

;; COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE ;;

BISMARCK

Mrs. Chas. Kettinger and son, Chas. Jr., were guests of friends and relatives in Farmington Saturday and Sunday. Dr. D. B. Hobson, of Licking, Mo., was here the latter part of last week and the first of this week visiting friends. Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Garrett and son, of Desloge, were Sunday guests of her mother, Mrs. Thomason. Raynard Brooks spent Sunday afternoon in Farmington. Miss Bessie Woodrow, who is employed in St. Louis, came home Saturday night for a visit of a few days with her mother, Mrs. I. C. Woodrow. Mr. and Mrs. Julius Scheeling and family, of Hogan, came here Sunday for a visit of a few days with relatives and friends. Virgil Sloan spent Sunday afternoon with friends in Irondale. Ed. Polk, who has been on the sick list the past few days, was taken to the Mo. Pac. hospital in St. Louis Sunday afternoon. He is reported to be suffering with typhoid. His many friends here trust that his recovery will be rapid. Miss Daisy Brooks, who is attending business college at Farmington, spent the week-end with home folks here. A box supper and program will be given at the Dent school to-night (Friday). Rev. and Mrs. Wm. England spent the past week as guests of relatives at Gillespie, Ill. A. L. Bond, mother and sister, Mrs. O. D. Lashley, spent Thursday afternoon with friends at Desloge. Misses Carrie and Reta Tullock are home, after a visit of a few days with relatives and friends. Geo. Durocher, of Poplar Bluff, is at present working at the Mo. P. in place of Earl Wright. Miss Etta Keeton, of Caledonia, was here the past week the guest of Mrs. Etta Keeton. Ray Wilson went to Madison, Ill., the fore part of last week to seek employment. Fred Wood received a serious injury to his hand while at work underground last Wednesday. He was attempting to "sprag a car" when the accident happened. Miss Ida Jones, of Bernie, visited friends here Wednesday night and Thursday. Mrs. M. Ashby, of Elvins, spent the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Burch. John Gideon, of Bonne Terre, was here Monday morning on business. C. V. Coxe was in Flat River Monday morning on a business mission. James Blue went to St. Louis Tuesday to look after business matters and to visit his father, who is on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Cook, of Desloge, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Gideon. Mrs. G. A. Marler, of St. Louis, was here Sunday to see her mother, Mrs. S. T. Middleton, who was very sick for a short while Sunday morning. Mrs. Fleming, of Doe Run, was a Sunday afternoon guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hunter. Mr. and Mrs. Jake Zimmer and two daughters, of Crystal City, motored here Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hunter and family. Chas. Kettinger, of this city, was one of the many Farmington rooters that accompanied their team to Bonne Terre Sunday afternoon, where Farmington fairly ate up the Bonne Terre boys by the score of 21 to 0. He says Farmington surely has some football team. Wm. Hartenbeck, of Iron Mountain, was a visitor here Monday. Oscar Bock, of Flat River, spent the week-end with Norman Goeltz. Supt. Baker attended a meeting of County School Superintendents at Flat River Saturday. Mr. Baker informs us that the county is going to have more competitive contests in the schools of the county this year than ever before. Among the new contests to be held this year are: spelling and essay. The Prof. has entered Bismarck in a number of these contests, and we feel sure of the fact that we have as good speakers, essay writers and spellers in this school as any other school in the county. Davey Davis, of Hoxie, Ark., was home the week-end. Mrs. Mary Williams and daughter, of St. Louis, are at present visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Alice Collier. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Scheeling and family motored through the lead belt Sunday afternoon. Rev. Jones, a traveling minister, conducted services at the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening. C. J. Hill and daughter, Miss Hazel, were Farmington visitors Thursday. The Leadwood girls' basketball team is scheduled for a game with the Bismarck girls on the local court this afternoon. The Leadwood girls won at Leadwood a few weeks ago, and the home girls say they are going to give them one of the best drubbings they have received in a long time. A mixed quartet, composed of girls from the Freshman and eighth grade, sang some very interesting songs to the student body Monday morning. The song was mostly about "pep", and their singing showed that they had it. The songs were composed by the high school classes beginning with the Seniors and ending with the eighth grade. They then sang a song about the teachers, which was designed to instill the teachers with more "pep". F. Bouchon was in Iron county Saturday on business. Chas. Kendall, of St. Louis, spent from Saturday to Sunday with relatives and friends here. J. C. Schneider, of Valmeyer, Ill., came here Saturday for a visit of a few days with his daughter, Mrs. J. F. Schroeder. O. Kelly, of Flat River, had business here Monday morning. Miss Hazel Thomas returned to her home in St. Louis Monday morning, after a visit of a few days with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lindsey. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cook, of Elvins, spent the week-end as guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Forbes. C. H. Lucy is having the old D. L.

Boston home remodeled into a bungalow. Wm. Bogue, of Caledonia, was here Friday on business. Gilbert Warren and Chris Devine, of St. Louis, spent the week-end with relatives and friends here. J. N. Hughes was a St. Louis visitor last week. Report cards containing quarterly grades were issued to the pupils of the public schools Monday. There was no school here Friday—Armistice Day. L. F. Castleman, of Farmington, came here Thursday to get his daughter, Miss Virginia, and take her home for the week-end. Judge R. C. Tucker, of Farmington, was through here Thursday looking after trunks. Rev. Del Longreear and family departed Thursday for Army, Miss., where Rev. Longreear will be pastor of a church the coming year. We join their many friends in wishing them every success in their new home and undertakings. Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Bruce, of Flat River, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Kelly. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Blue spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Herod, of near Cantwell. Miss Sybil Isemann, of Desloge, spent the past week at the home of Albert Franz. Cecil Lightfoot, of Irondale, spent Sunday afternoon with friends here. Miss Nellie Garrett, who is attending school at Flat River, was home the week-end. Lyle Baker was an Alum Cave visitor Sunday afternoon. H. Williams, of St. Louis, visited his wife who is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Foshee. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wood and family, of Elvins, were Sunday afternoon guests of his brother, Fred Wood. Mr. and Mrs. Onie Lindon and baby, of Loughboro, spent Sunday here with relatives and friends. Hy Boyer and wife and O. E. Hansbrough and daughter, Miss Lela, were Leadwood visitors Sunday afternoon. John Boyer, of Leadwood, was through here Sunday morning on his way to Alum Cave to take charge of a funeral. Mrs. Fred Erbe, of Ironton, was here the week-end to visit her brother, Ed Polk, who has been very sick the past week. On Sunday afternoon he was taken to the Mo. P. hospital for treatment. Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Forsythe and son, of Caledonia, were guests of friends here Sunday morning. Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Sago and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Sago spent Sunday afternoon with relatives in Pilot Knob. Al Bond and Henry Dace were Ironton callers Sunday. Miss Hazel Poston, of Bonne Terre, spent the week-end with friends here. Raymond Beard went to St. Louis Thursday morning for a visit of a few days with relatives and friends. Misses Marie and Gertrude Poston went to Des Arc Sunday and spent until Tuesday with relatives and friends. Valle Boss and Floyd Boushon, of St. Louis, came here Saturday night for a visit of a few days with home folks. Clarence Woolford, of Flat River, was home the week-end. Tom Matkin, John Simms, Bert Lindsey, and Theo. Horton transacted business in Farmington Monday. Mrs. R. J. Luenberger, who formerly conducted the Bismarck hotel, was through here Thursday on her way to Ste. Genevieve, to assume charge of a hotel there. We wish her success in her new undertaking. Mrs. Ed Curlee and son, Adrain Braddy, and daughter, Mary Curlee, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Burch Thursday night. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wise, of Elvins, were here Thursday, due to the illness of her sister, Helen Burch. T. H. Coxe and Ab Mullins were near Middlebrook Wednesday looking about some grading to be done on the roads there. C. Heath, of Chicago, Ill., is visiting his brother, F. E. Heath, and family. J. F. Schroeder, who is secretary of the Lyceum Course, gave ten tickets to each member of the class, to be sold and the money used to help pay their graduation expenses. Clarence Houck had business in Farmington Saturday morning. A few of the members of the Senior class enjoyed a hike to Mt. Plunium Springs Friday. An elegant luncheon was served on the "Devil's Chair". In the crowd were: Misses Lela Bass, Minerva Rainwater, Louise Woodrow and Bertha Oehler; Walter Coxe, Alvin Hughes, Lee Grider, Vernon Gale and Clarence Houck. Virgil Sloan was a Lead Belt visitor Monday. Chas. Drew, of Caledonia, was here on business Friday. Little Helen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Burch, has been very sick the past few days with typhoid fever. She is improved at this writing. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Steele and daughter, Miss Ruth, Clova Crump, Mrs. F. W. Gale and daughter, Miss Lillian, and son, Vernon, motored through Flat River and Farmington Sunday. FLAT RIVER Frank Simpson spent Sunday in Farmington with his mother, Mrs. J. Simpson. A. C. Norwine and family spent Sunday in Farmington visiting friends. Miss Virginia and Parkhurst Hough of Fredericktown, spent the week-end here with their grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Schlick. Miss Julia Hess spent Monday in Bonne Terre shopping. Miss Glen Frazier spent Sunday in Farmington with her sister, Mrs. H. Bowman. Dr. and Mrs. T. L. Haney spent Thursday near Libertyville visiting relatives. Miss Pauline Tucker, of St. Louis, is here this week the guest of Miss Belva Watts. Miss Mary Hutchings, of Farmington, spent Sunday here visiting friends.

Miss Blanche Mosier purchased a Ford Roadster Friday. L. E. Pierson and little son returned home Wednesday from a week's visit near Coffman with relatives. Miss Iva Eaves spent Saturday in Desloge visiting friends. Miss Irene Brown spent the week-end in Farmington with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Hicks. Dr. and Mrs. G. B. Williams and daughter, Miss Nellie, attended the show in Bonne Terre last Monday evening. Clyde Phillips visited friends in Farmington Sunday. T. L. Haney and J. J. Zimmerman spent the first of the week with the former's mother near Avon. The Flat River H. S. foot ball team journeyed to Perryville Saturday and played the St. Vincent team. The score was 19-0 in favor of St. Vincent. However, the boys feel good over the game because they played their best and had four of the regulars out. Misses Belva Watts and Pauline Tucker and Horace Patt were Farmington visitors Tuesday evening. Miss Ida Mae Kennedy, of St. Louis, spent Sunday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kennedy. Mrs. J. D. Freeman was the guest of friends in Bonne Terre Friday. Miss Selma Silberstein returned to her home in St. Louis recently, after spending several weeks here with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Goodman. Miss Sybil Bowman, of Bonne Terre, was the guest of Miss Elsie Schlick here Saturday and Sunday. Miss Alfreda, of Elvins, was a Flat River visitor Monday. Miss Iva Haney spent the latter part of last week with relatives and friends near Libertyville. John Ricketts, of Marble Hill, spent Sunday here with his sister, Mrs. O. Hahn. He was on his way to St. Louis, where he is employed. Misses Pauline Tucker, Belva and Mabel Watts and Horace Patt motored to Fredericktown Sunday. Miss Lucille Simpson, of Bonne Terre, was a Flat River visitor Sunday. Mrs. Boss Abshier, of Detroit, Mich., is here for a month's visit with relatives and friends. Miss Elsie Schlick attended the football game in Bonne Terre Sunday. Mrs. H. Radle, of Farmington, was a Flat River visitor Wednesday. Miss Minnie Goldstein was a Farmington visitor Sunday. Misses Betty Jane Russell and Leta Keith, and Oran Burns visited friends in Bonne Terre Sunday. Hubert Simpson, of Bonne Terre, was in Flat River Sunday. Born, of Mr. and Mrs. H. Bowman, of Farmington, a son, on Sunday. Mrs. Bowman formerly lived here and will be remembered as Miss Beulah Frazier. The Flat River H. S. foot ball team will play the Farmington H. S. team at Farmington Friday. Everyone should go and support our boys. They have suffered a defeat at the hands of Farmington once this year and intend to put up a strong game to even up. Misses Blanche and Bessie Mosier and Mrs. N. Wallace motored to Bonne Terre Sunday and visited friends. The girls' basketball team will play the Elvins girls Friday night at the Y. M. C. A. Elvins has the strongest team that we have played this year and a good game is expected. Relatives and friends of Mrs. B. Dines received word here Wednesday night of her death, which occurred Tuesday night. Among those from here who attended the funeral at Fredericktown Thursday were: Mr. and Mrs. A. Parker, T. A. Martin and daughter, Miss Mercedie, Dr. and Mrs. T. L. Haney, Dr. and Mrs. E. Griffin, and Mrs. N. Tucker, of St. Louis, is spending this week here visiting relatives and friends. Miss Katherine Simmons, of St. Louis, visited friends here Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thompson were slipping in Farmington Wednesday. Misses Leota and Edna Van Curen and Mary Hutchings and Paul Byington were Bonne Terre visitors Sunday. Kenneth Kirkland was a Leadwood visitor Friday evening. Earl Halbrook entertained a number of friends at his home Tuesday evening. There were about thirty guests present. Games and refreshments were enjoyed by all present. J. Buford, manual training teacher, spent the week-end in Cape Girardeau with his parents. PRIMROSE Marvin Roberts, of Bonne Terre, spent Sunday here with relatives. Rev. C. C. Haley filled his regular appointment at the T. M. B. church Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Emma Jones, of near Bonne Terre, and Mrs. Vetal Pratte, of Bonne Terre, attended church services here Sunday, and also visited at the home of Willis Moon. Robt. Lawson transacted business in Bonne Terre Saturday. Miss Nellie Moon was guest of Miss Etta Lawson Sunday. Mr. Blackwell, of Prospect, motored out to Bonne Terre last week on business. Miss Martha Meyer was guest of Miss Myrtle Cash, of near Big River, Sunday. Mrs. John Rawson was shopping in Bonne Terre Saturday. Miss Edna Rawson was a visitor at the home of Wm. A. Moon Saturday. The Misses Graham were visitors at the home of M. W. Jones Sunday. Fenton Rawson and Herman Rawson were guests of Ferman Moon Sunday. Misses Anna and Minnie Meyer, Lela and Glenda Holdman, of Bonne Terre, were guests of Miss Bertha Blackwell, at Moontown, Sunday. W. A. Jones, of Melzo, motored to Bonne Terre the fore part of the week. Leatha Rawson, of Bonne Terre, spent Sunday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rawson. Mrs. Ella Holdman, of Bonne Terre, visited at the home of Willis Moon Sunday. Elmer Rawson motored to Bonne Terre Saturday. Harvey Lawson was a visitor at the home of John Cash, of near Big River, Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Lawson, of St. Louis, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lawson, in Bonne Terre, the fore part of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Kerkoskie and children, of Bonne Terre, motored out here Sunday and attended church. They spent the evening at the home of Jacob Matthey, of near Melzo. Miss Myrtle Pettes spent Saturday night at the home of Robert Lawson. Wm. Hammock is on the sick list. Mr. Moses, of near Silver Springs, made a trip to Bonne Terre last week. Mrs. Jones was shopping in Bonne Terre last week. Mr. Murphy, of Moontown, motored to Bonne Terre last week. Mr. Wheelon, of near Valle Mines, transacted business in Bonne Terre last week. ESTHER Mrs. Pearl Fender, of St. Louis, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Cunningham. School was dismissed Armistice Day. Misses Nelly Humphrey and Jessie Hughes and Wm. Hughes spent the week-end with home folks at Irondale. The fast Esther basketball team added another victory to their list last Thursday evening. The boys' team and Coach Abernathy went to Doe Run where they played the Doe Run boys. The score was 32 to 19 in favor of the Esther boys. The girls and Coach Evans went to Desloge and played the team there, the score being 29 to 19 in favor of Esther. Several teachers and a crowd of town people went to both games. The girls will play Farmington this week and the boys will play Elvins on the Esther court Saturday, Nov. 19, at 2 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Raglin and daughter, Pearl, visited his parents in Cape county the past week-end. Misses Virginia Topping and Mattie White attended the Banquet in Flat River Friday night. They remained the rest of the week-end in Flat River visiting friends and relatives. A mass meeting was held at the school house Friday night, Nov. 11, for the purpose of discussing the building of a new high school. This proposition will be put before the voters of Esther district Nov. 22. Everyone should come and help carry this proposition over, as all know Esther is now crowded for school room, and the enrollment increases each year. Our children should be given the same advantages as any school in St. Francois county. This can be done by building a new high school. Misses Effie and Florence Sullivan spent the week-end with their parents at Belgrade, Mo. Mr. Lindsey and family visited relatives near Fredericktown the past week-end. Miss Mona Lewis spent the week-end with her parents at Sabula. A supper was given by the ladies of the Methodist church Monday night to buy books for their church. All report a nice time. Miss Cynthia Gruner visited relatives in Doe Run the past week-end. Mrs. James Edwards and children spent last Friday with relatives in Bonne Terre. News was received here that a baby daughter had arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hardy, of Desloge. Mrs. Hardy was Miss Ollie White, of this place. Miss Edythe Backled spent the week-end with her parents at Fredericktown. Rev. Henry filled his regular appointment at DeLassus Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Wall and daughter, Miss Ethel, visited relatives at Frankley Friday and Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Perryman were Flat River visitors Monday. Miss Ollie M. Porterfield spent the week-end with her parents at Bonne Terre. Miss Mayme White was a Desloge visitor Saturday and Sunday. Misses Rilla and LaVada Parks spent the week-end in St. Louis shopping. BONNE TERRE The residence of Mrs. Louise Mos-tiller, which was damaged by fire a week ago, is being repaired. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Klepsattel spent Saturday and Sunday in Desloge with the latter's parents. Shelton Horn was a business visitor in Farmington Saturday. A crowd of friends gathered at the home of Harry Piazza and spent a most pleasant evening. Edison Rinevalt, of St. Louis, spent Saturday and Sunday here with his wife and other relatives. Henry Radle, of Farmington, was a business visitor here Wednesday. Mr. Rhodia and Mr. Fisher, of Flat River, spent Monday and Tuesday here on business. C. E. Lahay, who is employed near DeSoto, spent the week-end here with home folks. Mr. and Mrs. M. Cook spent the week-end here with friends. M. Covington spent a day in Flat River this week. Raymond AuBuchon, of near French Village, spent Sunday here with relatives. A crowd of young folks gathered at the home of S. A. Holdman on Wednesday evening to a party given in honor of Homer. Games were played and refreshments served and all spent a most enjoyable evening. Mrs. Thos. AuBuchon is visiting a few days at the home of Mrs. Ed Blankenship, at Cantwell. Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Cole, of Desloge, spent Thursday here with relatives and friends. Miss Anna Overall, who teaches in the school here, spent Saturday and Sunday in Farmington with home-folks. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Benham spent Sunday afternoon in Elvins with friends. Mr. and Mrs. L. Clemate spent Sunday in Elvins with friends. Mr. Matthey, of Primrose, spent Saturday here with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Buhmester, of Flat River, spent Sunday here with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Nelms, of Elvins, spent Saturday and Sunday here with Mrs. Margaret Cocksey and the former's parents.

Columbia Dry Batteries work better and last longer. —for bells and buzzers —for thermostats —for gas engines —for dry battery lighting in closet, cellar, garage, barn, etc. —for ignition on the Ford while starting. Put and end to cold weather "balks". The world's most famous dry battery, used where groups of individual cells is needed. Farnstock Spring Clip Binding Posts at no extra charge. You want the quick start— START your Ford car quick, no matter how cold the weather, on a Columbia "Hot Shot" Ignition Battery No. 1461. One package, 6 volts. Superior to a wired-up group of ordinary cells. Works better, lasts longer. Ideal for stationary gas engines, too. For bells and buzzers, you need but one Columbia "Bell Ringer." Little package—big power. Sold by electricians, auto accessory shops and garages, hardware and general stores. The name Columbia is on the label. Columbia Dry Batteries —they last longer

Mildred and Louis Goodman spent Saturday and Sunday in Desloge with home folks. Mrs. B. F. Melcher and children have returned from a few days visit with L. J. Lyons, who formerly lived here. Katherine Hoelzel spent Saturday and Sunday in Melzo with her parents. Mabel Hudson spent Saturday and Sunday near Desloge with home folks. Miss Nellie Hoskings, of St. Louis, spent Saturday and Sunday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoskings. Mr. and Mrs. John Govro and baby spent Sunday in Elvins. Eugene Williams, of Leadwood, was a business visitor here Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Austin Hall spent Sunday in French Village with the former's parents. Mrs. Henry House spent Wednesday here with her mother, Mrs. John Murphy, at Big River. Mrs. Maud Guyton and Helen Brown have accepted positions in the Style Shop during the closing out sale. James Son, of Festus, spent Saturday and Sunday here with his father, Dr. T. A. Son, and family. Mrs. Robt. Womack, of Flat River, spent Saturday and Sunday here with home folks. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cook and son, of Desloge, spent Sunday here with relatives. Miss Sidney Boyer spent several days in Rivermines with her sister, Mrs. Peter Johnson. While playing in a foot ball game Sunday, Harry Claywell suffered severe injuries. Miss Louise Brennon has been absent from her position in the Auditor's office on account of sickness. Leo La Bruyere, of St. Louis, is spending several days here visiting his aunt, Mrs. Clara Labruyere. Miss Agnes Mouser is spending a few days in St. Louis with friends. The foot ball game played here Sunday between Bonne Terre and Farmington, resulted in a victory for the visiting team. Thos. Allen, little Helen Shadwick and Wm. Mouser motored to St. Louis Friday to spend the week-end with Mrs. Raymond Sale, Miss Gertrude Allen and Mrs. Geo. Alderman, of Collinsville, Ill. A card party was given at the home of C. C. Klughert on Saturday night. A large crowd was present. Refreshments were served and all report a good time. Henry Pratte and daughter, Miss Elbie, of Hazel Run, spent Sunday at the home of Peter Pratte and family. Garrett Wheelon spent Tuesday and Wednesday here with his daughter. Mrs. Belle Freeman returned to her home Thursday, after spending several days with her daughter, who is ill. Little Elizabeth Johnson is suffering this week with an attack of diphtheria. Mrs. Linn Chandler has returned from a visit in St. Louis with Emmett Richardson and family. Guy Tubbs, of St. Louis, spent the week-end here with friends. Miss Clementine Moser, who spent the past week here with her sister, Mrs. Harry Johnson, has returned to her position in St. Louis. The American Legion banquet, given in the basement of the Catholic church, was largely attended. Mrs. Jules Boyer and daughter, Margaret, of St. Louis, attended the funeral of little Paul Jones. Gertrude, Florence and Mary McMahon, spent Friday and Saturday in St. Louis. Mrs. Richard Doyle spent the latter part of the week in St. Louis. Philip Wheelon and Miss Mary Wheelon were called to St. Louis Monday to the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Geo. Wheelon. While at his work in the mill, Geo. AuBuchon had the misfortune of getting his foot seriously cut. Paul Jones, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jones, died at their home in Settlement Tuesday morning, after an illness of diphtheria of about a week. Besides his parents, he leaves two brothers and one sister. The funeral was conducted at the home and interment in the Catholic cemetery. Mrs. A. Goodman, of Desloge, was a business visitor here Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jackson, of French Village, spent Sunday here with their daughter, Mrs. Geo. Thurman, and family. Mr. and Mrs. John Benham and family, of Flat River, spent Sunday here with relatives. Virgil and Rubv Wilfong spent Sunday in Flat River with relatives. Dr. Harry Poston was called here from Detroit, Mich., to attend the funeral of his brother, Homer, last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Semands and son, Jack, are spending the week in St. Louis visiting relatives and friends. Dennis Govro, of Cape Girardeau, spent Sunday here with friends. Lawrence Wilkins spent Sunday and Monday in St. Louis with relatives and friends. Peter Johnson and daughters, of Rivermines, spent Friday here with Miss Sidney Boyer. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clark, of Desloge, spent Saturday and Sunday here with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. West. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Counts spent Friday here. Norman McCabe and family spent Sunday in Leadwood visiting relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Murphy, of Silver Springs, spent Tuesday here with relatives. Earl Murphy, Jasper Falk and Mr. Nay spent Sunday in Flat River with friends. Alphonso and Bernard AuBuchon, of French Village, spent Sunday here with relatives. Beatrice Boas, of Flat River, spent Saturday here. Mr. and Mrs. David, of French Village, were here Friday and Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Murphy, of Big River, spent Saturday here on business. Frank Marchand spent Monday and Tuesday in Leadwood on business. Wilford AuBuchon spent Saturday and Sunday in Flat River with friends. Mrs. Monroe Peterson and daughter, Miss Anna, of Hazel Run, spent Thursday here at the home of Mrs. Joseph Pratte, and family. Mrs. Wm. Whiteknight and daughter spent Saturday here shopping. Mrs. Dempsey and son, of Flat River, spent Sunday here with friends. Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Lawrence, of Flat River, spent Sunday morning here with friends. Miss Laura Thurman spent the week-end in Silver Springs with her parents. Misses Reva and Effie Counts, of Hazel Run, spent Friday here.

IRON MOUNTAIN LAKE Has changed hands and is now under competent management, and all are guaranteed a fair deal. Privilege for hunting and fishing can be secured on grounds from manager. Boats on hand for rent and shells can be bought there. If you desire recreation, you cannot find a better place than Iron Mountain Lake. S. T. SCHUTZ, Manager