An intestinal poison, formed by the eating of grapes and green walnuts, produced a high fever and convulsions. Her case was hopeless from the beginning.

She was an exceptionally bright and winsome child, a favorite of all who knew her. She was seven years old, being the fifth in a family of six—Wallace, Helen, Hazel, Hollis, Harriet and Harold. The father and mother are prostrated with grief. It did not seem possible that death could come to one so bright and sweet. This was her first illness. PECULIAR "ADORNMENT."

Widows in the Hawaiian Islands, up to very recent years, had the names of their dead husbands tattooed on their tongues. Egyptian women today have their lips pricked blue for becomingness. And in Yezo, the northernmost island of the Japanese archipelago, the fashion demands that girls shall greatly enlarge the apparent size of their mouths by a tattooing in red about the lips.

Matters Not to be Discussed.

Of this fact we may all rest assured: The quieter we keep about ourselves, our affairs, pleasant or otherwise, the better it will be for us. Time is at a premium these days, and if we hope to surmount our difficulties, no matter how trying they may be, we must wisely learn to keep each and every one of those problems in the background.

Fruit That Produces Oil.

A fruit containing a large percentage of oil has been discovered in the region of Torreon, Mex., and is known by the name of chichipoxote. Experiments show that 25 per cent of its contents consists of oil of great value in industrial pursuits requiring a lubricant of high quality. It is proposed to introduce the cultivation of this fruit upon a large scale.

Rests With Man to Accomplish.

The door of opportunity is never closed to the man who has the desire to realize his ambitions and the will to do so. And to the one who believes that the world is a fair field, there is no closed door. It but awaits the man who will lift the latch and walk through without questioning what awaits him.

Help and Hope.

Enlarge your vision and grasp of worldly affairs by silent communion with the immensity of the star-strewn universe—you will find the heartache of life's disappointments, the ephemeral glitter and tinsel that seem so essential to your happiness, are but passing phases of an existence to be dealt with serenely and intelligently, and that cannot be done wisely and well if one eternally grovels in the clay of earth without moments of silent withdrawal to the starry solitudes of thought.
