

MOLINO.

Lee Henry lost a fine horse Friday, died of lock jaw.

The members of Midway church have called Rev. Gorten of Canton as their pastor.

Mrs. Creed of Hatton is spending a few days with Mrs. A. Mundy.

Mrs. Lizzie Ellis was called to see a sister in southwest Mo. who is ill.

Mrs. M. D. Miller received the sad news Thursday of the death of her mother.

A number of Mrs. Mitt Roberts' friends visited them last week.

Rosa Hurd and two children are visiting Mrs. Wm. Asbury.

Geo. and family Smiley were guests of Mrs. Arnold recently.

Mrs. Wood and son Duncan of Calwood visited her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Duncan last week.

Men's Suits.

Never before have we made such prices on good suits for men and boys—$9.75 buys a $15 suit—including some A1 Capp's all wool, well worth $15 to $20. 10 days sale. Come early and get choice. RICKETTS & EMMONS D. G. Co.

Mrs. Kunkel Dead.

Mrs. Julia Kunkel, wife of Mr. E. F. Kunkel, died at 9:30 last night at her home in this city after an illness of about three weeks. The death is a great shock to her scores of friends. A more extended notice next week.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at the Methodist church, conducted by Rev. C. M. Aker. The pallbearers will be: S. P. Emmons, A. B. Smith, Tom Bruce, V. Victor, W. T. Keath and J. W. Howell.

Remember our coat and suit sale. Come early and save $3.00 to $6.00, no humbug.

RICKETTS & EMMONS D. G. Co.

The ladies of the H. M. S. and the Epworth League cordially invite the public to a spelling contest at the Methodist church Tuesday night, Dec. 10, 1907. Admission 10c. Proceeds used to purchase organ motor.

Mr. James L. Acton and mother of this city spent Sunday night and Monday with T. J. Acton and family.

Miss Nona Coakley and sister, Mrs. T. J. Acton are spending a few days this week with friends and relatives in this city.

Miss Bessie Machin of Farber was in Mexico enroute to Nebraska for a visit.

Miss Ethel Owings of Mexico spent Thanksgiving in Montgomery City.

HOLLENSVILLE.

Union Thanksgiving service at Olivet was well attended and Bro. Taylor preached a good sermon.

Mr. Glenn Coakley of St. Louis is visiting relatives here.

Miss Florence Carpenter entertained a few friends Saturday eve in honor of her cousin Mr. Coakley.

Mr. and Mrs. Vigal entertained Mr. and Mrs. Householder and a few young people from this vicinity Thursday eve.

Perry Reed, well known in this vicinity, has sold his farm near Tulip and will go soon to Oklahoma to look out a location.

Rev. J. E. Gorton, of Canton, preached at Midway Sunday morning and evening. He has been employed to preach for the congregation during the ensuing year, on the first Sunday of each month.

The many friends of Mrs. Rose Johnson Hurd were glad to see her after her long residence in the west.

Moore-Jones.

Mr. Vanceil Moore and Miss Josie Jones near Wellsville stole a march on their friends and were married Tuesday Nov. 26, at 3 p. m. at the home of Rev. H. B. Rice at Laddonia. The union of a happy couple carries with it hope, pleasure and pathos and always a wish for their future good. Mr. and Mrs. Moore are a very worthy couple.

They will go to housekeeping on a farm 2 1/2 miles south of Wellsville in about 3 weeks.

A Friend.

The Bargains for the Big Sales Week at The House of Quality are worthy of your closest investigation, for they are Bargains in Christmas Goods at Christmas Times.

All of our goods are marked in plain figures and the reduced prices we make are as plain to you as to us. Our broad guarantee of "complete satisfaction" covers every bargain.

Six knives and six forks, 12 dwt. silver plate, "Worrell Brand," regular price $4.50. Bargain Week Sale Price, $3.25.

Six Solid Sterling Silver tea spoons. Three patterns.

Watch Bargains for the Big Sales Week.

A 20-year hunting, gold filled case, fitted with Elgin or Waltham jeweled movement, only $11.00.

This watch is worth $15.00 of anyone's money.

Ladies' Fancy Back Combs, only 50c.

These combs were bought for this Christmas; they are new and stylish and marked in plain figures at 75c and $1.00 each.

Regular price $4.50
Bargain Week Sale Price $3.25.
Good, durable weight.

Reflect

Every piece of regular 25c popular music for 10c. We put our 18 years of honorable merchandising selling behind every article that goes out of our store. Will show you the finest stock of jewelry in Mexico, at Mexico's finest jewelry store.

Six genuine cut glass tumblers for $1.75.

Our regular market price is $2.25 per set, and they are worth it.

Stationery Bargains

50 sheets of paper and 50 envelopes of real Regal Linen for 25c a box.

You can't buy this anywhere for less than 50c a box.

STEP IN AND LOOK AROUND.

Worrell The Jeweler.

On the Corner

Three Stores

FREE, FREE, FREE.

$5.00 worth of cooking utensils, of your own selection, with each purchase of one of our ranges or cooking stove all week of Merchants' Bargain week sale. Remember we carry the Majestic and Superior lines.

Ferris & Cauthorn.

I have a choice lot of Barred and White Plymouth Rock Roosters for sale Henry Rodhouse, Fair Ground Ave. Mexico, Mo.

Mrs. Laura Ramp of Burlington, Iowa, is visiting her brother of this city, Mr. J. W. Beatty.

T. J. Heroin changes the address for his Message from Laddonia to Clayton, New Mexico.

J. P. Dyer spent a few days last week with his sister's family in St. Louis, Mrs. Mary E. Barrick.

Newspaper Man Married.

Mr. L. A. Bird, editor of the Vandalia Mail, and Miss Rowena Slocum, formerly of this city, were married last Thursday, Thanksgiving Day. Rev. A. A. Wallace of Mexico pronounced the ceremony. The brother gets a most worthy young woman. We congratulate him; we congratulate them both. Mr. Bird is a most worthy gentleman himself, a successful newspaper man, and now with a helpmeet we predict his paper will be better than ever.

TRY YOUR LUCK.

Every tenth cash purchaser of our goods at Merchants' Bargain week sale, get a guaranteed butcher knife free. "We'll tote fair."

Ferris & Cauthorn.

Buy a pair of $3.00 gold-filled frames from Dr. A. C. White and he will give you a pair of $1.00 crystal reading lenses free during the Big Bargain Sale.

ABSOLUTELY FREE.

A set of harness free with every vehicle purchased for cash from us during the Merchant Bargain week sale. All vehicles marked in plain figures.

Ferris & Cauthorn.

The Mexico shoe factory pay roll last week was $1,296.66. The plant is now employing 175 hands.

GANT

Leda Miller is home from Marshall where she has been attending school.

Grace Smith was home from Columbia for Thanksgiving.

Gant school intends to give an entertainment Christmas Eve night.

Bro. Wright preached an able discourse Sunday and Sunday night and was employed for the coming year.

Mrs. Perry Miller and children of Marshall are visiting relatives here.

Bargain Week

—AT—

The BEST SHOE STORE between St. Louis and Kansas City. Means much for the shoe buyers of this community.

Men's $3.50 goods in all the new shapes, and all leathers at $2.95. $3.00 lines all go at $2.60.

Eight beautiful styles of ladies' shoes, all leathers and shapes, $3.00; Bargain price $2.60.

Six new patterns in Vici Kid, Gum Metal and Box Calf, $2.50; Bargain Price $1.95.

All $2.00 lines, Bargain Price $1.65.

All boys', girls' and children's shoes at prices that will please you.

Warm lined shoes for elderly ladies and gentlemen. We have a most complete line of overshoes, rubbers and feet boots.

All cut prices are strictly cash.

LET US SHOW YOU.

W. G. WILKINS, The Shoe Man.

Mrs. Chas. Sellars' mother is quite sick.

Tom Broadus is home from Texas.

Word has been received from Washington that Wallace and Rains arrived safely at their destination.

Joe Foster had a wood chopping

Nov. 29. There were 15 men with their axes and saws. They cut up a nice lot of wood and at night had music. There were 55 men, women and children there. All had an enjoyable time.