue their visit for a few days longer.

Lester and Harold Clark were visiting relatives in Mexico the latter part of the week.

John Souder, Henry Scott and Capt. A. N. Hahn were fishing on the St. Francois river Saturday night and caught quite a lot of fish.

H. K. Level's boys were in swimming one day last week in a slough of water near the pumping station on Big River and caught a carp with their hands. The carp weighed 11½ lbs.

Rev. O. H. Duggins preached a very interesting sermon at the Methodist church here Sunday night.

E. K. Shoultz was visiting in Farmington Saturday night and Sunday.

Miss Florence League, of Bonne Terre, is visiting Mrs. S. E. Williams this week.

Geo. R. Jordan and James Maxwell left Tuesday for Detroit, Mich. Geo. says he aims to get back home in time this fall to vote for Gov. Cox. Mr. Maxwell may not return if he can get suitable employment.

J. A. Northcutt was visiting in Potosi Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Denton were visiting Bonne Terre Monday on business.

W. T. Scott and Lin Walsh were transacting business in Bonne Terre Monday.

Mrs. B. C. Simmons and son, Derwood, of Bonne Terre, were visiting relatives here the latter part of the week.

Born, to Br. and Mrs. R. A. Laramore, on July 5th, a boy, another addition to the Democratic party.

Two fellows were once discussing what an Optimist was. One said that an optimist was a fellow who makes lemonade out of the lemons that are handed him.

P. A. Benham, of Bonne Terre, was in Leadwood Tuesday.

ELVINS

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. E. Wise, July 12, 1920, a daughter.

Mrs. E. L. Bessinger and son and Mrs. Fingers went to St. Louis Saturday to visit relatives. They returned Monday.

Misses Mabel and Edith Berryman, who have been here visiting for the past week, returned to St. Louis Saturday.

Mrs. Sam Larne and children, Jack and Evia, who have been visiting in Wyoming for several days, returned home last week.

Miss Lizzie Bessinger, who has been here visiting her parents, has returned to St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. John Plymale and children returned home Monday from Bunker, where they visited a week or two.

Mrs. Dot Sherrills and daughter, Edna, returned to St. Louis Saturday, after a week's visit with her parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Norris and children returned home Sunday, after a few days visit with relatives in Yount.

Chas. Norris, who got his hand badly burned the Fourth, is now able to work.

Dave McGehee of St. Louis was visiting here the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Buckner and children motored to Farmington Sunday, visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Byers and children motored to Iron county Sunday to visit relatives.

Walter Halley and Clara Pelate were married Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pelate.

Mrs. Mary Kinney was guest of Mrs. Sarah Oheron Wednesday.

Bert Sebastian was a Flat River visitor Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Maxon and Miss Edna Robinson and Miss Beulah Taylor went to Iron Mountain lake Tuesday.

Miss May Underwood was a business visitor Sunday.

Orville Tucker of Davis Crossing was struck by lightning Saturday and instantly killed, and his four-year-old sister was badly burned.

Bill Golden and Dock and Charley Berry left the first of last week for Chicago to seek employment.

Geo. Moore was called home last week on account of the illness of his wife.

Wm. Bogue and Roy Queen of Calcedonia were in Elvins Sunday.

Norman Braddy is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Sam Burch, this week.

Miss Josie Moore of Doe Run has been visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moore.

Miss Rosa Moore of Flat River visited her father and mother here Thursday.

H. Moyer was a Knob Lick visitor Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Curlee and children and Mrs. Curlee's sister of St. Louis spent a few days at Iron Mountain this week.

LIBERTYVILLE

We had a good rain here Wednesday.

The threshing machine can be heard in this neighborhood.

Mrs. Frank Cummings and children, Elsie and Katherine, spent last week with relatives in Elvins.

Mrs. Sam Anthony spent the latter part of last week with relatives here.

J. I. Conrad and son shipped a fine lot of cattle Wednesday of this week.

Chas. Coffman spent last Sunday here.

Mrs. Flayd Davis and Miss Kate Shaw spent one day last week with the latter's mother, Mrs. Shaw, who has been sick, but is reported better at this writing.

Mrs. E. O. Presnell and son, Cletis, were visitors in the Lead Belt this week.

Every one remember the festival at the Christian church here the 24th of this month.

"Aunt" Lizzie Wallace had the misfortune to burn her foot one day this week while cooking beans.

N. A. Kinkead and family spent the latter part of last week here with their son, G. N. Kinkead, and wife.

While Kennet Burns was cutting oats last week he caught his hand in a cog wheel on his binder and mashed his left hand very badly, but he is getting along nicely now.

Miss Audell Cashion spent last Sunday with Miss Cressie Presnell.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Parker and children, Miss Mercelotte Martin and Miss Leona McCarver of Flat River and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lenz and daughter, Dora, of Cross Roads spent last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B.

INVESTIGATE THE SAMSON Tractor

ASK THE OWNERS ABOUT THEM.

The fall plowing will soon have to be done. Do it more economically and more satisfactorily with a SAMSON.

We guarantee the Samson to do the work.

Tractor	-	-	$930
Plows	-	-	$170
Disks	-	-	$170

$1270 delivered to your farm.

Lang Motor Co.

Farmington - - - - - Missouri

Missouri's Most Brilliant Candidate for Governor

Endorsed by Farmers
Endorsed by Labor
Endorsed by Business Men
Endorsed by the Press

A Man Who Is Every Inch a Man and a Man Who Will Add Honor to the Honorable Office He Seeks

E. E. E. McJIMSEY
Owner and Editor of Springfield Missouri Republican Candidate for Republican Nomination for GOVERNOR
Primary Election, August 3, 1920

This ad paid for by Springfield's non-partisan McJimsy-for-Governor Club so that you may know the high regard in which he is held by his fellow townsmen.

PRESNELL

Every one come to church next Sunday morning and evening at the Christian church.

CHESTNUT RIDGE

Joseph Vorst and granddaughter, Anna Ruth Oberle, of Ste. Genevieve, passed through Route and spent several hours in Farmington last Monday. Mrs. Ed. Zeler accompanied them home and will remain for a visit.

Mr. John Marks spent the 4th of July with her sister, Mrs. Knapp, and other relatives.

Lewis Hunt, of St. Louis, visited friends on Route 3 this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ayers and children, of Farmington, attended church at the Ridge last Sunday.

Mrs. T. B. Chandler is now able to walk from her bed to the dining room to eat her meals. Her many friends are thankful for this great improvement and are hoping for a much greater one.

Mrs. Swarts and daughter, Clara, of St. Louis, visited Mrs. Harks last week.

Mrs. Nellie Nelson, of St. Louis visited her sister, Mrs. Bertie Culbert, son and friend, Mrs. Jennie Rudy the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Halter, of Pleasant Hill were shopping in Farmington last Monday.

Preston Burgess of Esther attended church at the Ridge last Sunday.

Brother Gossage, of Desloge, preached at Chestnut Ridge last Sunday. He was accompanied by his little son, Leon.

Children's Day program at Chestnut Ridge next Sunday, July 18th, at 2 p. m.

VALLES MINES

Edw. Heaton left Friday morning for St. Louis, where he has employment.

Mrs. Claude Long and daughter, who have been here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. French, returned to her home in Flat River Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Ratty of Bonne Terre are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. H. C. Rhodes and son, Cyrus, and sister, Miss Olga Heaton, were Bonne Terre visitors Friday.

Misses Nealie Decker and Christina Turley and Metford Decker visited at the home of N. Nash Sunday.

Misses Gustina Turley and Merlin Hawk and Elsie Heaton, Eugene Hansbrough and Theo. Statzel visited at the home of Wm. E. Heaton Sunday.

Dale Hawk and children are visiting at Leadwood.

John Burns and children visited his mother, Mrs. R. Burns, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Heaton and children visited their daughter, Mrs. H. C. Rhodes, Sunday.

Clarence Sykes of Flat River spent the week-end here the guest of his parents.

Bro. Russell filled his regular appointment Sunday night.

Thos. Blotvogal of St. Louis visited friends here the latter part of the week.

Miss Ethel Whaley of St. Louis spent a few days here visiting her parents near Prospect.

Bud Riddle of Desloge spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Mary Riddle.

Elmer Moon, Leeman Richardson and Theo. Bieser attended church here Sunday night.

A. P. Rowe visited his father, R. H. Rowe, Sunday.

Miss Elsie Heaton of Plattin visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Heaton, the latter part of the week.

Miss Gladys Stroupe of Bonne Terre and Miss Mabel Stroupe of Flat River were Silver Springs visitors Sunday.

Mrs. Jas. Appleberry and granddaughter, Miss Hattie Appleberry, were Bonne Terre visitors Friday.

A. P. Rowe is visiting relatives and friends in St. Louis at this writing.

PRIMROSE

Mrs. Ida Jones and daughter, Lois, were shopping in Bonne Terre Wednesday.

Mrs. Lass Cash and little son, Albert, were visitors at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Moon, Thursday evening.

Mrs. Ida Jones and children were visitors at the home of Wm. A. Moon Friday evening.

Mrs. Samuel Whitter was a visitor at the home of Morris Jones Saturday evening.

Frank Jones is visiting at the home of his brother, W. A. Jones, of Meizo at this writing.

Roll Roberts, of Leadwood, motored out here one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Moon and son, Ellis, spent Sunday at the home of Las Cash.

W. A. Jones motored out to Bonne Terre Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Everetts were guests at the home of M. W. Jones one night last week.

Harvey Lawson, Virgil Cash and Cecil Deimer were visitors at the home of L. H. Cosh Sunday.

Mrs. Annie Cash and little son, Albert, spent Tuesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everetts, who have been living on the farm of M. W. Jones for some time, moved Tuesday on the farm of Mr. Barnhart, of near DeSoto.

Dan O'Sullivan and family have moved out on his farm near French Village.

Verna and Lois Jones were visitors at the home of Wm. A. Moon Sunday morning.

Mrs. Wm. Blackwell of Moontown was a visitor here Monday evening.

Making hay seems to be the order of the day at this writing.

Dan O'Sullivan and son, James, of near French Village, made a trip here one day the fore part of the week.

Jack Demier and little son, John, and Josh Cash, of near here, were visitor at the home of L. Cash Sunday evening.

TUNNEL

Miss Elizabeth Boyle of Flat River, who has been visiting here, returned home Friday.

Mrs. B. Whaley and children of kinwick visited relatives in this vicinity last week.

Miss Hattie Appleberry visited her father in Bonne Terre Tuesday and Wednesday.

James and Lee Douglas, Lee and Urel Hammock and Chas. Shannan were Tunnel visitors Wednesday and Thursday nights.

Miss Myrtle Cole of Prospect visited at the home of H. C. Carter Friday afternoon.

Emmett Ketcherside visited in Desloge a few days last week.

Misses Mae, Leona and Pearl Carter attended church at Prospect Sunday.

Miss Anna Rowe and brother, Jim, attended a party at the home of D. Sullivan at Primrose one night last week.

Miss Hattie Appleberry and brother, Homer, Chas. Bellville and Reube Cole visited at the home of H. C. Carter Sunday afternoon.

SPROTT

The farmers in this vicinity are still looking for a much needed rain, although the corn that has been cultivated all along is standing the drouth fine.

Jule Huff has just finished stacking wheat and cutting hay, both of which crops have been good.

Harvey Roberts, of Route 3, came Monday with his force to harvest his hay on his farm north of Sprott.

The Rafferty boys gave a social dance on Saturday night. Those who attended are: Mr. and Mrs. Beas, Misses Mary Kate and Carrie Ball, Miss Anna Hinkle and others.

Wheeler Barber is very sick at this writing.

T. J. Wheelen, our kind and obliging butcher, is contemplating moving back to his farm near Sprott. Mr. Wheelen says hogs ears are not so plentiful near Esther, where he lives, as they were at Sprott.

A. F. Bryson and Herman Resinger motored to Iron Mountain Lake Sunday evening.

Mrs. Brent Bryson left today for St. Louis to visit her sisters, Mrs. J. L. Hecker, and Mrs. Elmer Kroeger, before going on to Hays City, Kansas, to join her husband who is in the wheat harvest there.

CROSS ROADS

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lenz and daughter spent Sunday evening with relatives at Libertyville.

Mrs. Wallace returned to her home Sunday after spending the past week here with her sisters and families.

J. B. Dines, of Fredericktown, was here Friday on business.

Benlah Day, of Fredericktown, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lawson McClarny at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ferguson spent the week-end at Mine La Motte.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Frye left Saturday for Flat River.

Maggie Mitchell was a Fredericktown visitor last Saturday.

Clyde Hicks, of St. Louis, spent Monday here with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Lenz of St. Louis, and Isaac Lenz, of Libertyville, spent Sunday evening at the home of Wm. Lenz and family.