From present indications, the Republicans will have a large amount of timber to select candidates from next August. These are some splendid men brought out, and the Republicans can rest assured they will have a ticket of representative men as usual.

A Letter From Robert Gideon

On B. U. P. R. R. in Oregon, February 2, 1918.
Editor Republican, and People of Taney County, who might care to read this:

We are still traveling and are very tired. We have been on the railroad for five days and nights and still have another day and night to travel before we reach Vancouver Barracks. We are not down-hearted either, but in the best of spirit. The boys are well and enjoying the grand country's scenery, as well as myself. No one can help enjoying the scenery. The great mountains of Wyoming, Colorado, Oregon and Idaho are so beautiful that it keeps us busy looking at the snow-capped peaks above us and the great valleys below with thousands of horses, cattle and sheep grazing on them.

We are all anxious to reach our destination and get busy for Uncle Sam. It won't be much longer to ride. I don't know how cold it is in Washington, but it has been cold in all the states that we have come through. There has been snow in every state we have been in so far, but Oregon, Kansas and Idaho had the most.

When I get there and know what my address will be, I will send for the Taney County Republican, and will write more, but I cannot write more now so you can read it, while the train is in motion.

Good bye,
ROBERT GIDEON.

The Testimony of Floyd Roberts,

Of Hilda, Mo., who died at Camp Green, Charlotte, North Carolina, February 2, 1918.

Y. M. C. A. Base Hospital, Charlotte, N. C., Feb. 4, '18.
Mrs. Mary Roberts, Hilda, Missouri.

Dear Madam:—Just before your son died he asked that this letter be written to you, and I am writing it hoping that the things I may say will be of great consolation to you in this sad hour.

He died last Saturday morning at eleven o'clock of emphysema and an operation that followed an unusually severe case of pneumonia. Everything that was possible was done for him and he lacked nothing in the way of the best medical attention. His last words were to tell you that he was not afraid to go as he was converted nine months ago and had tried to live a Christian life since that time, that he felt no fear about his future and prayed to the very last. While he was sick the doctor wanted him to take a little whiskey thinking it would do him good, but your son refused because he said he had promised his father once not ever to taste it. Such fidelity as this is unusual and is a relief to see. One of the army chaplains was with him before he died and comforted him a great deal. Such a death as his was a beautiful sight, and is such a relief to all of us to know that he was prepared to meet his maker. He died like a brave soldier with a smile on his lips and with a faith in God that could not be shaken even in death.

I trust that these facts will be of much comfort to you at this time. Assuring you of my profound sympathy in this bereavement, I am,
Sincerely,
JOHN E. FERGUSON,
Secretary, Y. M. C. A. Base Hospital.

FORSYTH SCHOOL NOTES

It has been decided by the Board of Education that we hold school but five days per week as usual. It was thought that while the six-day week, would benefit a few farmers who have pupils in school, it would inconvenience a greater number of other patrons and would place heavier work upon the pupils than they can stand.

A service flag containing six stars has been placed in the front of the Study Hall. The students represented are Frank Owen, Glendale Vanzandt, Paul Clements, Ashel Jackson, Robert Gideon, and Guy Everett.

Athletics is reasserting its appeal to track boys and basket ball team. A few games are in view.

Tuesday February 12, a program was given in the assembly hall in honor of Lincoln's birthday. It consisted of the following numbers:

Life of Lincoln Blunt Martin
"Oh, Captain" Jewell McPherson
Song, Illinois Frances McConkey
Gettysburg Address Roy Burns
Original Essay on Lincoln Taney
Hankins
Song, My Old Kentucky Home School
Song, Star Spangled Banner School

These numbers were well given and were well applauded by the students. The two original numbers were especially good. The program was in charge of Miss Greening.

Friday of next week a Washington program will be given. Visitors are always welcome.

Do not fail to note the real "Money Saving Proposition" made by that sterling newspaper, the St. Louis Globe Democrat, elsewhere in this issue. In spite of the enormously increased cost of production, the Daily Globe Democrat, except Sunday, is offered to rural free delivery and star route patrons (yearly subscriptions only) at the remarkably low rate of $3 per year—or in complete clubs of three or more, at the net club rate of only $2.50 for each yearly subscription. The Daily Globe Democrat, including Sunday, is offered for $5.50 per year, or in clubs of three or more at the net rate of $4.75 for each yearly subscription. This offer is also open to subscribers who receive their mail at postoffices where the Daily Globe Democrat is not handled by local newsdealers. The regular price of the Daily Globe Democrat, including Sunday, is now $7.50 per year; daily, without Sunday, $5 per year; Sunday only, $2.50 per year; weekly, issued twice a week, 20 cents a year. Again we urge you to read the "Money Saving Proposition" and send in your order at once. Address the Globe Printing Company, Publishers, St. Louis, Mo. 14
