REPUBLICAN MISSOURI.

The selection of St. Louis as the location for the next Republican National Convention was a splendid tribute to the growth of Republicanism in Missouri. A few years ago the newspapers were filled with allusions to "Poor old Missouri;" "Bourbon Missouri;" "Mossback Missouri;" but to-day we hear those taunts no more. This great commonwealth has emancipated herself from the prejudices of the past and is now gravitating toward Republicanism with all the weight of her intelligence, progressiveness and ambition. The Missouri that was once a Gibraltar of Democracy has passed into history with her picturesque guerrillas, Kentucky statesmen and cross-roads colonels. They were a romantic band but the age of romance in politics has faded away. The Missouri Democracy began to disintegrate in 1884, when Cleveland was first elected, and by 1894 it had become a thing of factions, hatreds and abounding bitterness. Inability to agree on the currency question was only a portion of the trouble in the camp. The whole trend of Mr. Cleveland's second administration had become highly distasteful to thousands of Democratic voters. They had lost faith in the President and in the Congress that came together in 1893. The halcyon days promised by the Democratic orators and journalists during the campaign of 1892 failed to get around on time. Instead of prosperity there was a panic. Instead of peace and harmony in the Democratic ranks, suspicion and distrust prevailed. The pride of the party was humbled in the dust and the Democracy of Missouri began to feel the ground slipping from under their feet. All the bright forecasts which had been indulged in after Mr. Cleveland's election had come to naught. The parable of the prodigal was returned to his father's home, and heart, did not work out in the Democratic fashion for the Democratic "Yes" house but the fatted calf was very lean and scraggy and pocketed a little of it. In the Democratic "Yes" house, life was to be they do in building when great Grover bucket shopped again. But, the "I'm sorry man wishes received an-bobby," "thration and that was all. "Oh, yes," fled from the land, and science had darkened many a door turned benty and comfort had reign-hurts." Benjamin Harrison sat in the Roman chair. The songs of the been some fancy had heard afar and no lips to give them utterance when the stern reality of Democratic rule fell upon the nation like a blight. No lullaby soothed the hosts of unemployed and starving laborers as they took up their Coxy-guided march to Washington. In 1892, the Democratic party promised the people of this country the best of times, if that party should be intrusted with office and power, but they have given us the worst of times and have gone into partnership with poverty and disaster.

The Democrats of Missouri have seen and felt these things and to-day they are without any hearty confidence in their leaders or in the policies advocated by those leaders. A diet of broken promises and unredeemed pledges has left them in a state of doubt and hesitancy. It is no longer a question with them between gold and silver, and simply that they are beginning to have a consciousness of general failure in the national affairs, the Democracy has been tried and found wanting. Even the South, "the South," has broken loose from its moorings, and West Virginia, Maryland and Kentucky have hoisted the stary banner of Republicanism. The year Missouri will complete the so well begun in 1891. In the coming year, as the city of St. Louis, in the State of Missouri, President of the United States will be nominated and when he is deposited and counted upon whether it will be found that the Republican States, not the Democratic States, will stand a regent of the head and redeemed the nation.

J. A. Tolerton for fancy goods. He has the best and largest stock of canned goods to be found in the county and many other things that are appropriate for the holiday season. Give him a call and see for yourself. His prices are very low and everything on hand is up to date.

MORE BONDS.

In the absence of legislation to relieve the financial situation, another bond issue is altogether probable within the next few weeks, or months at farthest. The present condition of the exchange market, and the commercial situation generally, point to further large withdrawals of gold, and unless something is done to prevent the usual heavy exports during January and February, which for the last two years, have forced the issue of bonds to recoup the depleted gold reserve, a similar situation will confront the Treasury before the new year is far advanced.

The available cash balance in the Treasury on December 9th, including the reserve, was approximately $175,500,000, and as the Government has realized from its three bond issues about $182,000,000, it appears that but for these issues the Government would now be without a dollar in the Treasury, and, in addition, would have outstanding obligations amounting to about $6,500,000. In the meantime, the excess of expenditures over receipts amounts to about $130,000,000. The exports of gold during the last four months have been as follows:

August, $16,667,000; September, $17,424,000; October, $2,165,000; November, $16,000,000; December, to the 9th, $3,540,000; making a total of $55,796,000. So far this calendar year the exports of gold amount to about $95,000,000. In 1894 the exports amounted to $101,819,924. From the best information obtainable it is believed that the present month will show a surplus of $1,000,000, which will leave the deficit for the fiscal year to January 1, about $15,000,000.

There are five men whose names will go before the next National Convention of the Republican party. These men are: Reed, of Maine; Morton, of New York; McKinley, of Ohio; Allison, of Iowa; and Harrison, of Indiana. One of them, in all human probability, will be the next Chief Magistrate of the United States. Any one of them would make a President worthy of this great Republic. Any one of them if nominated could be elected by an overwhelming majority. The five great Democrats are Cleveland, Grover Cleveland, President Cleveland, Mr. Cleveland and G. Cleveland. Any one of the last five would get the marble hand and the dead face from the noble American voter.

The meeting of the Literary Society, Friday night, brought out a good audience and the debate settled the proposition that the progress of society depends more upon the thinker than the laborer, in favor of the affirmative. The judges were Miss Bertie Davis, Miss Mary Franklin and Miss Daisy Vauzand. Tomorrow night, Messrs. J. C. Johnson Jr., D. F. McCoukey and T. J. Vauzand will contend that money is of more value than friends. This will be denied by Messrs. G. L. Taylor, II, R. Melton and J. L. Davis.

KIRBYVILLE.

Correspondence of THE REPUBLICAN. I have received several copies of THE REPUBLICAN and think it will fill a long felt need. We have been without a good Republican paper since the old Times stepped down and out. We wish it success.

Mrs. Prather, wife of our deceased assessor, is now keeping hotel in what is known as the Kintrea residence. It is hoped that she will meet with success.

Uncle Jack Middleton is erecting a new store building, which is nearing completion. This, together with his new residence makes quite an addition to our little town.

We have another blacksmith in Kirbyville. Opposition is the life of trade. Mr. Arley Linzy, son of ex-Judge Linzy, returned from Kansas a few days ago. He reports things lively there. He brought a new suit of clothes back with him. Look out girls.

A few days ago Judge Rice left these parts with a drove of fat hogs for St. Louis.

There seems to have been more cotton grown in this vicinity than was supposed, as most every day you can see them unloading the "beautiful white" at the gin. There will be a more extensive crop of it next year.

Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mulford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought sure I would lose him. I had seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it."

For other information, call on all dealers.

If you want a good cigar go to Ike's.

Go to Ike's for the celebrated Lemp's beer.

Ah there! have you tried any of John A. Gideon's pure corn whiskey? If not, call at Ike's.

The celebrated Anheuser-Busch beer always on ice at A. L. Parrish's saloon. It is the best on the market.

I. H. Arnold dealer in pure Rye and Corn whiskeys. Don't forget the place—S. E. corner Ike's Saloon, Forsyth, Mo.

Coughing irritates the delicate organs and aggravates the disease. Instead of waiting, try One Minute Cough Cure. It helps at once, making expectation easy, reduces the soreness and inflammation. Every one likes it. B. B. Price.

Prosecuting Attorney Ford returned on Tuesday night from a three-weeks visit among friends and relatives in Chariton county, Mo.

For rheumatism I have found nothing equal to Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It relieves the pain as soon as applied. J. W. Young, West Liberty, W. Va. The prompt relief it affords is alone worth many times the cost, 50 cents. Its continued use will effect a permanent cure. For sale by all dealers.

For dry goods, clothing, hats and caps, boots and shoes, queensware and hardware, harness, groceries, etc., etc., remember that L. T. Cornett's store two miles south of Cedar Creek P. O. is the place to get them. He sells for cash and takes marketable produce in exchange for goods.

We have made a clubbing arrangement with the Toledo Blade by which our subscribers can obtain the Blade and The Taney County Republican one year for the small sum of $1.00. Of course the dollar must be paid in advance as this proposition is on a strictly cash basis. The Blade without THE REPUBLICAN costs a dollar.

If suffering with piles, it will interest you to know that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will cure them. This medicine is a specific for all complaints of this character, and if instructions (which are simple) are carried out, a cure will result. We have tested this in numerous cases, and always with like results. It never fails. B. B. Price.

My shop is neat, razors sharp and towels clean. My scissors are keen and clippers in order to do you the best job you ever seen. Give me a call when in need of anything in my line of business. T. J. VANZANDT, Barber and Tonsorial Artist, South side of square, Forsyth, Mo.

Mr. Ira P. Wetmore, a prominent real estate agent of San Angelo, Texas, has used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in his family for several years as occasion required, and always with perfect success. He says: "I find it a perfect cure for our baby when troubled with colic or dysentery. I now feel that my outfit is not complete without a bottle of this Remedy at home or on a trip away from home. For sale by all dealers."
