

HEALTH FOR THE STATES!!!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF LOSS OF HEALTH, DISORDERED STOMACH, INDIGESTION AND DETERMINATION OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD.
Copy of a letter from Mr. John Lloyd, of Erie-wen, near Harlech, Merionethshire

To Professor HOLLOWAY:
Sir—I avail myself of the first opportunity of informing you, that for a very long period I was afflicted with a dangerous giddiness and frequent swimings in the head, attended by loss of appetite, disordered stomach, and generally impaired health. Every means had failed to give me any permanent relief, and at length I became so alarming that I was really afraid of going about without an attendant. In this melancholy condition I waited personally upon Mr. Hughes, Chemist, Harlech, for the purpose of consulting him as to what I had better do; he kindly recommended your Pills, I tried them without delay, and after taking them for a short time I am happy to bear testimony to their wonderful efficacy. I am now restored to perfect health, and enabled to resume my usual duties. You are at liberty to publish this letter in any way you may think proper. I am, Sir, your obedient Servant,
June 6th, 1852. (Signed) JOHN LLOYD.

MIRACULOUS CURE OF DROPSY.
Extract of a letter from Edward Rowley, Esq., of India Walk, Tobago, dated April 8th, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY:
DEAR SIR—I deem it a duty I owe to you and the public at large, to inform you of a most miraculous recovery from that dreadful disease, Dropsy, and which, under God, was effected by your invaluable Pills. I was tapped five times within eight months, and skillfully treated by two medical practitioners, but could not get cured, until I had recourse to your remedy, and notwithstanding all I had undergone, this miraculous medicine cured me in the course of six weeks.
(Signed) EDWARD ROWLEY.

INFALLIBLE CURE OF A STOMACH COMPLAINT, WITH INDIGESTION AND VIOLENT HEAD-ACHES.
Extract of a letter from Mr. S. Gowen, Chemist, of Clifton, near Bristol, dated July 14th, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY:
DEAR SIR—I am requested by a Lady named Thomas, just arrived from the West Indies, to acquaint you that for a period of eight years, herself and family suffered from continual bad health, arising from disorders of the liver and stomach, indigestion, loss of appetite, violent head-aches, pains in the side, weakness and general debility, for which she consulted the most eminent men in the colony, but without any beneficial result; at last she had recourse to your invaluable Pills, which in a very short time effected so great a change for the better, that she continued them, and the whole family were restored to health and strength. Further, she desires me to say, that she has witnessed their extraordinary virtues in those complaints incidental to children, particularly in cases of Measles and Scarlatina, having effected positive cures of these diseases with no other remedy.
(Signed) S. GOWEN.

McNeill's Spring Style of Hats.
Wholesale and Retail, 17 and 19, Market St. ST. LOUIS, MO.

Introducing my Style of Hats for the Spring of 1853 I would ask special attention to the combination it presents of the most important requisites of an article of dress, beauty and utility. It is light, yet strong of correct proportions, and at the same time fitly adapted for a summer hat. In the manufacture of Hats, my motto is "Excellence." The richest material and the most workmanship, united with the most untiring vigilance of supervision, cannot fail to produce a hat worthy of the motto.
I have a full assortment of the finest goods in my line, comprising all that is new, rich and fashionable in Hats, Caps, Hoses and Panama Goods, especially intended to meet the demands of the season, and to suit the taste of a community now rapidly advancing in wealth and refinement, and whose artificial wants that follow. At the same time I can sell the staple goods of the trade as low as any other in St. Louis.
I respectfully invite a personal inspection of my stock, which I will be glad to show to all who call.

titled "sparing to spend; or, the lofions and the pinkertons," in which the wisdom of true economy in all personal and domestic relations will be set forth and practically illustrated in the author's peculiar manner.
As heretofore, the original contributors to the "Home Gazette" will be among the best writers of our country

TERMS, IN ADVANCE.
One copy, per annum, - - - $ 2
Two copies, per annum, - - - 3
Three, - - - - - 4
Four, - - - - - 5
Eight, (and one to the getter-up of the club,) 10
Thirteen copies, per annua, " " " 15
Twenty, " " " " " 20

Thus it will be seen, that where a club of twenty unite and take the "Home Gazette," the price paid by each subscriber will only be $1 a year, while the getter-up of the club will receive a copy in addition for his trouble. Postmasters and others who wish to make up clubs of twenty of one dollar each, can, in order to facilitate the reception of the paper by those who first enter the club, send $10 for ten copies, and the remaining $10 when the club is full, at which time the extra copy for getting up the club will be forwarded.

Arthur's Home Magazine.
The cheapest and the best yet offered! Eighty pages per month of choice reading matter for $2 a year, or in clubs of four at only $1 25 per annum.
The "home magazine" was commenced October 1852: the editor is T. S. Arthur, in whose hands is the entire editorial charge of the work. A new noveltie from his pen was commenced in the first number, entitled "the old mans bride."

This story is continued through the first four numbers of the magazine, from October to January. With the February number another new story by Mr. Arthur, entitled "sparing to spend; or, the lofions and the pinkertons," will be commenced, to be continued during several months. Thus, in the first volume of the home magazine, two nouvelles by the editor will be published. As only a limited edition of the first numbers of the magazine was printed, those wishing "the old man's bride" must send in their subscriptions early.

In order to prevent misapprehension on the part of the public, we will here state that the home magazine is a monthly issue of the home gazette, and contains the best articles that appear therein, thus fixing in permanent shape and for circulation in new channels, literary matter from the pens of many of the ablest writers in the country. It is from this cause that the publishers are able, in the outset, to furnish the work at so low a rate.

TERMS OF ARTHUR'S HOME MAGAZINE.
To those who desire to receive the Home Magazine by mail, we offer it at the following extraordinary low club prices:—
One copy one year, - - - $2
Two copies one year, - - - 3
Three copies one year, - - - 4
Four copies one year, - - - 5
Eight copies one year, - - - 10
Twelve copies one year, - - - 15

Where a club of twelve subscribers send us fifteen dollars, a copy extra will be furnished to the agent or getter-up of the club, or to any address he may designate. At these terms, the "home magazine" will be, for the amount of choice reading matter furnished, the cheapest monthly publication in the United States.
For three dollars, a copy each of the "Home Gazette" and "Home Magazine" will be sent one year.

In making up clubs, it may frequently be desirable to unite in a single club both "home magazine" and "home gazette" subscribers. This can be done by always making the club price to the magazine subscriber one dollar twenty-five cents, no matter what the size of the club may be. The extra copy to the getter-up of the club, in all such cases, can be the gazette or magazine, at the option of the party who is to receive it.

Postage on Arthur's Home Magazine.—If paid quarterly or yearly in advance, 18 cents for the whole year.

Godey's Lady's Book!
The pioneer magazine. New volume, xlvii. Literary and pictorial; the book of the Nation and Arts Union of America!! Immense increase of reading matter without reducing the number of full page Steel engravings.

It is useless for the publisher of Godey's Lady's Book to make any great parade of what he intends to do. The work has been before the public for twenty-three years, and it is a well-known fact that the latter numbers of a year are always superior to the commencing ones, as he improves with the expense with which each month brings him, seizing every new feature of the day and imparting it to his subscribers through the successive numbers of the book.

Nothing but real worth in a publication could be the cause of so prolonged an existence, especially in the literary world, where everything is so evanescent. Hundreds of magazines have been started, and, after a short life, have departed—where the "Lady's Book" alone stands triumphant, a proud monument reared by the Ladies of America as a testimony of their own worth.

Many persons, who seek no further than our title, presume that the "Lady's Book" is intended merely for the amusement of a class, and that it does not enter into the discussion of those more important questions connected with the realities and the duties of life which every well-informed woman, mother and daughter, should be acquainted with. But such is not the fact. It is now, as it has ever been, our constant care to combine, in the pages of the "Lady's Book," whatever is useful, whatever is pure, dignified, and virtuous in sentiment, with whatever may afford rational and innocent amusement.

The expense of one number of the "Lady's Book," including steel engravings and literary matter, paid for, not taken from English magazines, far exceeds that of any other magazine published in this country. We make no exception, and are willing to have the fact tested.

Godey's splendid engravings on steel.—Remember that Godey gives more than four times as many steel engravings monthly as any other magazine. It is the fashion with many magazines to announce in their advertisements, "splendid engravings, fashion plates," &c. What is the disappointment of the duped subscriber when he receives the numbers of a magazine thus advertised, to find his fine engravings are but common wood-cuts—as poor in design as in execution!

The publisher of the "lady's book" performs all he promises, and, as some of our exchanges are kind enough to say, "more than he promises." Each number of the "lady's book" contains at least three engravings from steel plates, engraved by the best artists, either in line, stipple, or mezzotint, and sometimes four.

Godey's reliable fashion plates are published monthly, and are considered the only really valuable fashion plates that are published. They have been the standard for over twenty-two years. In addition to the above, every month selections from the following are given, with simple directions that all may understand:—

Undoubted receipts, model cottages model cottage furniture, patterns for window curtains, music, crochet work, knitting, netting, patchwork, crochet flower work, hair braiding, ribbon work, chenille work, lace collar work, children's and infant's clothes, capes, caps, chemisettes—in fine, everything that can interest a lady will find its appropriate place in her own book.

TERMS CASH IN ADVANCE—POSTAGE PAID.
One copy one year, $3; two copies one year, $5; five copies one year, $10, and an extra copy to the person sending the club; ten copies one year, $16; thirteen copies one year, $20.
