

"Cardui Cured Me"

For nearly ten years, at different times, Mrs. Mary Jinks of Treadway, Tenn., suffered with womanly troubles. She says: "At last, I took down and thought I would die. I could not sleep. I couldn't eat. I had pains all over. The doctors gave me up. I read that Cardui had helped so many, and I began to take it, and it cured me. Cardui saved my life! Now, I can do anything."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

If you are weak, tired, worn-out, or suffer from any of the pains peculiar to weak women, such as headache, backache, dragging-down feelings, pains in arm, side, hip or limbs, and other symptoms of womanly trouble, you should try Cardui, the woman's tonic. Prepared from perfectly harmless, vegetable ingredients, Cardui is the best remedy for you to use, as it can do you nothing but good. It contains no dangerous drugs. It has no bad after-effects. Ask your druggist. He sells and recommends Cardui.

have been issued since our last report as follows:

Ira Lawson of Bradleyville and Nettie Holt of Nance.

Reuben J. Isaacs and Nellie E. Bush, both of Garber.

The Boy Scouts held a clean-up session last Monday, assisted by several of the men about town, and made a fine showing in the Forsyth cemetery, where they cleaned off all the weeds and straightened things up generally.

Mrs. C. B. Sharp left last Friday morning for a couple of weeks' visit with relatives and friends at Kansas City and other points in that part of the state.

W. H. Church, of this office, left last Friday for Pinetop, where he went to turn over the post office to his successor, M. J. Huntley. Mr. Church has been postmaster at Pinetop for the past six years, and during that time the salary has been about twelve dollars a year. Mr. Church thinks he now has a joke on the other fellow.

Fred Marshall came down from Springfield last week and made soundings along and river and creek here and at Bradleyville to determine the depth to which his company will have to go to secure foundations for the two new bridges. Work will be started as soon as possible and both bridges pushed to completion.

M. E. Beall was down from Taneyville last Saturday and made this office a pleasant visit. Mr. Beall informed the writer that he had named his home place "Orchard Home," and was preparing to make some substantial improvements about the farm.

Monarch, the old Sam Coulter Jack, now owned by the Forsyth Horse Co., can now be found at the Beall home, northwest of Taneyville.

The primary school held a little picnic at the school house last Saturday, which was well attended by the pupils and parents, and all seemed to have a most enjoyable time. Mrs. Bennett is a royal entertainer for either the children or the old folks.

Miss Aletha Davis, one of the teachers at the School of the Ozarks, came in Saturday to attend the commencement exercises.

John Byrns was down from Osaka the first of the week visiting with friends.

G. J. Summers, who lives just east of town, brought a stalk of bluegrass to this office last Monday that measured a little over four feet high, and, as Mr. Summers said, grew on one of these poor hillside forties. This country is full of poor forties like that, they will grow anything you plant on them.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Baldwin are the parents of a fine baby, born last week.

George Gladson has been working this week setting posts and preparing to put up a neat woven wire fence around the church property here.

A. F. Morris and wife and Uncle John and Auntie Hilsabeck were up from Kissee Mills Monday of this week.

2 good brood and work mares for sale. See or write to A. F. Morris, Kissee Mills, Mo.

C. H. Groom has been in Carthage the past few days attending the sessions of the Odd Fellows Grand Lodge.

D. F. McConkey left Monday morning of this week for a business trip to Springfield and other points up the state.

Q. L. Nance, of Branson, who has been assisting in the work of the office for the past few weeks, is in Carthage this week to attend the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows.

Charlie Stiffler to Build School House.

The school board the first of the week awarded the contract for the new school house to Charlie Stiffler for $7,947.00, and the work was started Wednesday with all the home labor he could employ. Mr. Stiffler says that wherever possible he will give the home men the first chance at the work, and then if he can't get them he will hire outside labor. Drumiller & Clawson of Branson will do the brick work for Mr. Stiffler, and he will get home men to do the carpenter work and painting if possible.

Mrs. Elizabeth Schneller died at the family home near Branson last Sunday, May 18, and was buried in the Branson cemetery Monday. She was born in Bedford county, Tennessee, Feb. 1, 1847, and was married in January, 1869. She had long been a member of the Christian Church. Rev. John Crockett had charge of the funeral services.

Jesse Nance went to Springfield on a business trip Wednesday of this week and expected to return about Saturday.

J. W. Clawson, the brick contractor of Branson, was in town Tuesday of this week looking after the brick contract for the new school house.

J. W. Reese left Monday of this week to attend the Grand Lodge of the Odd Fellows which has been in session this week at Carthage.

The Springfield Business College needs 100 young men for the telegraph department this summer. There is the greatest demand for graduates the school has ever had, due to the growing reputation among railroads of sending out the best graduates of any telegraph school.

Manford Boles and his brother Burress came in the first of the week for a visit with his father, Sheriff N. D. Boles and family. Manford has been attending a school of pharmacy at Kansas City, and Burress is located at Billings.

J. W. Blankenship of Hollister is in town transacting business and visiting with friends.

Chas. McCord, who peddles fish hooks for Norvell Shapleigh of St. Louis, was in town this week and managed to catch a nice string of fish while here.

James Summerton is very sick at the home of his son, G. S. Summerton, at Wayside.

A. J. Brazel and wife came over from Branson Tuesday to attend the S. of O. banquet that evening and returned home the next morning.

Louis Huggins, Dr. Dobbins and Miss Ella Cowan of St. Joseph, came in Tuesday evening to attend the commencement exercises of the S. of O. and to visit with friends here a few days.

Recorder of Deeds U. G. Johnson has been having more than his share of sickness recently. Mr. Johnson recently had an attack of pneumonia, and since that time every member of the family has been sick.

R. C. Ford left Monday morning for Mt. Vernon, where he went to try a case in the Lawrence county circuit court.

N. D. Wallace, county surveyor, was in town Wednesday running the lines for the work on the new school house.

A. L. Weatherman of Walnut Shade was transacting business at the county seat Wednesday of this week.

W. L. Brown and wife and son, of Kansas City, Kansas, who have been visiting here for several days past, are very much pleased with this country, and have announced their intention of coming back again.

S. of O. Commencement

The exercises of the closing week were inaugurated at the Stone Chapel on Sunday morning where, after an unusually large attendance at Sunday School, Mr. Crockett preached a very good sermon appropriate to the occasion. In the evening the services were transferred up the hill. A very interesting farewell prayermeeting was conducted by Earl Bilyeu. More than sixty responded to their names at roll call. This meeting was followed by a preaching service; the first of such services that has been held at the school for several years. Mr. Crockett gave us a very good address on the subject of the Christian Life. The service closed with the observance of the Lord's Supper. It was a day which will be long remembered by some of us.

On Monday evening a large assembly, for such a small town as Forsyth, gathered to witness the May Pole drill, and to attend the Bible Reading Contest. The drill was given on the campus at six thirty, and a success in every respect. Virginia Wallace, the Senior girl, was chosen May Queen and duly crowned. Her attendants were Zeffie Hulse, Ruby Hart and Katherine Hammond.

The contestants in the Bible Reading Contest were Jessie Vanzandt, "Elijah on Mt. Carmel"; Frances McConkey, "Naaman the Syrian"; Maggie Choate, "The Return of Naomi"; Ruth Downing, "Two Parables"; Esther Stires, "Belshazzar's Feast"; Bartley Schwieger, "Paul Before Agrippa."

The children of the intermediate grades had a contest in Bible story telling. This was in some respects the most enjoyable part of the evening. Every child was well prepared and told his story well. The contestants were Fern Haworth, Chester Arnold, Carl Boles, Robert Finch, Lydia Ray, Icy Reese and Jewell Summers. The judges were Miss Davis, Mrs. Brazel and Mr. Bennett. They judged Frances McConkey the best reader and Robert Finch the best story teller.

Wednesday night the eighth grade graduation exercises were held on the lawn near Independence Hall. After Bro. Crockett invoked the divine blessing the Glee Club sang the Soldier's Chorus and sang it well. The presentation of "Scenes from Hiawatha" came next. The young folks seem to have studied the poem pretty well, and they played their parts very well indeed. After the play came a song by Frances McConkey and Howard Main. An address by Rev. J. S. Cunningham and the song, "Going Home," by the Class, were followed by the presentation of certificates.

"America" was sung by the assembled multitude, and the benediction closed the day's doings. The fourth annual banquet of the S. of O. was held in the dining hall at the school Tuesday evening, and every place at the tables was filled when the time came to start on the eats. Mrs. Finch, the matron, and her corps of capable assistants, prepared and served an excellent repast that each and every one present gave his or her undivided attention to for nearly three quarters of an hour. The menu was:

Olives Grape-Fruit Radishes
Celery
Chicken Patties Green Peas
Mashed Potatoes Jelly
Pommesin Salad
Cheese Wafers Pickles
Ice Cream and Pineapple
Cakes
Wafers Mints Coffee

After the eats were finished, a few of the intermediate pupils gave a play let entitled "The Snow Hills," in which the participants reflected credit upon their teachers.

The last number of the evening was an address by Prof. E. J. Hoenshel of Branson; who took as a topic, "As a Man Thinketh." The address was delivered in a masterly manner and contained much food for thought.

M. C. Kelley and wife of Pittsburg, Kansas, have been stopping at the Hotel Forsyth for several days, while Mr. Kelley tried the fishing in White river. He is pretty well pleased with his trip and will return for more fishing and camping.

E. J. Hoenshel came over from Branson Tuesday morning to deliver an address at the S. of O. banquet that evening.

Needed Airing. "What's the matter with you?" demanded Borem hotly. "I've got a right to air my opinions, haven't I?" "Oh, of course," replied Brightly. "They're so stale and musty they certainly need something of that sort."—Philadelphia Press.

Quite a Difference. Ethel—Jack told me that he never loved any one before. Marie—Well, excuse me for saying so, dear, but he and I once were engaged. Ethel—Oh, I didn't ask him about engagements. I only asked him about love.—Boston Transcript.

GARBER.

With most delightful cool weather to sleep with at night who would care how the Mexican fuss goes.

Mrs. G. B. Cowley returned home to Cowgill, Mo., last week after a pleasant outing on her farm, and we are sure the doctor will be well pleased to see her at home again.

Misses Wallace and Beulah Cox, John, Guy and Miss Jessie Sutherland went to Monett Sunday to pick strawberries, and several others are preparing to follow to different places on the same mission.

John Gregg and family took train Sunday evening for a few days visit with friends at Crane.

Levi Russell, W. W. Walden and Attorney Bearden, with J. K. Ross as a follower, all returned from Mt. Vernon last week. Mr. Russell's trial was continued until next court, while the Sanford vs. Ross case was set for Wednesday of this week.

Miss Miriam Lynch went to Galena last Thursday to start a new class and thence to Branson Friday morning and home Saturday evening.

Ralph Conrad came in from Branson Saturday evening for his regular work over at the Cave.

R. L. Cantrell and his brother Will sold a carload of cattle last week, delivered at Reedsspring.

R. L. Cantrell loaded out another car of ties last week.

As wild strawberries are now ripe we will get our share if we have time to go pick them.

Garber cannot boast of any big fishing pond where sports can show their expertness by the number they catch, but we have plenty of greens and good garden sass.

Since butter has become so plentiful and cheap our butter makers have struck on churning and are shipping their cream to Springfield.

NANCE.

Eimer Wolf was a Longrun visitor one day the past week.

Noah Blankenship has been enjoying a very complicated head trouble, caused by catarrh.

Plowing corn is the order of the day. The messies have about died out about here.

Most all of our church goers went to Valley View to church last Sunday.

RILL.

Rev. Henry Teeters, of Bolivar, is expected to be with us next Sunday. Services both afternoon and night, at the school house.

The first automobile to make the trip from Forsyth to Springfield over the "new" road made it all right but had to have the assistance of a team part of the way—stuck in the mud.

Everyone has finished planting corn and is now figuring on harvesting a few ties before corn plowing and wheat harvest begin to rush them.

The new canning factory outfit has been installed at the old "board barn" site and things will begin to hum as soon as the tomatoes come in.

James McCoy is getting out the bill of lumber for the canning factory at Chadwick. They have the foundation in and are making great progress with the drilled well, in fact are rushing things right along. We understand the company has over four hundred acres of tomatoes contracted for the season. The tomato growers around Oldfield expect to ship a carload a day if the season is favorable.

VALLEY VIEW.

James Hutchings of McClurg, was visiting his two brothers, Nance and Elbert, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Brewer was visiting relatives in Searcy county, Arkansas, the past week. Vada and Earl were keeping back while they were away.

Dick and Abe Cole have been enjoying a visit from their nephew, John Cole, of Ozark county, who is a music master.

John Owen has been in quite a sick condition for some time.

J. S. Shipman, recently of this place but now of Springfield, was down looking after affairs on his farm.

Rev. G. A. Roberts of Brownbranch was down and filled his regular appointment on last second Sunday. He was accompanied by Rev. S. Jackson and Roberts, who delivered some good sermons of a satisfying character.

Guy Woods makes frequent visits to Longrun and Louis Hutchings goes to Cedar creek quite often these days.

BRADLEYVILLE.

The Sunday school has decided to buy new song books.

Cesar Stottle is visiting his mother.

Noah Black of Garrison visited with friends here last week.

Dr. Hummel is in Kansas City.

Chas. Boyd and wife, who have been visiting here, returned to their home at Nixa, where he is principal of the school. He is a candidate for representative from Christian county.

Mr. Bird of Taneyville preached for us last Sunday.

There is considerable corn to be planted yet, while some is just coming up and some is being plowed over for the first time.

Uncle Joe Mosely has been trying his luck at fishing.

Miss Dollie Taylor of Taneyville spent Sunday with her friend Goldia McPherson.

Mrs. Jessie Wright and little daughter, Junia, of Osaka, were in town Saturday.
