The monthly literary meeting of the Kadimah Circle was held Sunday February 29, at the Hebrew Institute. After the business session Miss Estelle Rosenthal accompanied by Miss Eva Gilbert, gave a few vocal selections. The following members were present: Miss Ida and Bess Antweil, Sadie and Frances Towb, Blanche Herman, Ruth Wolfson, Estelle Rosenthal, Eva Gilbert, Sophie Friedman, Ida Goldberg, and Anne Coplin. The next meeting will be at the home of Miss Friedman.

The George Washington Birthday Dance given by the Kadimah Circle on Sunday at the Hebrew Institute was a big success both socially and financially. About 100 couples were present. The money will be given to the New Palestine fund drive which will be launched here soon. Many thanks are due Messrs. Chriss and Archie Salsberg for the success of the evening.

Mr. R. Fuller left for the Eastern markets to make his purchases.

The S. O. F. Club.

One of the most elaborate affairs of the season was the novelty "Black and White Dance" given by the S. O. F. Club on February 24th at the Hebrew Institute. The occasion of the celebration was the first Anniversary of the Club, which was organized last year by Mrs. Louis Morris.

The affair was strictly Leap Year, the girls calling for their escorts and filling their programs. The hall was a haven of black and white streamers, bows and balloons. The girls novelty costumes carried out the black and white motif, while the boys wore black suits, white vests and black ties.

The Grand March, led by the Club's President, Miss Estelle Shanblum, and her escort, Eph Rosen, culminated into a circle with Miss Evelyn Goldstein and her escort, Irving Jackson, in the center.

The first novelty dance was the "Evelyn Dance." Between encores Miss Estelle Shanblum made a few remarks, naming Miss Goldstein honoree and presenting her with a lovely corsage of sweet peas in the name of the club.

Confetti and serpentine caused much excitement during the evening. Favors were presented each guest. They consisted of hand-painted chammoes, bearing the inscription, S. O. F. for the girls and noisy rattlers for the boys.

During the dancing "Black and White" punch and candies were served and a "black and white" ice course ended the evening.

When the strain of "Home, Sweet

Home" ended, all voted this the most charming affair of the New Year. Much credit for the success of the affair is due Leona Cohen and Estelle Shanblum, who had charge of all novelty arrangements, Miss Anna Lesser who had charge of the refreshments and Mrs. Louis Morris, the club's directress. The following guests formed the grand march:

Estelle Shanblum and Eph Rosen, Leona Cohen and Milton Fox, Regina Kahn and Joe Solomon, Lillian Simon and Mr. Fichtenbaum of Dallas, Anna Hurwitz and Leon Gilbert, Evelyn Goldstein and Irving Jackelson, Ida Wolffson and Abe Goldstein, Bernice Dan and Dr. Antweil, Jeannette Ginsburg and Julius Solomon, Jennie Coplin and Ben Shanblum, Marie Cohen and Abe Brachman, Ida Greines and Mr. Otto, Anna Lesser and Jack Breacher, Belle Goldberg and Sidney Weltman, Rose Halpern of Chicago and Bernard Freefield, Maxine Hirsch and Sol Brachman, Millie and Abe Rosenstein, Minnie Victor and Alex Marshall, May Goldstein and Sol Klar, Blanche ----- and Mr. Steinburg, Gladys Veit and Louis Laves, Gertrude Goldstein and Geo.
