NANCE.

Paddy Tabor has had a bunch of boys out on road the past week, between this place and the east end of the county.

The Stehles were expecting their daughter Sophia in from Wichita, Kansas, the first of the week, but for some unknown cause she did not come.

Jess Miller has been among the ailing for some time past.

Jesse Braly started last Thursday for Texas, where his father resides. Jesse has been in Forsyth going to school, and came down to Nance to visit his brother Emory and his sister, Mrs. Thornton, before his departure for home.

Ends Hunt for Rich Girl.

Often the hunt for a rich wife ends when the man meets a woman that uses Electric Bitters. Her strong nerves tell in a bright brain and even temper. Her peach bloom complexion and ruby lips result from her pure blood; her bright eyes from restful sleep; her elastic step from firm, free muscles, all telling of the health and strength Electric Bitters give a woman, and the freedom from indigestion, backache, headache, fainting and dizzy spells they promote. Everywhere they are woman's favorite remedy. If weak or ailing try them. 50c at City Drug Store.

PINETOP.

Arthur Southard has been hauling cedar for a week, filling in the time of idleness caused by his father's sickness.

Sam Luke was laid out from hard work several days last week on account of rheumatism in his hips, but is able to be at it again at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Powers and son Alva took dinner with John Hutton Sunday. John turned the cooking over to Mrs. Powers, only insisting that raspberries be the "hub" of the dinner. Alva enjoyed the dinner but was in grief on account of his failure to trade his cow and calf for Watch, John's big dog.

Will Southard, we are glad to say, is "coming back," and feels so far recovered from his illness of last week that he hopes to begin active work on mill construction before this week ends.

Bert Biles is plowing corn this week.

Mr. O'Hara has shut down work on the prospect hole south of here. We have not learned whether it will be taken up again soon or not.

C. O. Barnwell was a Pinetop visitor Sunday. He reports his family in good health.

Bud Layton was visiting around here Sunday.

Cool weather for June. Last Tuesday morning, June 18, the mercury fell to 39, but has been slowly warming up since.

Move on Now!

says a policeman to a street crowd, and whacks heads if it don't. "Move on now," says the big, harsh mineral pill to bowel congestion, and suffering follows. Dr. King's New Life Pills don't bulldoze the bowels. They gently persuade them to right action, and health follows. 25c at City Drug Store.

GARBER.

All nature seems refreshed since the rain last week and farmers are busy putting their corn fields in shape and planting cane and pea seed so as to insure a good crop of feed this fall.

T. S. Powell is at Branson this week on business with the power company.

H. D. Hoge of Carthage came in Saturday and was looking after affairs on his ranch. He went home Monday evening.

Geo. E. Cole has located at Nevis, Minn., and is putting in a crop of potatoes and building a new house on the 40 he bought to make a home on. His family is yet here but will leave in a few days to join him. He reports no ticks or fleas to keep him company. We will try to send him a box full, as we have more than we need.

Mr. Harm McGrew and little son, of Galena, came over on 209 Saturday and visited at the Powell home until Sunday.

S. S. Stange of Chicago is a visitor at the Powell home for a few days.

Thomas Clapp and several other young men left last week for the Kansas wheat fields.

H. A. Woodliff of Joplin was here Monday looking after ties to supply the great demand for them at present, and the prices of ties are expected to advance soon to the high mark of a few years ago.

J. S. Fronbarger, of Mounds, Okla., was in Garber neighborhood a couple of days last week, leaving for his home Monday.

With the scene of battle moved to Baltimore, we ought to see a more dignified course than was pursued at Chicago. But will we? The same hobby horse must be ridden down there that bothered the city by the lake.

Makes the Nation Gasp.

The awful list of injuries on a Fourth of July staggers humanity. Set over against it, however, is the wonderful healing, by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, of thousands, who suffered from burns, cuts, bruises, bullet wounds or explosions. It's the quick healer of boils, ulcers, eczema, sore lips or piles. 25c at City Drug Store.

GOODNIGHT.

We had a fine rain and farmers are smiling.

Mr. George Call got tired of "baching" and concluded to take unto himself a wife, so drove over to Squire J. R. Doyd's Sunday with Miss Tirza Cummings and they twain were made one. May happiness abide with them always.

Mrs. Rachel Nash and daughter Lulu visited with Mrs. Nash's father, Uncle Dave Wilson of upper Bull creek last Friday and Saturday. Mr. Wilson is about 92 years old, hearty and stout for an old man, but nearly blind.

Bird Keithley left last week for the harvest fields of Kansas to work a while; also several other boys have gone out there from here to help take care of the golden grain.

L. F. Bearden and T. J. Harper last week made a business trip to Branson and Louie incidentally and with malice against no one did some electioneering with the good voters.

J. F. Faught and Siegel Barnhart, stock buyers of Nixa, were seen in this neighborhood last week.

Mr. J. A. St. Clair, postmaster at Day, has returned from his trip to the north part of the state, and seems glad to get back to old Taney.

Renny Canfield and Joe Dever, son of Uncle Jim Dever, who have been visiting Uncle Jim and other relatives for a few days, left last Saturday for Oklahoma to work a while before returning to their home in Ohio.

Mr. Herman Eddy and wife, of Kansas, have been for the past week visiting the family of his brother, our new neighbor, Mr. Ora Eddy.

The farmers say they have the finest prospect for a big corn crop they have had for years, and we certainly will appreciate a good crop this year.

Man Cough's and Breaks Ribs.

After a frightful coughing spell a man in Neenah, Wis., felt terrible pains in his side and his doctor found two ribs had been broken. What agony Dr. King's New Discovery would have saved him. A few teaspoonful ends a late cough, while persistent use routs obstinate coughs, expels stubborn colds or heals weak, sore lungs. "I feel sure its a Godsend to humanity," writes Mrs. Effie Morton, Columbia, Mo., for I believe I would have consumption today if I had not used this great remedy." It's guaranteed to satisfy, and you can get a free trial bottle or 50-cent or $1.00 size at City Drug Store.

Wanted, White River land, improved or unimproved, for cash. HENRY W. UNGER, Branson, Mo.
