-The prospects of the Forsyth Sunday school promises to excel that of last year.

-Read the notice to taxpayers in another column.

-D. F. McConkey made a trip to Swan the first of the week. Business we suppose.

-There is talk of organizing a dancing class in Forsyth with Dr. Eversole as instructor.

-Mr. Edwards, a mining expert from Oregon, has been looking up the mineral prospects in Taney for the past week.

-R. B. McManus has been doing some extensive improvements on his property on sun rise hill, the past few days.

-Owing to increase in business, McPhillips has added another gray horse to his gray horse dray line.

-J. K. McHaffie made the Republican office a substantial call on last Saturday. Come again Polk.

Little Joe is the chief mail carrier from this place to Kirbyville, at present.

-You have until Jan. 10th to pay your taxes without extra costs. All parties who have not paid their taxes should take advantage of the extension of time and come in at once. After that date you will be put to extra costs and trouble.

Attention Comrades, There will be a call meeting of G. N. Hilton Post No. 254, G. A. R. on Saturday Jan. 7-9. All comrades are requested to attend as important business is to be transacted.

By order of J. B. Boswell, Comm.

-We wonder what kind of a reception Hero Hobson would have received had he made a stop here. We have interviewed quite a number of young ladies on the subject and some say "yum yum" and others say the horrid man has been kissed enough.

LOST-Some where between Forsyth and Walnut Shade, a Regulation Army Cape, with brass button on. Finder please leave at this office or at post office at Walnut Shade, and be amply rewarded.

A. M. Flowers, Walnut Shade, Mo.

-On the 28 of Dec. the youngest son of Judge McCleary was married to the youngest daughter of Rev. D. H. Pickett near Kirbyville. The Republican is in sympathy with Mr. and Mrs. Pickett as this was their last child at home and we wish the young couple success.

John T. Dickenson, Public administrator has several good Farms for sale cheap, on easy terms. Call on him.

-Jimmie Johnson is at work on his new house. Jim will have one of the nicest houses in that part of the city when completed. C. H. Kinyon is doing the work.

Here is a cyclone story for you. A cyclone once picked up a straw stalk moved it a mile and put it back straw on straw as it was. another time I saw a twister suck sixty gallons of molasses out of a barrel in front of a grocery store and distribute it to every family in town who had a bucket out on the back porch for the milkman. Out in western Kansas I have known it to blow twelve days on a stretch and hold asleep up against the barn until it starved to death.

-Here is an arithmetical problem that is going the rounds: A is indebted to B $5, B to C, C to D, D to E, E to F, same amount. A, B, C, D and E each have $1 and no more, and consequently they cannot pay their debt. They put their money all together. A takes the $5, goes to B, and pays his debt and gets his receipt. It does the same to C, C to D, D to E and E to F. A, B, C, D and E are out of debt, and F has his money. Who, if anyone, is the loser?

Miss Lottie Eekins was a caller at the Republican office Tuesday.

-One of our weekly subscriber contributes the following:

If a body toll a body, Should not a body whip a body Until a body cries. Or if a body runs a body, Then draws a gun, Should not a body knock a body's Two eyes into one. Or if a body tell a body That a body lies, Should not a body hit a body Right between the eyes.-Ex.

La Grippe Successfully Treated. "I have just recovered from the second attack of la grippe this year," says Mr. Jas. A. Jones, publisher of Mexico, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days against ten days of the former attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this Remedy as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being 'struck' with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting 'down.'" For sale by B. B. Price, Forsyth, and F. M. Price, Kirse Mills.

Notice to Taxpayers. All persons who have not paid their taxes are hereby notified that after Jan. 10th, 1899, I will proceed to collect both current and delinquent taxes by levy and sale, and if you wish to save trouble and costs you must come and pay your taxes at once.

How to Prevent Pneumonia.

You are perhaps aware that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of la grippe. During the epidemic of la grippe a few years ago when so many cases resulted in pneumonia, it was observed that the attack was never followed by that disease when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was used. It counteracts any tendency of a cold or la grippe to result in that dangerous disease. It is the best remedy in the world for bad colds and la grippe. Every bottle warranted. For sale by B. B. The Weekly St. Louis Globe-Democrat

Price One Dollar a Year -1.00- Issued in Semi-Weekly Sections

As a Newspaper The Weekly Globe-Democrat, issued in Weekly sections, is almost equal to a daily, at the price of a weekly. The two papers each week give the complete news of that week from all parts of the world, so selected and arranged as to preserve the thread of events from issue to issue. The preparation of the news in this form involves an immense amount of labor and expenses, and comprises the most complete and comprehensive news service of any dollar-a-year publication in the United States, if not in the world.

As a Home Journal The Weekly Globe-Democrat is equally as prominent. It is morally clean, and may be read without contamination by all the members of any family. It contains the very cream of current literature and the best pictorial illustrations. Its departments devoted to "The Home," "For Women," "Agricultural News," "The Farm, Garden and Dairy," are each of the highest grade, and its Market Reports and correct and reliable in every detail.

In a Word The Weekly Globe-Democrat is a complete newspaper, prepared and printed for intelligent and thoughtful people. We have confidence in its ability to speak for itself, and will cheerfully mail Sample Copy, free of charge, upon receipt of request. Address: THE GLOBE PRINTING CO., St. Louis, Mo.
