

My Doctor Said

"Try Cardui," writes Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I was in a very low state of health, and was not able to be up and tend to my duties. I did try Cardui, and soon began to feel better. I got able to be up and help do my housework. I continued to take the medicine, and now I am able to do my housework and to care for my children, and I feel as though I could never praise Cardui enough for the benefits I have received."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Cardui is successful, because it is made especially for women, and acts specifically on the womanly constitution. Cardui does one thing, and does it well. That explains the great success which it has had, during the past 50 years, in helping thousands of weak and ailing women back to health and happiness.

If you are a woman, feel tired, dull, and are nervous, cross and irritable, it's because you need a tonic. Why not try Cardui? Cardui builds, strengthens, restores, and acts in every way as a special, tonic remedy for women. Test it for yourself. Your druggist sells Cardui. Ask him.

Mrs. Hampton Dead

Mrs. Marc Hampton, wife of Arbery Hampton and eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Weatherman, died at the family home, Dec. 24th, 1915, and was laid to rest in the Walnut Shade cemetery the 25th, a sad Christmas to all. Macy has been sick a year with that dreaded disease, consumption. She was 22 years of age. She leaves a husband, two children, a sister, two brothers, five brothers and a host of relatives and friends. She suffered a long time and died a peaceful death. She called all the family to the bedside and told them she had to give it up and she was ready to go, and asked them all to meet her in heaven, and told them all good bye. We know she is at rest. God spared her for her to make her peace with Him. She was a good little woman, but as far as we knew she was never a Christian. But she sure was a happy little angel at the end. May God help the rest to live a right life, that they may meet that dear one in heaven as she asked them to do. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community. A FRIEND.

Mrs. J. W. St. Clair, who has been staying at the Nelson hotel since her return from the hospital at Springfield, where she could be in reach of the doctor, made a little trip out home to Walnut Shade the day before Christmas and came back again the next day. She is said to be improving right along.

J. A. Weatherman and family returned the first of the week from a visit with relatives and friends at Springfield.

J. J. Rhoades was up from Cedar creek Wednesday of this week.

Bailey McManus returned Sunday evening from a visit of several days with relatives and friends at Springfield.

Tom Cox was over from Branson Wednesday of this week.

J. W. Blankenship came over from Hollister Wednesday in his auto to transact business with the county collector's office.

C. B. Sharp is about laid up this week with a case of gripe.

County Collector Reese received a check by mail Tuesday evening that is probably the largest amount the axes ever paid at one time in this county. The amount was $7,619.27, and is the amount the Ozark Power & Water Co. pays to Taney County this year. Some folks still say that a company like that is not worth anything to the county, but we think different.

Mr. Beeler, the Kisse Mills blacksmith, is in Forsyth today.

Mrs. Pearl Moore and two children, Della and Carl, came over from Branson Sunday evening, and were joined here Monday by husband and father W. I. Moore who are visiting with Mrs. Moore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Groom.

W. M. Hunter was transacting business at the county seat last Friday and returned to his home at Taneyville that evening.

George Stifler was in from the farm Friday and in a conversation said that he would be willing to dig up a hundred dollars if anyone could assure him that there would be a republican president and congress elected in 1916. We did our best to make him believe that it would be so and George went home feeling a little better. George will vote that way.

Grover Ray and family came down from the farm near Taneyville Sunday for a short visit with Mrs. Ray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Brock.

Town Jones and wife are the happy parents of a fine eleven pound boy born Monday morning of this week.

Otto Wolf, John Stinson and D. F. Stewart, of Kisse Mills, were paying taxes today.

Coulter-Farrar

Thursday morning of last week, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Coulter, occurred the marriage of Miss Jessie Coulter to J. B. Farrar, in the presence of the immediate families of the contracting parties. Rev. U. G. Johnson performing the ceremony.

After the ceremony a big family dinner was held at which the newly-weds, including Archie Coulter and his bride, formerly Miss Mary Campbell, who had been married the day previous at the home of her parents near Kirbyville, were the prominent figures.

Mrs. Farrar is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Coulter, one of the prominent families in this part of the county, and has a host of friends in and around Forsyth who wish her well in her new station in life, and hope that all health, wealth and prosperity may be hers.

Mr. Farrar is a member of one of the old families of Christian county, having attended school here a few years ago when he became acquainted with the young lady who is now his wife. He is engaged in the banking business with his uncle at Chadwick, and is considered one of the progressive young business men of that town.

The Republican joins with the many friends of the young people in wishing them all the happiness in the world wherever they may be.

The busiest place in town the past week has been the office of the county collector. Jim has been working day and night trying to keep up with the rush to pay taxes, and has had a deputy or two also working most of the time.

Burrell Boles returned Monday from a visit at Billings during the high school vacation.

J. W. Dickinson was down from his home at Dickens Tuesday of this week transacting business.

H. T. Wilson was a caller at this office Tuesday of this week to advance the date of his subscription to the old county paper.
