Marriage Licenses

The following marriage licenses have been issued by Recorder Joe Fields:
Bernard Bird and Mabel Bonebrake, both of Taneyville.

Roy Hodges of Nance and Tressa Dugger of Cedar Creek.

Bright sunshine again. It is surely welcome.

Mrs. Fred R. Moran spent Monday in town trading.

David Harned reports he is well pleased with his school and in fact likes it mighty well in Chattanooga, Tenn. It has been quite warm there.

Forsyth friends of A. K. Bishop, formerly of this place, now of Branson, will be pleased to learn that Mrs. P. presented him with a fine son, Oct. 26.

American Legion Memorial Building

All persons in Taney county are invited to help the American Legion erect a building which will be a suitable memorial to the boys who made the supreme sacrifice and also be a meeting place for all soldiers, sailors and marines. Don't be a slacker. Send your donations and pledges to LEROY SMITH, Finance Officer, Forsyth, Mo.

Mrs. Hattie McVey, was in to consult the physician Tuesday afternoon. She had been on a visit to St. Joseph and Kansas City, and returning on the boat from Branson Saturday evening contracted a severe cold.

J. W. Reese has sold his property here and bought into the bank at Ava, where he expects to move about the first of the year. The town and county will lose one of their best citizens.

Mrs. Alva Hull is keeping house at the Brock Hotel this week during her mother's absence.

The eighth grade had a class party last Wednesday evening, Oct. 29th, at the school house. The defeated half in the spelling contest entertained the winning half. There were ghosts, spooks and a gypsy present. Games were played and refreshments served. All reported a good time and returned home at a seasonable hour.

Miss Mabel Weatherman, now visiting in Kansas City, writes that Mrs. Sarah E. Cox, formerly of Dickens, entertained Hallowe'en. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burns, formerly of Forsyth, were among the guests. The evening was spent in games and music. Light refreshments were served. Miss Mabel was guest of honor.

Miss Laura Johnson had word of the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. A. J. Hicks of Blanchard, Okla. Two years ago Mrs. Hicks had a cancer removed and the family thought her fully recovered, but after the flu of last year the old trouble reappeared and has developed rapidly. Her old friends extend their sympathy and hope that she may be permanently aided.

Mrs. J. C. Johnson returned Tuesday afternoon from Branson, where she has been visiting her granddaughter, Mrs. Jack Brazeal. She visited Hollister and the field where they are drilling for oil and was assured that oil is close. The company is prepared to drill deep but think it will not be necessary.

Mrs. H. B. Brock and Mrs. Susie Hicks went to Lead Hill, Ark., to visit their sister, Mrs. Hill.

Forsyth was shocked Tuesday when the mail carrier from Kissee Mills brought the news that Mr. Arter Kissee had suddenly dropped dead just as the carrier was ready to leave. Arter was in Forsyth the latter part of last week apparently in as good health as usual. The Masons will take charge of the funeral services to be held at the Brown school house.

All Forsyth is rejoicing this week. There are no flags or bunting displayed but quietly the word is passing around: 'Jim Weatherman has sold his old sow! Now we can unlock our gate—now we can take that old saw off the bottom of our gate.' And then follow stories of the mighty deeds of destruction wrought by the old sow in her long, too long, stay in Forsyth.

The farewell party given Wednesday night by the High School Debating Club to Earl Hicks, who leaves in a few days for Ava, where he will enter school, was considered a fine success by all present. The weather was perfect and the company frolicked over the campus in various games of sport till time for the marshmellow roast. All then hastened to the old stone quarry where a bountiful feast of the luscious sweets was enjoyed. The affair was an entire surprise to Earl, but none the less enjoyed. All good wishes go with him.

Cold Storage. Refrigerator cars cooled by ammonia machines operated by internal combustion engines utilizing petroleum for fuel are being built for a German railroad.

The Morning After. Said the near cynic: "The exercise of the right of suffrage is proper if not indulged in to excess, but the thing that gets fellows into court after election is overexercise."

Pie Supper and Package Sale

The Ladies' Aid gave a profitable and enjoyable entertainment at the church Thursday night. The house was decorated very appropriately and beautifully with autumn foliage and symbols of the Hallowe'en.

The ghost and the witch were prominent figures of the evening.

A musical program was rendered consisting of Selection, Orchestra. Vocal solo, Sybil Parrish. Piano duet, Icy Reese, Ruth Harned. Vocal solo, Mrs. McConkey. Piano Solo, Irene Brown. Piano duet, Virginia Harned, Pauline Felkins. Selection, Orchestra.

The ghost then became auctioneer and sold pies to the audience, after which there was a lively skirmish for the packages that the witch sold.

There was much pleasurable excitement in the voting contest, in which a box of candy was awarded to the most popular little lady of Forsyth, Miss Marietta Root.

The proceeds from the pies and packages, about $46.00, were for repairing the church—from the voting contest, about $12.00, for purchasing a ball, etc., for the eighth grade girls' basket ball team.

CAN YOU READ YOUR TITLE CLEAR TO YOUR LANDS ?

A Wise Man has his Deeds and other Title Papers Recorded. He should know whether all Prior Deeds and Patents are Recorded. He should also know whether all Deeds of Trust, Mortgages and Liens on his Lands are satisfied. He should also know whether all Taxes on his Lands have been paid and whether his Lands or any part thereof have ever been Sold for Taxes and a cloud thereby placed on the same. To tell him this, by preparing and furnishing him Complete and Dependable Abstracts of Titles, and to Cure Defects in Title, is Our Business.
