The union services of the Mexico churches at the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening was another of large interest and great good. Rev. Hanna preached. It was a forceful sermon, showing the difference in character between the man who tries to please the world and the man who tries to please God. The young people's meeting which followed was also one of spirit and power.

The Tri-County Poultry Association held a meeting in this city last Thursday. A constitution and by-laws was ordered drawn up for the government of the organization and it was also decided to hold the first annual show here Dec. 31 and January 1, 2 and 3, next. W. S. Russell of Ottumwa, Iowa, was appointed judge of the contest. We hope to see the show here next winter a great success.

Judge J. Stephens of Hannibal has been here a few days on business and made a splendid religious talk before the young people's meeting Sunday night at the Presbyterian church. He was lately conveyed. He is greatly against the saloons. Six months ago says he would not come to Mexico if it had no saloons. He says he has been all along the line of the great sinner, but the religion of Christ has set him free.

Dead at the Age of 130.

San Francisco, July 27.—Aupi Mam Mari, a native of India who has resided in this city as far back as the memory of the white man runs, is dead at the age of 130 years. Aupi Mam Mari had a most romantic career. According to the story of his life told several years before his mind became clouded, he was the son of an Indian prince and was kidnapped when he was a child and taken to the Hawaiian islands. There he lived for many years, a slave to a Chinese planter, and finally came to California as a fugitive. From Malay on a sailing vessel he learned that his father and brothers had wasted years in trying to trace him and had finally met their deaths in resistance to British rule in their own country.

A Receptive Candidate.

The following dispatch was sent out from this city last Saturday to the St. Louis and Kansas city papers:

Col. Green Clay has finally decided to become a receptive candidate for representative of this county to fill the vacancy on the Democratic ticket caused by the killing of his son, Rhodes Clay. In a public card, which will be published here today, the father says that, in view of the public measures his son had in contemplation, he will leave the matter in the hands of those who have petitioned him to become a candidate. This is construed to mean that Col. Clay will accept and, if elected, will take up the bill separating State and county taxes and try to get it through the next legislature.

Took a Wild West Method.

St. Joseph, July 27.—Tom Fisher, a ranger of the long-grass country in Texas, who had 21 ears of cattle on the local market yesterday, ran the Santa Fe railroad for a few hours. He had a contract by which the stock was to be delivered here by a given time. The train was delayed by various reasons, and when Topeka was reached the crew began leisurely loading way freight. Fisher demanded that they get out of town, but they said they were obeying orders.

"Show me the man that gave them orders," said Fisher. He was shown the way to the company's general offices, whither he went in haste. He asked for the man in charge, and stated his complaint. He was curtly informed that the men were running the road, whereupon he did a little oratorical stunt in gestures of which a big six-shooter figured. The order was promptly issued to hurry the stock train on to St. Joseph, and Fisher was satisfied.

A. B. Denton, of St. Louis, well known in this city, visiting here only last week, died on a Burlington passenger train last Saturday between St. Joseph and Kansas City. Rivals Fight to the Death.

Portland, Ore., July 27.—Frank Carlson and George Baldwin, each aged 19 years, quarreled over two girls, to whom both were paying attention. Carlson challenged Baldwin to fight. The fight took place with bare knuckles, in the presence of Carlson's brothers and other friends and Baldwin's father, brother and others of his followers, in an unfrequented part of the city. Both of the young men were searched for weapons before the beginning of the fight, their penknives, keys, etc., being taken from them. The fight was apparently of two rounds, lasting altogether about twenty minutes. At the end of that time Carlson received a blow on the stomach, gasped and fell to the ground. When picked up he was dead. Baldwin is in jail.
