THE TANEYVILLE EYE

VOL. I. TANEYVILLE, MO., THURSDAY, JUNE 27, 1907. NO. 1

BY COL. A. S. PRATHER

Receipts made by Col. Prather for subscriptions, advertising or job work will be honored at the publication office in Forsyth.

LOCAL ITEMS

The old folks hold the boards this week.

Mrs. Jane Luttrell is very sick with fever.

One of Jim Middleton's children has been quite ill.

Jasper Ray has been harvesting and cutting alfalfa.

Mrs. Frank Davis has them all beaten on nasturtiums.

It is reported today, Tuesday, that Lufe Ingram is better.

Byron Butler made a trip to Springfield on business this week.

L. N. Williams has been chosen to read the Declaration on the Fourth.

John Moody, of garadon, was visiting his old friends in Taneyville on Friday.

Garrison celebrates two days, the 4th and 5th. The Old Colonel has been invited to orate.

A sailing party on Beaver caught some fine fish—one very large one that was hard to land.

Little Miss Gracie Farley is spending a few weeks with her grandmother Mrs. Farley-Davis.

Mrs. Heald, who has been visiting at Mrs. Gordon's, returns to her home at Springfield Sunday.

Wm. Caudel's mail contract expired yesterday, and he was succeeded by Henry Brock, of Forsyth.

Comrade James Combs and wife will make an extended visit with friends in western Kansas and Oklahoma.

Jimmie Sullenger and David brought over two loads of lumber from the Everett mill, Tuesday, for seats for the celebration.

Some of the hogs in town are dying with the cholera, or some other disease. Try carbolic acid and coppers in slop, or consult a good veterinarian.

Mrs. Williams and her son who recently bought the Ford place on Mack's creek, were trading here Monday. They came here from Virginia in March, and are desirable citizens.

I find that the blighted pear trees that I cut back and treated with calomel are coming out finely. A new growth is appearing, vigorous and healthy, with no sign of blight. How many will remember that?

My advice to some of the boys who are not respecting the rights of other people in various little pranks which they call fun, is to cut it out and attend sabbath school, and try to become good and respectable citizens.

Arrangements are being perfected for the big celebration here. Charlie Davis, committee on amusements, is getting up a fine program. A tub race and a race for the boys through the water in the mill pond are included.

Henry Sullenger and his wife, nee Mamie Lintz, are visiting in the J. M. Sullenger home. They had quite an exciting and serious time crossing White river. The tugs became loosened in deep, swift water, but Henry got out into the water and re-adjusted things.

Piles get quick and certain relief from Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. Please note it is made alone for piles, and its action is positive and certain. Itching, painful, protruding or blind piles disappear like magic by its use. Large nickel capped glass jars 50 cents. Sold by all dealers.

The housewives are all busy canning berries. Betsy is doing her share, but says she "wont put none of that old preservin' fluid in her jars; don't need it, and never lost a can yet. Good jars, perfect tops and sure-enough rubbers are the things. I don't believe in these new-fangled notions, anyhow."

John Morrow is the proud father of a new baby girl who came Tuesday, the survivor of a pair of twins, the other passing away and being buried in the family lot in the Taney City cemetery. We trust the surviving little one may be a solace and comfort to the parents and temper their sorrow for the lost one. All are doing well, and have our congratulations as well as condolence.

Taneyville Merchants Talk Business.

John Morrow, General Merchandise.

John Morrow is receiving new goods all the time, and is doing his best to keep at the head of the procession in low prices and better goods. He is grateful to his many customers for patronage, and wants the people, through the medium of this paper, to know and feel his appreciation, believing he can show them, by his prices and goods, that it is to their interest to still continue their valued patronage.

George Steely, Merchandise.

George Steely desires to inform the public and all old friends and customers, that he has removed his store from McFarland to Taneyville. His

Do not suffer with severe Headaches when

HERBINE

Will Cure You.

The liver is the main-spring for the whole body. To expect good health, one must keep the liver in good order. To do so, a regulator is needed. Herbine will put your liver in the condition it should be and you will not suffer from headaches.

A POSITIVE CURE

FOR CONSTIPATION, CHILLS AND FEVER, BILIOUSNESS, MALARIA AND ALL LIVER COMPLAINTS.

Has Done A World Of Good.

Mrs. C. D. Philley, Marble Falls, Texas, writes: "I have used Herbine and find it the best liver corrective I have ever tried. It done my family as well as myself a world of good, and I recommend it to all my friends. I never suffer from headaches anymore."

stock, though not large, is up-to-date in quality and price, and you can find there, (at the old Taintor's) a nice, clean, well-selected stock of goods at prices that cannot be duplicated at more pretentious stores. He prides himself on the kind and polite manner in which he treats all his customers. He pays the top notch for eggs and produce, and solicits your patronage.

Frank Davis, General Merchandise.

Although Frank Davis does not carry as large a stock of goods as some others do, and has not as much money as some of his competitors, yet he believes he can make better use of what he has, in quality, in price, and in careful attention to the wants of his customers. If you think he is talking through his hat just call and look things over. He will pay you cash for your eggs, and will satisfy the most skeptical that he is here for business. He respectfully asks you to give him a trial, and feels assured he can please you.

The Caudel Hack Line.

William Caudel desires to inform the public and his friends that he will continue to run his hack line from Chadwick to Forsyth. Not being bothered and delayed by carrying the United States mails after July 1, he can make better time, and devote his entire time, energy and attention to the rapid and safe conveyance of his patrons. He has purchased new hacks, and is thoroughly equipped to render prompt and satisfactory service. Thanking his old and time-tried friends and the traveling public for all past favors, he hopes by strict attention to business and consideration of their requirements, to receive a continuance of their valued patronage.

He will convey passengers to any destination they desire at prices which will prove satisfactory to all concerned.

L. N. Williams, Drugs and Groceries.

L. N. Williams, through this medium, desires to inform the public that he has permanently located in Taneyville, on the east side of Main street, and has in stock and for sale a full line of drugs, notions, druggists' sundries, perfumes, brushes, paints, oils, and everything usually carried in a first class drug store except—fire-water. He also has a nice new stock of groceries, which he is selling as low as the lowest, and a little lower. He buys all kinds of country produce, and asks for a share of your trade.

Long Live The King!

is the popular cry throughout European countries; while in America, the cry of the present day is "Long live Dr. King's New Discovery, King of Throat and Lung Remedies," of which Mrs. Julia Ryder Paine, Truro, Mass., says: "It never fails to give immediate relief and to quickly cure a cough or cold." Mrs. Paine's opinion is shared by a majority of the inhabitants of this country. New Discovery cures weak lungs and sore throats after all other remedies have failed; and for coughs and colds it's the only sure cure. Guaranteed by A. H. Parrish, druggist. 50c and $1.00.
