5 ARE GRADUATED

Five pupils were graduated from the Garfield High School in Mexico this year. The commencement exercises, together with a gold medal oratorical contest, were held in the A. M. E. Church Thursday night. Those given diplomas were Hazel A. Settles, William Garnett, Rebecca K. Gibbs, Edward L. Fry and Ethan P. Wrightsall. The address to the graduates was made by Clement Richardson, president of Lincoln Institute.

J. J. Hicks, principal of the school, and his corps of five teachers are to be complimented upon the work they have accomplished in the school during the year just ending. The students under them have made a good showing and especially commendable is the display in manual training which was exhibited at the school closing time.

Mrs. W. R. Buckner Entertains. Mrs. W. R. Buckner was hostess to her Club Tuesday afternoon. The events were threatening, but despite that fact quite a few went out to the cozy Buckner home and spent a delightful afternoon. Some brought their fancy work, but the majority seemed to prefer to make it a real holiday. The salad course served was delicious. Those present were: Mrs. Walter Harrison, Mrs. J. W. Tyler, Mrs. Elmer Meyer, Mrs. S. B. Holes, Mrs. H. O. Rood, Mrs. McClure, Mrs. L. L. Edwards, Mrs. Z. W. Hook, Miss Florence LaFon and Miss Ila Boles. The guests from Mexico were Mrs. R. R. Corn Pain Stopped Quick

"Get-It" Loosens Them So They Lift Off in A Jiffy.

The corn pains cease as soon as a few drops of "Get-It" reach the corn. It goes out of the hurting business forever.

For a day or so the corn remains, getting looser and looser and without a trace from it. Then, it gets so loose that you just lift it right off, without even feeling it, and cast it away. That's how easily and simply "Get-It" disposes of the corn nuisance.

"Get-It," the unfailing, guaranteed, money-back corn remover, costs but a trifle at any drug store. Mfd by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago. LEWELLYN & SONS, Druggists OTIS PURDY.
