

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE

BONNE TERRE

Mrs. Geo. McClure visited her mother, Mrs. H. J. Kennedy, Thursday and Friday, in Flat River. Mrs. Monroe Peterson and daughter, Helen, of Hazel Run, spent Thursday here with her daughter, Mrs. Jos. Pratte, and family. Mrs. Wm. Whiteknight and daughter, Dorothy, were visiting here with her daughter, Mrs. Emmett Pratte, and family. Edison Kinewalt, of St. Louis, was a visitor the week-end with his wife. Mr. and Mrs. Shelton Counts spent Sunday near French Village with the latter's home folks. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bullock spent Monday and Tuesday at Hazel Run with relatives. Henry Pratte, an aged citizen living near Hazel Run the greater portion of his life, died at his home Monday night, after an illness of several weeks. He leaves a large family to mourn his death: O. B. Pratte, E. Pratte and Mrs. Frank Falk of this city. Funeral services were conducted at the Catholic church and interment in the Catholic cemetery. He was a kind and loving husband and father and was loved by all who knew him. Mrs. Mary Lauth, of St. Louis, returned to her home Friday after a visit here with Herman Lauth and family. Miss Clara Brennan, has returned to her work in St. Louis after spending several days here with home folks. Gladys Stroupe has returned to Festus after a visit here with home folks. Mrs. Luther Poston visited in Flat River last Sunday. Geo. DeBuchanan, of Festus, was a visitor here Sunday with his mother. Mrs. Perry Degonia and daughter, Miss Edna, were visitors in St. Louis the last of the week. Mrs. Earl Madden entertained her Sunday school class on Thursday afternoon with a candy pulling, which was much enjoyed by all present. The crowd consisted of Mabel Reed, Berdine Hill, Leona Glenn, Irma Hickman, Gladys Belknap and Frances Wheeling. Refreshments were served. Willie Wilkinson, of Melzo, was a business visitor here Thursday. Horace Taylor, who has been visiting in the Lead, Bell, has returned to DeSoto, where he is employed. Fred Benham returned to his position in St. Louis Friday after spending a week with home folks. A dance was given by the members of the club at the Commercial Hotel on Friday evening. All present report a joyful evening. Mildred Goodman spent Sunday in Desloge with her parents, A. Goodman, and family. Gilbert East has returned home from Villa Mines after a visit with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sykes. Albert Jones, of Melzo, made a business trip here Saturday. The A. O. U. W. lodge gave a supper Monday night to its members, which was well attended. A grand time is reported. Wyman Buckner, of Elvins, spent Saturday and Sunday here with friends. Edmund Murphy, of Silver Springs, was a visitor here Tuesday. Miss Mabel Madden, formerly of this city but now of Detroit, Mich., and Harold Schafer, of Detroit, Mich., were united in marriage Saturday. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Madden and is well known here. The happy young couple will make their home in Detroit. They have the best wishes of the community for a long and happy wedded life. The residence of Mrs. Bessie DeBuchanan caught fire last Sunday, but the flames were extinguished before much damage was done. Mrs. Theo. Tenholder entertained a number of friends on Thursday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. Thos. Patton, of St. Louis. Among those present were: Mrs. Luther Poston, Mrs. Margaret Bouchard, Mrs. Jos. Falk, Mrs. Thos. Patton and Mrs. Chris. Dachwald. Dainty lunch was served. Andrew McCoy, of Desloge, spent Sunday here with friends. Mr. Rhodin, of Flat River, was a business visitor here Tuesday. Henry Radlo, of Farmington was a visitor here Friday. Frank Marchand was a business visitor in Leadwood Monday and Tuesday. Mabel Hudson was a visitor Sunday with home folks near Desloge. Edna Degonia, who teaches school at Conville, spent the week-end here with her parents. Homer Carter, of Silver Springs, was here Saturday. Hubert Reynolds, of DeSoto, was a visitor here Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Chris. Dachwald and son, Leo, spent Sunday in St. Louis. Miss Matilda Cunningham, of Melzo, spent Sunday here with relatives. Mr. Fischer, of Flat River, was a business visitor here Monday and Tuesday. Miss Frances Welch, of Vineland, is visiting Mrs. Mary Epperly and Mrs. Margaret Turley this week. Mrs. Thos. O'Sullivan was a visitor Monday and Tuesday in St. Louis, with her son, Roy AuBuchon, and family. Mrs. Henry Thurman, of Silver Springs, spent Wednesday here. Mrs. Fenton Millen and little daughter, of Silver Springs, was a visitor here Thursday. Val Smith and Wm. Moon, of Primrose, were business visitors here Monday. Raymond and Clifford Counts spent Friday here on business. Myrtle Ward, who teaches at Henrietta, Mo., returned Sunday after spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ward. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Dace and son, Robert, departed Saturday for Manhattan, Kans., where the former is attending a government school. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clark, of Desloge, visited the week-end here with home folks. Misses Maud and Leta Son spent Tuesday in Desloge with their sister, Mrs. Robt. Womack. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Nelma, of Elvins, visited her mother, Mrs. Margaret Cooksey, Sunday. Thos. Williams, of St. Louis, was a visitor here last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Buhrmaster, of Flat River, spent Saturday and Sunday here at the home of Mrs. Jessie Livingston. Mrs. Albert Williams entertained a number of friends Friday evening at a pinocle party. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Piazza, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Creeley and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Thomure. Refreshments were served and a most enjoyable evening spent. Mrs. J. H. Brown and son and Edwin Wilfong motored to DeSoto Saturday, accompanying Mrs. Arthur Courtney home from a visit here. Dr. Wolff of St. Louis, was a visitor with friends Saturday and Sunday. Miss Gertrude Allen, of St. Louis, visited home folks Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Finis Turley is very ill at this writing. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cook and little son, Marvin, of Desloge, were guests Sunday of his father, Thos. Cook, and Mrs. Rachael Mumaw. Mrs. Geo. Mahn, of DeSoto, spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Miller. Garrett Wheelon, of Silver Springs, was a business visitor here Tuesday. Mr. Runyon was a business visitor in St. Louis Thursday and Friday. Leona Carter spent the week-end in Melzo with home folks. Miss Anna Wheelon, of near Farmington, spent Saturday and Sunday here with Mrs. M. E. Bouchard. Lea Pointer and Will Pettus, while at work at No. 7 mine Wednesday, were severely injured by falling rock. They were rushed to the Bonne Terre hospital for treatment. Mrs. Andrew Ponder was guest in Flat River Wednesday and Thursday at the home of her sister. Mr. and Mrs. Frazier, of Flat River, spent Wednesday evening with the family of Marion Benham. Emmett Pratte and children spent Monday and Tuesday in Rivermines at the home of Robt. Pratte. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Drier were in Flat River Monday with relatives. Mrs. Marion Benham returned home after spending several days in Flat River.

BISMARCK

Mr. and Mrs. Scott McCoy, of St. Louis, spent Sunday here as guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. D. McCoy, and other relatives. Miss Ethel Lentz, of St. Louis, spent Sunday here with her sister, Mrs. J. O. Lucas, and family. Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Matkin, of DeSoto, spent Sunday here with her mother, Mrs. J. F. Hinze, who has been quite sick the past week. Miss Olga Brown, of St. Louis, spent Sunday here with the Fred Twomey and H. C. Johnson families. Mrs. Jay Brown, of Bonne Terre, spent the week-end here visiting her mother, Mrs. C. H. Lucy, and other relatives and friends. Last Friday night some one fired a bullet through the glass door in the office of Dr. F. T. Wallen. The bullet struck the wall of the waiting room and glanced away. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McCloud and family, of Graniteville, were Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hunter. Prof. and Mrs. J. U. White, of Flat River, spent Sunday afternoon at the J. C. Hunter home. Mr. White informs us that the contractors expect to begin work about Jan. 15 on the new junior college and high school building. Mrs. John Lovelace and family, of Ironton, spent Sunday afternoon here, the guests of H. L. Strader and family. Mrs. Delbert Buford spent Sunday afternoon with friends in Flat River. Miss Daisy Brooks, who is attending business college at Farmington, spent the week-end with home folks. Miss Lillian Schmidt, teacher of the Hickory Grove school, is at her home in Flat River, the school being closed on account of small pox epidemic. Cal McCoy, of Poplar Bluff, spent the week-end here with his mother, who is very ill. A. C. Scheiwing, of Piedmont, spent the week-end here with home folks. Mrs. Lucy Sloan visited her daughter, Miss Mayora, at Potosi the week-end. Chas. Kendall, of St. Louis, spent Sunday here with relatives and friends. J. F. Hutchings returned home from St. Louis Saturday, where he had been receiving medical treatment. Fred Twomey returned home from St. Louis Saturday, where he had been on business. Mr. Burns, of Flat River, was a Bismarck visitor Saturday. Misses Marie and Gertrude Poston, of Flat River, spent Saturday evening with relatives here. The annual installation of officers of the Masonic Lodge was held Saturday night, after which a social hour was enjoyed. Misses Gertrude and Mildred Sherrill, assisted by others, rendered some excellent music. At the close refreshments were served. The following officers were installed for the year: Luther Murphy, W. M.; G. A. Gibbons, S. W.; M. D. Matkin, J. W.; T. H. Coxey, Secretary; John Houck, Treasurer. Several cases of small pox are reported in the Hickory Grove neighborhood, and Dr. Thurman County Health Officer of Washington county ordered the school closed. L. B. Coghill and Rev. J. F. Forsythe, of California, were business visitors here Monday. Dr. G. B. Williams, member of the State Board of Health, was here Monday to look after the small pox situation. W. W. Wilson is very sick at this writing. He is suffering with a complication of diseases. Robt. Eaton was a Farmington business visitor Monday. Mrs. P. Talbert, of Seattle, Wash., came here Sunday for a visit of a few days with her sister, Mrs. C. H. Lucy. Rev. S. C. Biffle is now collecting the city taxes. He was appointed by the town board Saturday night to succeed Wm. Devine who resigned. Mr. Brown, of Belgrade, was here Sunday to get Mr. and Mrs. Jay Brown, of Bonne Terre, who were visiting friends here. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hood, of Bonne Terre, spent Sunday here, the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Beard. Mr. Hushy and family, of DeSoto, spent Sunday here with his sister, Mrs. O. Kelly, and family. C. C. Matthews and Clarence Houck were Bonne Terre visitors Sunday night. Miss Busch, of St. Louis, spent Sunday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Busch. Mr. Leebriek, of Columbia, Mo., spent the week-end here with friends. Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Belknap spent the week-end in St. Louis. Dr. J. L. Eaton, of St. Louis, was here Monday to see Mrs. J. F. Hinze, who is very sick. A. N. Sherrill, of St. Louis, spent Sunday with his family here. Mrs. P. C. Friend spent Sunday in DeSoto, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Wilbur Missey. Ben Green, of DeSoto, spent Sunday afternoon here with relatives and friends. Mrs. Walter Wilson and children, of Ironton, spent Sunday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Eldson. Edgar Fletcher and Wm. Trauernicht, of Ironton, were here Monday on business. J. M. Gale, of Fredericktown, spent the week-end here with his brother, Dr. Gale. Mrs. Clyde Crutchfield, of Batesville, Ark., is at present the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Ramsey. Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Vawter, of Hardy, Ark., are here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Vawter, and family. M. W. Baker, on Wednesday of last week informed the high school pupils that there would be no quarterly examination this quarter. Mr. Baker is trying the pupils this quarter to see if they will work as hard as they did when expecting examination. All having an average grade of 90 per cent will be excused from examination. We believe that a number of pupils will work harder than usual in order to avoid the examination. If the trial proves successful, it is probable the examinations will be abolished in the high school for the rest of the year. A. N. Sherrill, of St. Louis, who has been here on a visit with his family, has returned to his work. Mrs. Sherrill and the family contemplate joining him in the near future. Harry Gibson, of DeSoto, came here Sunday for a visit of a few days with his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Coxey, and other friends. Melville Roome, of Fredericktown, is visiting at the home of his brother, Everett, and family. Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Rosa, of Leadington, spent from Tuesday evening to Wednesday at the home of Jeff Simms. From here they went south for a brief visit. Anna Davis visited home folks in Elvins the first of the week. The largest number of pupils that have ever been absent from school at one time this year occurred Wednesday morning. A heavy rain fell about school time, which caused the shortage. Miss Virginia Castleman spent Wednesday night with her parents at Farmington. Raymond Gibbs will go to Flat River Monday to enter high school. Miss Isabell Wellborne, of St. Louis, spent the week-end here the guest of her niece, Mrs. J. P. London. She also visited at the home of Norman Sinclair. Miss Ethel Conway, of Arcadia, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Joe Reagan. Harve Bello, of Ironton, was in Bismarck Monday on business. Mrs. S. C. Biffle spent the week-end with relatives and friends at Farmington. Miss Kathryn Strader spent the latter part of last week with relatives at Piedmont. Mrs. Jas. Cox and daughter, Mrs. R. Cunningham, of Iron Mountain, were business visitors here Monday. Mrs. V. M. Lavery and mother-in-law, of Iron Mountain, were here Friday. H. S. Creager has returned to his home in Indianapolis, Ind., after a visit with relatives and friends here. Arthur Rasche, of St. Louis, was a guest Wednesday of the Oehler families. We extend sympathy to Rev. J. N. Maynard in the death of his son, who died at Lincoln, Neb., Dec. 29, 1921. Mrs. Jewell Blanton, of Mt. Vernon, Ill., is visiting relatives and friends here. Mrs. Wm. Tumblesome spent Wednesday in Farmington. Miss Viola Talley is home after a visit of a few months with relatives near Belgrade. Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Vineyard and Mr. and Mrs. Yates, of Leadwood, spent Thursday at the home of W. R. Vineyard. Hugh Steele spent Friday in St. Louis on business. Stanley Bisplinghoff, of St. Louis, spent several days the past week with his parents here. Paul Burnette, of Farmington, spent Monday here with his sister, Mrs. Ida Kettinger, and son, Chas. Roy Adams, of Farmington, spent Tuesday here with Ira Eaton, of St. Louis. Mr. Eaton was visiting his parents here. Miss Verna Thompson, of Hopewell, was guest of Miss Elizabeth Thompson the past week. Mrs. Bond has been quite sick with pneumonia, but is somewhat improved at this writing.

CROSS ROADS

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lenz and Miss Pauline Simpson spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tucker. Dr. Barron, of Mine La Motte, passed through here Monday enroute to Womack. Wm. Lenz and Clyde Hicks were business visitors at Womack last week. Miss Pauline Simpson, of Fredericktown, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Joe Vessels, at this writing. Mr. and Mrs. Otto Tucker visited his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. H. Tucker, last Sunday. Mrs. Jos. Vessels is reported on the sick list.

LEADWOOD

S. E. Williams was a business visitor in Jefferson City last week. J. G. Goeltz, former postmaster of Bismarck, was here Monday a short while on business. Otto Morris, of Granite City, Ill., was here part of last week visiting his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Morris. J. C. Fields transacted business in Bismarck last Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Laramore are the proud parents of a 7-pound girl, born to them on Jan. 4th. Dr. F. T. Wallen, who has been practicing dentistry here the last three days of each week for the past years, moved his fixtures back to Bismarck Saturday and will discontinue his office here. W. H. Coppage, of St. Louis, was here a few days last week. C. H. Kirkpatrick, who has been manager of the Miners Lumber Co. for several years, has resigned that position, to take effect Feb. 1st. Gordon Griffith of St. Louis, will succeed him as manager. Chris Greenia, of near Bismarck, was here Saturday moving Dr. Wallen's fixtures to Bismarck. The girls' and boys' basket ball teams have ordered new uniforms for indoor use this year. H. M. Clark, of Bismarck, was here the latter part of last week on business. W. J. Martin, formerly of this place but now residing at Bonne Terre, was here Sunday visiting old friends. Rev. O. H. Duozina, Presiding Elder of the Farmington District, was here and preached a very fine sermon at the Methodist church Sunday night to a large congregation. Harry Jennings and family, of Flat River were here visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. Adam Karsch Sunday. Miss Gladys Tollison returned home Sunday after a week's visit with relatives and friends in St. Louis. Wm. Craft, of Festus, was here Wednesday and Thursday of last week visiting friends. Several from here attended Probate Court at Farmington last week. Mrs. Harris, of St. Louis, is here this week visiting her daughter, Mrs. Frank Slade. Mrs. Carless Province was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Sloeges, at Flat River Sunday. The members of Mineral Lodge No. 95, M. of P. will put on the play of "Damon and Pythias" at the Community Hall Friday night, Jan. 13th. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Goforth lost their 15 months old child Friday night at the Bonne Terre hospital, of bronchial pneumonia. The child was sick about a week. It was several days before the doctors could determine just what ailed the child. Mr. and Mrs. Goforth have the sympathy of the people here in their bereavement. One of the hardest contested games of basket ball was played on the local court last Friday night, between the Desloge high school and the high school girls here, that was ever played in Leadwood. Both teams played clean and aggressive ball. At the end of the 1st half the score was 7 to 3 in favor of Desloge. But in the second half our girls forced ahead in the last few minutes of play, and the final score was 17 to 14 in favor of Leadwood. The boys' teams were to have played, but on account of sore arms of some of the Leadwood boys, caused by vaccination, their game was postponed to a later date. Our boys play Farmington at Farmington, this coming Friday night. The musical instruments that were ordered by the school board for the high school orchestra have arrived

ESTHER

Mrs. Geo. Cunningham is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Pearl Pender, in St. Louis. Rev. N. E. Henry filled his regular appointment at DeLassus Saturday and Sunday. Rev. Mitchell, a Holiness minister who is visiting Mr. Cane, preached in Bro. Henry's place Sunday morning. He gave a splendid talk to his audience.

FAMOUS SURGEON GETS U. S. LICENSE

Certain physicians made it hot for Dr. Lorenz, the most famous "bloodless" surgeon in the world, when he came to America from Austria to treat little children suffering from hip disease. They said he had no license to practice. Finally, New York state issued one to him, and the picture shows him with the important document in hand.

and are in perfect condition. The eighth grade basket ball teams of girls and boys will play the grade girls and boys from Bonne Terre Friday night on the local court. Mrs. R. B. Maurer and son, Glen, and Mrs. R. C. Delcour visited relatives at Elvins last Saturday. Mrs. J. F. Taylor, who has been in St. Louis the past week with her son, George, who is in a hospital, returned home here Thursday. We are glad she left her son much improved in health. Carl Cooley, of Bismarck, was a Leadwood visitor last Saturday. S. E. Williams and Wm. Cooper were business visitors at Potosi Tuesday. Mrs. R. F. Ramsey and two children returned to St. Louis last Sunday, after a two weeks visit here with relatives and friends.

PRIMROSE

Mrs. Ida Jones and son, Lloyd, spent Tuesday evening at the home of Willis Moon. Wm. A. Moon transacted business at Frankley and Leadwood the fore part of the week. M. W. Jones made a trip to Bonne Terre Tuesday. Miss Edna Rawson was a visitor at the home of Wm. A. Moon Thursday. Mr. Murphy, of near Big River, was in Bonne Terre last week. L. Williams made a business trip to Bonne Terre Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Lass Cash and little son, Albert, were visitors at the home of Mr. Everett last week. Mr. Cain was a Bonne Terre visitor Tuesday. E. Rawson motored to Bonne Terre Thursday. Miss Nellie Moon was a visitor at the home of Lass Cash Thursday. Fenton Roberts transacted business in Bonne Terre Saturday. Those entertained at the home of Lewis Lawson Sunday were: Mrs. Mary Snyder and baby of near Big River, Misses Iva and Lydia O'Sullivan of Bonne Terre and Miss Myrtle Cash of Big River, Messrs. Fernman Moon and Jake Moses of near Silver Springs. Mrs. Neal Cole, of Prospect, was shopping in Bonne Terre Saturday. Howard Blackwell, of Moontown, made a trip to Bonne Terre Saturday. Rev. C. C. Halley and Prof. Andrew Bryson, of Sprott, were guests at the home of Wm. A. Moon Sunday. Clarence Blackwell, of Moontown, motored to DeSoto Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Leathel Rawson, of Bonne Terre, spent the week-end here with their parents. Mr. and Mrs. Andy Snyder were Bonne Terre visitors Saturday. Clarence Pettes, little son of Mr. and Mrs. John Pettes, is ill at this writing. The Misses Declue and Miss Ora Roberts, of Bonne Terre, were guests of Misses Edna and Elsie Rawson Sunday. Mrs. Lottie Pettes and children, of Bonne Terre, spent Sunday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Moon. Herman Lawson, of Bonne Terre, spent Sunday here with his parents. S. Jones made a trip to Bonne Terre Saturday. Clyde Blackwell, of Prospect, and B. Settles, of Germania, motored to St. Louis Saturday. Mrs. Alice Moon and Mrs. Samuel Whittier spent Monday evening at the home of M. W. Jones. Herbert Crossman was a Bonne Terre visitor Saturday. Prof. Andrew Bryson, of Sprott, is here to conduct a singing school. Mrs. C. C. Halley was called to Flat River last week on account of the illness of a daughter. Miss Nellie Moon and Mrs. Willis Moon were visitors at the home of John Pettus Monday.

ELVINS

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dalton, of Farmington, were Elvins visitors Monday. M. Pitts, Lizzie Bessinger and Ida Honbeck motored to Bonne Terre Sunday. Mrs. Jim Fingers, who has been seriously ill, is reported some better. A basket ball game Saturday night between DeSoto and Elvins resulted in a score of 30 to 26 in favor of Elvins. Anna Davis, of Bismarck, was an Elvins visitor Sunday. Miss Beulah accidentally stabbed and seriously injured her father with a butcher knife. The wound was inflicted on the cheek. Miss Flora Jamison, daughter of Mrs. Reeves, has been very sick for the past four weeks, but is recovering. Eighth grade graduation exercises were held Tuesday evening in the auditorium of the new high school building. The class colors were gold and black. The graduates were: Mary Henson, Eugene Boyer, Raymond Elvins, Murrill McDowell, Alma Watts, Gladys Rogers, Eugene Vance and Verna Sutherland. "Shorty" Silvey, who has been visiting here the past few weeks, returned to his home in St. Louis Sunday. Mrs. Tom McCroery is reported on the sick list. Alton Craft, of Bonne Terre, was an Elvins visitor Saturday. Grover Cooksey and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Miller and Mrs. Kinney attended the funeral of Mrs. Rose Townsend of Desloge Friday. Mrs. Dora Reese, of St. Louis, has come home for a few weeks visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Larue. Mrs. Elsie Degrant died at her home here Friday. Funeral services were held at the Baptist church and the remains were taken to the Masonic cemetery for burial. Mr. Pullman, of Desloge, attended church services here Sunday. Dr. Sherrills and Herman Politte made a business trip to Bonne Terre Tuesday. Mrs. Harriet Scott returned to Fredericktown Saturday, after a three-weeks visit with her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Norris. John Miller, of Doe Run, and Gus Miller, of Elvins, went to St. Louis Wednesday to see Joe Miller, who is in a hospital there, suffering from the effects of gas received while in service in France. They returned Thursday. Ovie Polk got his right hand hurt Tuesday, while at work underground at No. 12. He got his hand caught between a car and a sprag. He is getting along as well as can be expected. Miss Virginia Sizemore left Tuesday morning for St. Louis to seek employment.

A subscription to The Times will help you thro the year has been honored with the two highest positions which our country could give him. The former president, as Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court has taken the oath to see justice done to rich and poor alike.

WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT

But are you doing justice to yourself and those who may be dependent on you? You are not unless you are protecting yourself with a bank account.

ST. FRANCIS COUNTY BANK