A Foggy Forecast. Mr. John White, of 38 Highland Ave., Houston, Maine, says: "I have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a 50-cent bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery; before that was half gone, the cough was all gone. This winter the same remedy result has followed, a few uses has banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." Sold under guarantee at Kisser's drug store, 506 and 81, Third Street, free.

Good news. Plenty of rain here.

Fogging is about a thing of the past in this neighborhood.

The White River Association of General Baptists is holding its annual association at Kentucky hollow.

It's a pity when sick ones drug the stomach or stimulate the heart and kidneys. That is all wrong. A weak stomach means weak stomach nerves, always. And this is a true of the heart and kidneys. The weak nerves are instead crying out for help. This explains why Dr. Shoop's Restorative is promptly helping stomach, heart and kidney ailments. The Restorative reaches out for the actual cause of these ailments—the failing "inside nerves." Anyway test the Restorative 48 hours. It won't cure so soon as that, but you will surely know that help is coming. Sold by City Drug Store.

Mr. Duncan left a few days ago for his home in north Missouri. He expects soon to return.

George Edlis is hauling ties for B. Wadde, of the Shade.

J. S. Reniker made a trip last week to Reed's Spring.

Jim Keithley has traded his young mules for a horse.

It was learned yesterday that the cellar of the Krouse boys had been broken into and a large amount of canned fruit and jellies stolen.

October. We are enjoying the finest weather just now, though it is a little dry and a good rain would be appreciated.

Most of the fodder has been taken care of except some that was planted very late, and that is maturing very fast. Notwithstanding the unfavorable spring, our farmers are going to harvest a very good corn crop.

Calvin Jones left Sunday evening to look for a good farm in the vicinity of Cassville, and if successful in his search will move to it between now and spring.

W. J. Bradshaw, of Springfield, was down this week looking after his business.

Father Groblebe, wife and children, of Springfield came down Sunday and visited with his children until Monday.

Newt Bunch and wife returned to Melva Monday morning to resume work at the saw mill, after laying off a week waiting for logs.

Miss Gerlie Oliver is getting along well, with a good attendance, at the school.

Among the passengers we noted last week returning from the big show at Springfield were County Clerk Hicks and wife and Postmaster Brazel, of Forsyth, and W. K. Cox and Jesse Oliver, of Branson, who had been to the Hadley opening.

John Vining, an old veteran of the Civil war, died at his home on Roark the 16th inst after a lingering illness of more than a year, during which he was helpless and needed the constant attention all the time of his faithful wife, who watched over him day and night until death sounded the last bugle call to rest. Mr. Vining was born in East Windsor, Hartford county, Connecticut, and grew to manhood and married there. He moved to Illinois previous to the war, and August 9, 1862, at the age of 25, enlisted as a private in Capt. Edward's Co. A, 124th Illinois Volunteers, and served three years, receiving his honorable discharge August 15, 1865. In 1867 he moved to Wilson county, Kansas, where his wife died in March, 1870. In the latter part of the same year he was married to Ellen Babcock, at Fredonia, Kansas. His children are all dead, and his faithful wife—now well advanced in years—is left alone to mourn his departure. He had been a Christian and member of the United Brethren church since 1871, and died strong in the faith. He had followed his trade as a cigar maker until failing health forced him to give up the work several years ago. Thus are the old veterans dropping out of line to answer the last roll call.

The six-months old child of J. L. Gillehad, which was left motherless at his birth last winter, died this morning and will be buried beside his mother this evening. The child, which had never been well, was taken care of by Mrs. Mary Walden until about a week ago, when Mr. Gillehad took it home.

Tickling or dry coughs will quickly loosen when using Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. And it is so thoroughly harmless that Dr. Shoop tells mothers to use nothing else, even for very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender green stems of a lung healing mountainous shrub give the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. It calms the cough and heals the sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Demand Dr. Shoop's. Accept no other. Sold by City Drug Store.

Podrow. Odas Weatherman cut his foot quite badly Saturday while working in the cedar.

Grandfather and grandmother Kelly will depart this week for their home in Illinois, as Roy is now able to attend to his chores.

The creek is so low the mill cannot grind, and a good rain would be one of the most acceptable things that could come to pass.

John Richard has left for parts unknown, supposedly in possession of money belonging to his cousin, Gerlie Craig.

Mrs. Mamie Weatherman, nee Craig, welcomed a baby girl on the 15th instant. Mother and child are doing well.

H. M. Stacey reached home last Saturday.

There was preaching at Flint Hill Sunday, morning and afternoon.

W. P. Meberly is hauling saw-logs to the mill.

Byram Stacey started last Thursday to Oklahoma.

Mrs. Chandler has suffered a stroke of palsy. Though she has neither spoken nor moved since the attack she is thought to be slightly better.

Louise Bookout is sick, but improving.

The cedar is being taken off the Jeseclyn land.

Our Young Folks

How many of you have been reading Edward B. Clark's very interesting illustrated articles about birds, in the insert section of the Republican? These have appeared in papers since the middle of last June. If interested in bird study, it will pay you to hunt up your old papers and read these articles. Probably the series will be continued in future numbers of the Republican. Watch for them. The last subject was "Why Do Birds Fly South?" This is a good time to begin observations of your own, for the birds will now be passing through your country on their way to the south. Do not neglect to use pencil and paper to make records of all facts you may observe. Next year and the years after, you will have these facts to compare with future observations, and you will all the time find enjoyment in the increase of knowledge which this outdoor study affords.

I am still requesting you to write me letters. Perhaps you ask, "Why should I write to you?" and "What kind of letters do you want?" My reply to the first query is: I want this department to be of personal interest, and therefore the talk should not all come from one side of the table. I have certain ideals and plans for Our Young Folks, but I know from past experience they will not work out strictly according to theory. So I need your help and suggestions.

If you are a teacher, you might tell me whether natural science is taught in your school, what text books you use, whether you supplement the study with other reading matter and with observation of natural objects by the students. Do they collect and classify? Do any of them have a special liking for natural science, art, history, mechanics? Do you think they would benefit by organizing local clubs and conducting systematic correspondence with pupils pursuing similar studies in other schools? I might enumerate more, but you have a fund of original ideas that would be welcome to me.

If you are a parent, you might tell me whether that boy of yours gives promise of becoming a good scholar, or whether he is indifferent to education. If his talents and ambition are gauged to college, and conditions decree that he must be content, for a time at least, with the district school and home study, why not make those conditions pleasant and profitable to him by supplementing his school books with other literature? If, on the other hand, he is indifferent, encourage him to read the home newspaper. Call his attention to the department for him in the Republican. If you think he needs to "tune a new lead" and take more interest in education, perhaps a word from an unexpected source would produce results to better advantage than the regular "lecturing" you might give him. You know a boy is sometimes stubborn, and if the parent recommends reading the newspaper, he might consider it a task to be shunned. So, how would it do for me to write him a letter and tell him about the interesting plans in which I want him to take part? Send me his name and tell me what occupation or pastime is most to his liking. It might be turned to good account.

Notice for Publication. United States Land Office at Springfield, Missouri, September 21, 1908. Notice is hereby given that Francis M. Torgue, of Taneyville, Mo., who, on February 11, 1862, made homestead entry No. 2772, for so much of sq. 26, Twp. 24 N., Rng. 24 E., 11th principal meridian, has filed notice of intention to make final five year proof to establish claim to the land above described, before the clerk of the county court, at Forsyth, Mo., on the 15th day of October, 1908.

Claimant names as witnesses: Charles Clemens, Daniel Hart and M. C. Grant, of Taneyville, Mo., and J. T. DeKoson, of Wilcox, Mo. C. N. Van Horn, Reg. Register.

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney nerves. The kidneys, like the heart, and the stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To destroy the kidneys, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine is dark, or if dark string (iron) excrements of bright or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggist recommend and sell.

THE REUNION. The reunion was a big success. The weather was fine, dust a plenty and attendance large.

The address of welcome by the Old Colonel was responded to by President G. G. Robertson, of the School of the Ozarks, in a patriotic address. He also spoke in behalf of the school.

The Forsyth Cornet band was present with its entire membership, and rendered excellent, up to date music that was a revelation to many, and especially to the children, who had never heard music of that kind.

The band serenaded the town Saturday morning before the opening of the exercises at the grounds. The town was decorated to some extent, and even the town cows came running and adding not too musical voices to the volume of sound, showing their appreciation of good music.

At 1:30 p. m. the joint political discussion took place, between Prather and Sharp, candidates for representative on the Republican and Democratic tickets respectively. Prather opened in a 30 minute speech, avoiding personalities, referring to the primary frauds in the big cities, and asking if Sharp approved the methods by which Ball was counted out. Sharp, in reply, became personal, and tried to run his "red-hot roller" over the Colonel, but carefully avoided any mention of Cowley, Ball, or the crooked work of the Kansas City and St. Louis machine Indians. The Colonel responded in a few remarks that seemed to hit the bulls eye, and was congratulated by the old veterans, by the ladies, and by many Democrats.

This closed the program at the grounds, and all hands, especially the younger element, went to see the ball game between the Taneyville and Hilda clubs, a fine regulation ball and bat going to the winners. The interest was intense. At the end of the seventh inning the game was called because of the intensity of the hour, the score standing 31 to 11 in favor of Taneyville.

The boys on both sides made some double plays that would have pleased a professional.

Charley Ray did some heavy batting and never failed to take in a fly that came his way.

Charley Grant made a running catch of a fly that was rewarded by loud applause.

The Hilda boys did some fine playing, but were handicapped by the absence of some of their best players, and declared that Taneyville "couldn't do it again."

Many old veterans from a distance were present.

Bob Adams, our efficient sheriff, and most of the county officials, were in attendance.

J. C. Nance and Otto Wolf, and families, of Dit, Miss Lee O'Neill, of "Bonnybrook," and a party of friends from Springfield, and many others of whom space forbids separate mention were with us.

The ceremony of raising the flag, the band playing Hall Columbia, was impressive, and thrilled old and young with patriotic emotions.

Good order prevailed, and except for a little bootlegging, everybody went home pleased; and as the echoing strains of the band, playing their farewell number at sundown, floated through the trees, everyone stopped to listen, and all hands declared it the finest reunion ever.

Orville Thurston, son of Mrs. Haslip, and his wife, daughter of C. M. Davis, have moved back from Kansas and will reside in Taneyville for the present. Charley Simmons and William Johnson went to Branson Monday for their household goods.

Betsy says she enjoyed herself to the limit at the reunion, but got too full for utterance and "mad as a wet hen" when Candidate Sharp jumped onto Sam so roughly, and walked away bristling with indignation. It took three or four dishes of ice cream to cool her off, but she is hot "under the collar" yet, and Mr. S. would better hide out when he sees her coming.

Mrs. Clark will have a public sale Monday the 28th instant.

Prospectors and land buyers are looking around the country.

A new brood of campaign stories are being hatched out and put into circulation, but will not bear close scrutiny. It is always safe to "pass them up."

Dr. Williams was taken seriously worse Tuesday morning and is in a critical condition.

Mrs. John Morrow is reported on the sick list.

There was no bootlegging by Taney county people here last week.

We learn with regret that Mae Smith is quite poorly, and has lost the sight of one eye.

Charley Russell and wife, nee Mag-
