

FROM GIRLHOOD TO WOMANHOOD

Mothers Should Watch the Development of Their Daughters—interesting Experiences of Misses Borman and Mills.

Every mother possesses information which is of vital interest to her young daughter.

Too often this is never imparted or withheld until serious harm has resulted to the growing girl through her ignorance of nature's mysteries and wonderful laws and penalties.

Girls' over-sensitiveness and modesty often puzzle their mothers and baffles physicians as they so often withhold their confidences from their mothers and conceal the symptoms which ought to be told to their physicians at this critical period.

When a girl's thoughts become sluggish, with headache, dizziness or a disposition to sleep, pains in back or lower limbs, eyes dim, desire for solitude when she is a mystery to herself and friends, her mother should come to her aid, and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will at this time prepare the system for the coming change, and start the menstrual period in a young girl's life without pain or irregularity.

Hundreds of letters from young girls and from mothers expressing their gratitude for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished for them, have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., at Lynn, Mass.

Miss Mills has written the two following letters to Mrs. Pinkham, which will be read with interest:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham— (First Letter)
"I am fifteen years of age, am depressed, have dim spots, chills, headache and back-ache. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes Sick Women Well."

LABOR NOT ON THE SABBATH. POST OFFICE RECEIPTS.

Prosecuting Attorney Grear Arrests Frank Ruse For Gathering Corn on Sunday.

The Gottlieb Winner neighborhood are again in the police court for working on Sunday. Not since Winner's memorable appearance on the same charge several years ago has that neighborhood been guilty of such a misdemeanor.

Knaz Potemkin Destroyed.

Washington, Oct. 26.—The auditor for the postoffice department today completed his report of the gross receipts of the presidential officers in United States for the fiscal year ending June 30 last. The report also gives the principal expense items of the different offices.

Will Stop Sunday Funerals.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kalrych are visiting in New Bloomfield.

RODEN VS. HELM ET AL.

A Long Litigation, Ends Favorably to the Helm Children, by Which Valuable Lands Will be Restored to Them.

Word was received here Thursday that the Supreme Court of the State had rendered a decision reversing the judgment of the Circuit Court in the case of Thomas Roden vs. Thomas Helm, et al.

Many years ago Thomas Helm placed his property, consisting of two hundred and forty acres of land, 2 miles north and a residence in Mexico in the hands of A. G. Turner as trustee, for the use and benefit of himself and family, thereby intending to protect his family against any loss of the property.

In 1893 Thomas Helm deceased, executed a mortgage upon these lands to which his trustee was not a party, to Thomas Roden for fourteen hundred and fifty dollars.

In March 1899 the Circuit Court ordered a foreclosure of this mortgage and a sale of the land. The land was sold at sheriff's sale, bought in by Mr. Roden and by him transferred to W. A. Edmondston.

Edmondston then brought suit for the possession of the land and was successful in the Circuit Court and in the Supreme Court. In the meantime a writ of error was prosecuted to the Supreme Court which is the case of Roden vs. Helm and the validity of the original judgment of foreclosure entered in 1899 was attacked. At first the Supreme Court upheld this judgment, but after a rehearing and two years' consideration that court reversed its former opinion and set aside the judgment of the Circuit Court.

The sheriff's deed under which Edmondston claimed title to the lands will now fall, for the reason that the judgment upon which they were based is held to be annulled. The lands will be restored to Mr. Turner, as trustee for the Helm family, subject to the deed of trust created upon the land by Thomas Helm in his lifetime. This debt is quite insignificant, compared with the present value of land.

Geo. Robertson represented the Helm family; F. B. Jesse, Trustee Turner, with H. Cullen for Edmondston and Roden.

Water Works Company Election. Stockholders of the Mexico Water Works Company on Thursday, October 26 elected the following directors: J. F. Llewellyn, A. D. Jackson, John J. Steele, secretary, treasurer and superintendent.

Miss Floy Patton. J. W. Patton of his city has received a letter from his daughter, Miss Anna stating that Miss Floy Patton, who has been ill in a sanitarium for some time, is fast recovering and will soon be able to get out again.

Rev. S. L. Woody Dead. From St. Louis Christian Advocate.

Rev. S. L. Woody, formerly a member of the Missouri Conference and later a minister of the Presbyterian church, died at his home in St. Louis on Oct. 14. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. W. F. Murray, and the body was taken to Columbia for interment.

SOCIETY

Those having graves for the society... of the Brethren... will please... with Mrs. Fisher Houston at her home... west of the Episcopal church, on West... street.

Mrs. Lacey Barnes invited the young Married Ladies Club to hold its annual meeting with her last Tuesday evening, which they were delighted to do, and at that time was the result. Games were played, refreshments partaken of and prizes distributed, the latter going to Mrs. Joe Wilkerson and Mr. Joe Moore. The prizes were a beautiful plate and a fancy ribbon—bedecked oak hanger.

Miss Nell Cauthorn and Mrs. Joe Moore most pleasantly entertained some twenty of their friends on Wednesday afternoon, for Mrs. McCabe Howe, of Kansas City. The party was held at the home of Mrs. Moore and was altogether what a party should be. After the games and refreshments the prizes, a most dainty and uniquely made apron was brought forth and handed to Mrs. William Berry, who certainly carries her maid out with her when she goes to Mrs. Morris' parties, this being the second prize she has won there during the past few months.

A party of twenty-five ladies, gentlemen and children chose the one bright day of the week, Monday, to go on a nutting expedition. Their goal was Mr. Lamerine Lackland's pasture, which having reached, they found all requirements satisfied, plenty of green grass to spread their lunch upon, nuts in plenty, and, last but not least, the Lackland family in full force awaiting them. The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Luckie and Miss Kots, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lakenan, Mrs. Judge Edwards, Mrs. Miriam Ross and Miss Julia; Misses Sallie Lakenan, Panny Potts, Lulu Vaugha, Mable Eaton, Mary Buckner and Lella Wims; Mr. Morrison Lackland and Masters Gladys Ricketts, Theodore and Edwin Wims.

The party was a most successful one, the weather being just what was needed, the sunshine and all, was arranged for their special benefit and enjoyed themselves like young lords.

Mrs. E. R. Arnold, Sr. treated some of her old-fashioned candy pulling on Friday evening, and needless to say everybody enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. While the sugar was being prepared Mrs. Arnold set the guests to work to form as many words as possible of the words, "Candy pulling," offering a box of first-class fudge as a mental stimulant. Miss Jewett evinced one hundred and sixty-five accepted English words from one guess and received the fudge. The guests were then invited to the kitchen, and began to pull. One young gentleman was rather shy at first, so afraid it would be "messy," but was finally induced to do his share, became quite expert before the evening was over; did several plates and then signed for more words to cooperate.

Mrs. Luke Morris swiped her lines on the kitchen floor numerous times, but was not discouraged. "Said Mr. Morris would 'know any better when he was eating it." At eleven o'clock the ladies washed their way home, with their arms full of candy. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Arnold's hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Morris; Mrs. Sanford, Mrs. C. O. Hall, Mrs. Joe Wilkerson, Mrs. Robert Arnold and Mrs. Spencer; Misses Lemon, McHenry, Jewett and Esther Houston; Messrs. Frank Spence and Hawthorne.

Mrs. E. R. Wilson has been royally entertaining her friends this week, devoting two afternoons to it. On Tuesday, as her parlors became full of guests, she set them to spelling, anything and everything, French, German, Spanish and English, just anything so it did not contain the letter "I." And they had to be in a hurry about it, too, no more than five seconds being allowed each speller as her turn came round. One lady said she had several good words ready, but as the fateful moment arrived they incontinently deserted her, and casting her eyes upward to seek inspiration from above, they fell upon the curtain which word she quickly spelled, not realizing until too late that it contained the forbidden letter. Mr. Will Harper left the remainder far behind, continued to spell and spell, disdaining to come within speaking distance of an "I."

She was awarded a beautiful American Beauty rose for her expertness. Mrs. Wilson entertained on Thursday, considering it well to take her friends in broken doses. A number of lively games were played which the ladies thoroughly enjoyed, as the many shrieks of laughter testified. A most delicious lunch was served and the prize, a very pretty piece of Dickens ware, was awarded to Miss Ester Houston, who was found to have been exceedingly lucky at every game played.

A most elegant and elaborate reception was held at the home of Mrs. E. P. Emmons on Friday afternoon, given by Mesdames Emmons and W. W. Botta. Misses Marie Rose and Crete Caldwell met the guests at the door, thence Mrs. H. F. Warden ushered them into the presence of the receiving party, which consisted of Mrs. W. J. Botta and Mrs. Mary Emmons, in addition to the ladies above mentioned. The room was rendered beautiful by a profusion of white chrysanthemums. Under the guidance of Mesdames J. A. Guthrie, P. H. Cullen and S. J. Buckner the guests next sought the library where four charming girls, Misses Mary Emmons, Frances Guthrie, Vera Houghland and Ines Willard, served delicious white colored punch. Chrysanthemums of the same lovely white color were here backed on marble and tables. Mesdames Guthrie, Robert Luckie, J. X. Brown and Charles Gladys were consulted the ladies to the beautiful flower bedecked dining room. The dining table looked altogether lovely with its festoons of white tulle and anisias stretching from chandelier to the four corners, its embroidered cover on which rested large vase filled with pink carnations and its pink shaded candles. Quite an elaborate salad course was dispensed by the following daintily dressed girls: Misses Edith Eberhardt, Mable Llewellyn, Mattie Attacked 7,000 Workmen. More Than 100 Persons Injured in St. Petersburg—A Bridge Destroyed.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—A dispatch to a news agency from St. Petersburg says that two squadrons of Cossacks today attacked 7,000 workmen who were holding a meeting at the Nevsky works. About a hundred workmen were wounded and seven Cossacks were injured by stones. The railroad bridge across the Obvodny canal at St. Petersburg has been destroyed.

Scenes in Speer's Vineyards. AT BASSIC, N. J. Gathering the Orange Grape for Port & Burgundy Wine.

The finest wine in the world from his 54 Acres of Vineyards, where the soil is rich in iron, imparting to the wine—causes the dark, deep rich color, and a blood-making property of this life-giving wine. The iron in it. This is the wine that beats the world in its valuable medicinal qualities, for family use and evening parties; it is especially beneficial for females, invalids and aged persons.

The Port Wine is nine years old and the Burgundy, a rich dry wine eight years old. The Claret equals the finest French product. Druggists and Grocers Sell it.

Speer's Port & Burgundy Wine. The finest wine in the world from his 54 Acres of Vineyards, where the soil is rich in iron, imparting to the wine—causes the dark, deep rich color, and a blood-making property of this life-giving wine. The iron in it. This is the wine that beats the world in its valuable medicinal qualities, for family use and evening parties; it is especially beneficial for females, invalids and aged persons.

SOCIETY

Those having graves for the society... of the Brethren... will please... with Mrs. Fisher Houston at her home... west of the Episcopal church, on West... street.

Mrs. Lacey Barnes invited the young Married Ladies Club to hold its annual meeting with her last Tuesday evening, which they were delighted to do, and at that time was the result. Games were played, refreshments partaken of and prizes distributed, the latter going to Mrs. Joe Wilkerson and Mr. Joe Moore. The prizes were a beautiful plate and a fancy ribbon—bedecked oak hanger.

Miss Nell Cauthorn and Mrs. Joe Moore most pleasantly entertained some twenty of their friends on Wednesday afternoon, for Mrs. McCabe Howe, of Kansas City. The party was held at the home of Mrs. Moore and was altogether what a party should be. After the games and refreshments the prizes, a most dainty and uniquely made apron was brought forth and handed to Mrs. William Berry, who certainly carries her maid out with her when she goes to Mrs. Morris' parties, this being the second prize she has won there during the past few months.

A party of twenty-five ladies, gentlemen and children chose the one bright day of the week, Monday, to go on a nutting expedition. Their goal was Mr. Lamerine Lackland's pasture, which having reached, they found all requirements satisfied, plenty of green grass to spread their lunch upon, nuts in plenty, and, last but not least, the Lackland family in full force awaiting them. The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Luckie and Miss Kots, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lakenan, Mrs. Judge Edwards, Mrs. Miriam Ross and Miss Julia; Misses Sallie Lakenan, Panny Potts, Lulu Vaugha, Mable Eaton, Mary Buckner and Lella Wims; Mr. Morrison Lackland and Masters Gladys Ricketts, Theodore and Edwin Wims.

The party was a most successful one, the weather being just what was needed, the sunshine and all, was arranged for their special benefit and enjoyed themselves like young lords.

Mrs. E. R. Arnold, Sr. treated some of her old-fashioned candy pulling on Friday evening, and needless to say everybody enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. While the sugar was being prepared Mrs. Arnold set the guests to work to form as many words as possible of the words, "Candy pulling," offering a box of first-class fudge as a mental stimulant. Miss Jewett evinced one hundred and sixty-five accepted English words from one guess and received the fudge. The guests were then invited to the kitchen, and began to pull. One young gentleman was rather shy at first, so afraid it would be "messy," but was finally induced to do his share, became quite expert before the evening was over; did several plates and then signed for more words to cooperate.

Mrs. Luke Morris swiped her lines on the kitchen floor numerous times, but was not discouraged. "Said Mr. Morris would 'know any better when he was eating it." At eleven o'clock the ladies washed their way home, with their arms full of candy. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Arnold's hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Morris; Mrs. Sanford, Mrs. C. O. Hall, Mrs. Joe Wilkerson, Mrs. Robert Arnold and Mrs. Spencer; Misses Lemon, McHenry, Jewett and Esther Houston; Messrs. Frank Spence and Hawthorne.

Mrs. E. R. Wilson has been royally entertaining her friends this week, devoting two afternoons to it. On Tuesday, as her parlors became full of guests, she set them to spelling, anything and everything, French, German, Spanish and English, just anything so it did not contain the letter "I." And they had to be in a hurry about it, too, no more than five seconds being allowed each speller as her turn came round. One lady said she had several good words ready, but as the fateful moment arrived they incontinently deserted her, and casting her eyes upward to seek inspiration from above, they fell upon the curtain which word she quickly spelled, not realizing until too late that it contained the forbidden letter. Mr. Will Harper left the remainder far behind, continued to spell and spell, disdaining to come within speaking distance of an "I."

She was awarded a beautiful American Beauty rose for her expertness. Mrs. Wilson entertained on Thursday, considering it well to take her friends in broken doses. A number of lively games were played which the ladies thoroughly enjoyed, as the many shrieks of laughter testified. A most delicious lunch was served and the prize, a very pretty piece of Dickens ware, was awarded to Miss Ester Houston, who was found to have been exceedingly lucky at every game played.

A most elegant and elaborate reception was held at the home of Mrs. E. P. Emmons on Friday afternoon, given by Mesdames Emmons and W. W. Botta. Misses Marie Rose and Crete Caldwell met the guests at the door, thence Mrs. H. F. Warden ushered them into the presence of the receiving party, which consisted of Mrs. W. J. Botta and Mrs. Mary Emmons, in addition to the ladies above mentioned. The room was rendered beautiful by a profusion of white chrysanthemums. Under the guidance of Mesdames J. A. Guthrie, P. H. Cullen and S. J. Buckner the guests next sought the library where four charming girls, Misses Mary Emmons, Frances Guthrie, Vera Houghland and Ines Willard, served delicious white colored punch. Chrysanthemums of the same lovely white color were here backed on marble and tables. Mesdames Guthrie, Robert Luckie, J. X. Brown and Charles Gladys were consulted the ladies to the beautiful flower bedecked dining room. The dining table looked altogether lovely with its festoons of white tulle and anisias stretching from chandelier to the four corners, its embroidered cover on which rested large vase filled with pink carnations and its pink shaded candles. Quite an elaborate salad course was dispensed by the following daintily dressed girls: Misses Edith Eberhardt, Mable Llewellyn, Mattie

SOCIETY

Those having graves for the society... of the Brethren... will please... with Mrs. Fisher Houston at her home... west of the Episcopal church, on West... street.

Mrs. Lacey Barnes invited the young Married Ladies Club to hold its annual meeting with her last Tuesday evening, which they were delighted to do, and at that time was the result. Games were played, refreshments partaken of and prizes distributed, the latter going to Mrs. Joe Wilkerson and Mr. Joe Moore. The prizes were a beautiful plate and a fancy ribbon—bedecked oak hanger.

Miss Nell Cauthorn and Mrs. Joe Moore most pleasantly entertained some twenty of their friends on Wednesday afternoon, for Mrs. McCabe Howe, of Kansas City. The party was held at the home of Mrs. Moore and was altogether what a party should be. After the games and refreshments the prizes, a most dainty and uniquely made apron was brought forth and handed to Mrs. William Berry, who certainly carries her maid out with her when she goes to Mrs. Morris' parties, this being the second prize she has won there during the past few months.

A party of twenty-five ladies, gentlemen and children chose the one bright day of the week, Monday, to go on a nutting expedition. Their goal was Mr. Lamerine Lackland's pasture, which having reached, they found all requirements satisfied, plenty of green grass to spread their lunch upon, nuts in plenty, and, last but not least, the Lackland family in full force awaiting them. The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Luckie and Miss Kots, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lakenan, Mrs. Judge Edwards, Mrs. Miriam Ross and Miss Julia; Misses Sallie Lakenan, Panny Potts, Lulu Vaugha, Mable Eaton, Mary Buckner and Lella Wims; Mr. Morrison Lackland and Masters Gladys Ricketts, Theodore and Edwin Wims.

The party was a most successful one, the weather being just what was needed, the sunshine and all, was arranged for their special benefit and enjoyed themselves like young lords.

Mrs. E. R. Arnold, Sr. treated some of her old-fashioned candy pulling on Friday evening, and needless to say everybody enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. While the sugar was being prepared Mrs. Arnold set the guests to work to form as many words as possible of the words, "Candy pulling," offering a box of first-class fudge as a mental stimulant. Miss Jewett evinced one hundred and sixty-five accepted English words from one guess and received the fudge. The guests were then invited to the kitchen, and began to pull. One young gentleman was rather shy at first, so afraid it would be "messy," but was finally induced to do his share, became quite expert before the evening was over; did several plates and then signed for more words to cooperate.

Mrs. Luke Morris swiped her lines on the kitchen floor numerous times, but was not discouraged. "Said Mr. Morris would 'know any better when he was eating it." At eleven o'clock the ladies washed their way home, with their arms full of candy. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Arnold's hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Morris; Mrs. Sanford, Mrs. C. O. Hall, Mrs. Joe Wilkerson, Mrs. Robert Arnold and Mrs. Spencer; Misses Lemon, McHenry, Jewett and Esther Houston; Messrs. Frank Spence and Hawthorne.

Mrs. E. R. Wilson has been royally entertaining her friends this week, devoting two afternoons to it. On Tuesday, as her parlors became full of guests, she set them to spelling, anything and everything, French, German, Spanish and English, just anything so it did not contain the letter "I." And they had to be in a hurry about it, too, no more than five seconds being allowed each speller as her turn came round. One lady said she had several good words ready, but as the fateful moment arrived they incontinently deserted her, and casting her eyes upward to seek inspiration from above, they fell upon the curtain which word she quickly spelled, not realizing until too late that it contained the forbidden letter. Mr. Will Harper left the remainder far behind, continued to spell and spell, disdaining to come within speaking distance of an "I."

She was awarded a beautiful American Beauty rose for her expertness. Mrs. Wilson entertained on Thursday, considering it well to take her friends in broken doses. A number of lively games were played which the ladies thoroughly enjoyed, as the many shrieks of laughter testified. A most delicious lunch was served and the prize, a very pretty piece of Dickens ware, was awarded to Miss Ester Houston, who was found to have been exceedingly lucky at every game played.

A most elegant and elaborate reception was held at the home of Mrs. E. P. Emmons on Friday afternoon, given by Mesdames Emmons and W. W. Botta. Misses Marie Rose and Crete Caldwell met the guests at the door, thence Mrs. H. F. Warden ushered them into the presence of the receiving party, which consisted of Mrs. W. J. Botta and Mrs. Mary Emmons, in addition to the ladies above mentioned. The room was rendered beautiful by a profusion of white chrysanthemums. Under the guidance of Mesdames J. A. Guthrie, P. H. Cullen and S. J. Buckner the guests next sought the library where four charming girls, Misses Mary Emmons, Frances Guthrie, Vera Houghland and Ines Willard, served delicious white colored punch. Chrysanthemums of the same lovely white color were here backed on marble and tables. Mesdames Guthrie, Robert Luckie, J. X. Brown and Charles Gladys were consulted the ladies to the beautiful flower bedecked dining room. The dining table looked altogether lovely with its festoons of white tulle and anisias stretching from chandelier to the four corners, its embroidered cover on which rested large vase filled with pink carnations and its pink shaded candles. Quite an elaborate salad course was dispensed by the following daintily dressed girls: Misses Edith Eberhardt, Mable Llewellyn, Mattie

SOCIETY

Those having graves for the society... of the Brethren... will please... with Mrs. Fisher Houston at her home... west of the Episcopal church, on West... street.

Mrs. Lacey Barnes invited the young Married Ladies Club to hold its annual meeting with her last Tuesday evening, which they were delighted to do, and at that time was the result. Games were played, refreshments partaken of and prizes distributed, the latter going to Mrs. Joe Wilkerson and Mr. Joe Moore. The prizes were a beautiful plate and a fancy ribbon—bedecked oak hanger.

Miss Nell Cauthorn and Mrs. Joe Moore most pleasantly entertained some twenty of their friends on Wednesday afternoon, for Mrs. McCabe Howe, of Kansas City. The party was held at the home of Mrs. Moore and was altogether what a party should be. After the games and refreshments the prizes, a most dainty and uniquely made apron was brought forth and handed to Mrs. William Berry, who certainly carries her maid out with her when she goes to Mrs. Morris' parties, this being the second prize she has won there during the past few months.

A party of twenty-five ladies, gentlemen and children chose the one bright day of the week, Monday, to go on a nutting expedition. Their goal was Mr. Lamerine Lackland's pasture, which having reached, they found all requirements satisfied, plenty of green grass to spread their lunch upon, nuts in plenty, and, last but not least, the Lackland family in full force awaiting them. The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Luckie and Miss Kots, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lakenan, Mrs. Judge Edwards, Mrs. Miriam Ross and Miss Julia; Misses Sallie Lakenan, Panny Potts, Lulu Vaugha, Mable Eaton, Mary Buckner and Lella Wims; Mr. Morrison Lackland and Masters Gladys Ricketts, Theodore and Edwin Wims.

The party was a most successful one, the weather being just what was needed, the sunshine and all, was arranged for their special benefit and enjoyed themselves like young lords.

Mrs. E. R. Arnold, Sr. treated some of her old-fashioned candy pulling on Friday evening, and needless to say everybody enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. While the sugar was being prepared Mrs. Arnold set the guests to work to form as many words as possible of the words, "Candy pulling," offering a box of first-class fudge as a mental stimulant. Miss Jewett evinced one hundred and sixty-five accepted English words from one guess and received the fudge. The guests were then invited to the kitchen, and began to pull. One young gentleman was rather shy at first, so afraid it would be "messy," but was finally induced to do his share, became quite expert before the evening was over; did several plates and then signed for more words to cooperate.

Mrs. Luke Morris swiped her lines on the kitchen floor numerous times, but was not discouraged. "Said Mr. Morris would 'know any better when he was eating it." At eleven o'clock the ladies washed their way home, with their arms full of candy. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Arnold's hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Morris; Mrs. Sanford, Mrs. C. O. Hall, Mrs. Joe Wilkerson, Mrs. Robert Arnold and Mrs. Spencer; Misses Lemon, McHenry, Jewett and Esther Houston; Messrs. Frank Spence and Hawthorne.

Mrs. E. R. Wilson has been royally entertaining her friends this week, devoting two afternoons to it. On Tuesday, as her parlors became full of guests, she set them to spelling, anything and everything, French, German, Spanish and English, just anything so it did not contain the letter "I." And they had to be in a hurry about it, too, no more than five seconds being allowed each speller as her turn came round. One lady said she had several good words ready, but as the fateful moment arrived they incontinently deserted her, and casting her eyes upward to seek inspiration from above, they fell upon the curtain which word she quickly spelled, not realizing until too late that it contained the forbidden letter. Mr. Will Harper left the remainder far behind, continued to spell and spell, disdaining to come within speaking distance of an "I."

She was awarded a beautiful American Beauty rose for her expertness. Mrs. Wilson entertained on Thursday, considering it well to take her friends in broken doses. A number of lively games were played which the ladies thoroughly enjoyed, as the many shrieks of laughter testified. A most delicious lunch was served and the prize, a very pretty piece of Dickens ware, was awarded to Miss Ester Houston, who was found to have been exceedingly lucky at every game played.

A most elegant and elaborate reception was held at the home of Mrs. E. P. Emmons on Friday afternoon, given by Mesdames Emmons and W. W. Botta. Misses Marie Rose and Crete Caldwell met the guests at the door, thence Mrs. H. F. Warden ushered them into the presence of the receiving party, which consisted of Mrs. W. J. Botta and Mrs. Mary Emmons, in addition to the ladies above mentioned. The room was rendered beautiful by a profusion of white chrysanthemums. Under the guidance of Mesdames J. A. Guthrie, P. H. Cullen and S. J. Buckner the guests next sought the library where four charming girls, Misses Mary Emmons, Frances Guthrie, Vera Houghland and Ines Willard, served delicious white colored punch. Chrysanthemums of the same lovely white color were here backed on marble and tables. Mesdames Guthrie, Robert Luckie, J. X. Brown and Charles Gladys were consulted the ladies to the beautiful flower bedecked dining room. The dining table looked altogether lovely with its festoons of white tulle and anisias stretching from chandelier to the four corners, its embroidered cover on which rested large vase filled with pink carnations and its pink shaded candles. Quite an elaborate salad course was dispensed by the following daintily dressed girls: Misses Edith Eberhardt, Mable Llewellyn, Mattie

SOCIETY

Those having graves for the society... of the Brethren... will please... with Mrs. Fisher Houston at her home... west of the Episcopal church, on West... street.

Mrs. Lacey Barnes invited the young Married Ladies Club to hold its annual meeting with her last Tuesday evening, which they were delighted to do, and at that time was the result. Games were played, refreshments partaken of and prizes distributed, the latter going to Mrs. Joe Wilkerson and Mr. Joe Moore. The prizes were a beautiful plate and a fancy ribbon—bedecked oak hanger.

Miss Nell Cauthorn and Mrs. Joe Moore most pleasantly entertained some twenty of their friends on Wednesday afternoon, for Mrs. McCabe Howe, of Kansas City. The party was held at the home of Mrs. Moore and was altogether what a party should be. After the games and refreshments the prizes, a most dainty and uniquely made apron was brought forth and handed to Mrs. William Berry, who certainly carries her maid out with her when she goes to Mrs. Morris' parties, this being the second prize she has won there during the past few months.

A party of twenty-five ladies, gentlemen and children chose the one bright day of the week, Monday, to go on a nutting expedition. Their goal was Mr. Lamerine Lackland's pasture, which having reached, they found all requirements satisfied, plenty of green grass to spread their lunch upon, nuts in plenty, and, last but not least, the Lackland family in full force awaiting them. The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Luckie and Miss Kots, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lakenan, Mrs. Judge Edwards, Mrs. Miriam Ross and Miss Julia; Misses Sallie Lakenan, Panny Potts, Lulu Vaugha, Mable Eaton, Mary Buckner and Lella Wims; Mr. Morrison Lackland and Masters Gladys Ricketts, Theodore and Edwin Wims.

The party was a most successful one, the weather being just what was needed, the sunshine and all, was arranged for their special benefit and enjoyed themselves like young lords.

Mrs. E. R. Arnold, Sr. treated some of her old-fashioned candy pulling on Friday evening, and needless to say everybody enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. While the sugar was being prepared Mrs. Arnold set the guests to work to form as many words as possible of the words, "Candy pulling," offering a box of first-class fudge as a mental stimulant. Miss Jewett evinced one hundred and sixty-five accepted English words from one guess and received the fudge. The guests were then invited to the kitchen, and began to pull. One young gentleman was rather shy at first, so afraid it would be "messy," but was finally induced to do his share, became quite expert before the evening was over; did several plates and then signed for more words to cooperate.

Mrs. Luke Morris swiped her lines on the kitchen floor numerous times, but was not discouraged. "Said Mr. Morris would 'know any better when he was eating it." At eleven o'clock the ladies washed their way home, with their arms full of candy. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Arnold's hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Morris; Mrs. Sanford, Mrs. C. O. Hall, Mrs. Joe Wilkerson, Mrs. Robert Arnold and Mrs. Spencer; Misses Lemon, McHenry, Jewett and Esther Houston; Messrs. Frank Spence and Hawthorne.

Mrs. E. R. Wilson has been royally entertaining her friends this week, devoting two afternoons to it. On Tuesday, as her parlors became full of guests, she set them to spelling, anything and everything, French, German, Spanish and English, just anything so it did not contain the letter "I." And they had to be in a hurry about it, too, no more than five seconds being allowed each speller as her turn came round. One lady said she had several good words ready, but as the fateful moment arrived they incontinently deserted her, and casting her eyes upward to seek inspiration from above, they fell upon the curtain which word she quickly spelled, not realizing until too late that it contained the forbidden letter. Mr. Will Harper left the remainder far behind, continued to spell and spell, disdaining to come within speaking distance of an "I."

She was awarded a beautiful American Beauty rose for her expertness. Mrs. Wilson entertained on Thursday, considering it well to take her friends in broken doses. A number of lively games were played which the ladies thoroughly enjoyed, as the many shrieks of laughter testified. A most delicious lunch was served and the prize, a very pretty piece of Dickens ware, was awarded to Miss Ester Houston, who was found to have been exceedingly lucky at every game played.

A most elegant and elaborate reception was held at the home of Mrs. E. P. Emmons on Friday afternoon, given by Mesdames Emmons and W. W. Botta. Misses Marie Rose and Crete Caldwell met the guests at the door, thence Mrs. H. F. Warden ushered them into the presence of the receiving party, which consisted of Mrs. W. J. Botta and Mrs. Mary Emmons, in addition to the ladies above mentioned. The room was rendered beautiful by a profusion of white chrysanthemums. Under the guidance of Mesdames J. A. Guthrie, P. H. Cullen and S. J. Buckner the guests next sought the library where four charming girls, Misses Mary Emmons, Frances Guthrie, Vera Houghland and Ines Willard, served delicious white colored punch. Chrysanthemums of the same lovely white color were here backed on marble and tables. Mesdames Guthrie, Robert Luckie, J. X. Brown and Charles Gladys were consulted the ladies to the beautiful flower bedecked dining room. The dining table looked altogether lovely with its festoons of white tulle and anisias stretching from chandelier to the four corners, its embroidered cover on which rested large vase filled with pink carnations and its pink shaded candles. Quite an elaborate salad course was dispensed by the following daintily dressed girls: Misses Edith Eberhardt, Mable Llewellyn, Mattie

DR. TOMLIN &

The old reliable Specialist, who at Hotel Kings, Mexico, Missouri, Insurance, Nov. 11th, one day and will return every four weeks.

DR. TOMLIN, THE OLD RELIABLE SPECIALIST.

EMMONS' SALE OF SCOTCH SHORTHORNS

At Mexico, Mo., Nov. 15, 1905.

MIDDLETON & MORRIS' BARN, WEDNESDAY, 12:3