"EVERYWOMAN," MADE INTO GREAT MOTION PICTURE, IS COMING.

Big Allegorical Play Has Been Filmed on an Elaborate Scale.

The famous morality play, "Everywoman," has been made into a motion picture and will be shown at the Palace Theater for the entire week next week. The story is declared to have been filmed on an extremely lavish scale and to abound in beautiful settings, lovely women attired in handsome gowns, and spectacular effects. Against this extravagant background Walter Browne's celebrated allegory of life and its temptations is acted by an extraordinary cast of players. The role of Everywoman is played by Violet Heming, a beautiful actress well known on the stage and the screen. Monte Blue has the part of Love, Wanda Hawley is Beauty, and Theodore Roberts is Wealth. Others in the company include Margaret Loomis, Mildred Reardon, Bebe Daniels, Irving Cummings, Raymond Hatton, Noah Beery, Charles Ogle, and Tully Marshall. The picture was directed by George H. Melford and is released as a Paramount-Artcraft

The fur trade of New York City has guaranteed $100,000, and expects to raise a quarter of a million for the Palestine Restoration Fund. Here also are some of the larger contributions already on hand.

At a luncheon by representatives of the fur trade of New York City to Judge Julian W. Mack and Dr. Stephen S. Wise, President and Vice-President of the Zionist Organization of America, $17,050 was contributed and a committee under the leadership of George Fox appointed to canvass that industry for further contributions to the Palestine Restoration Fund. The committee has pledged a minimum of $100,000, though it is planning to raise a quarter of a million.

By Bertha Kalich.

The guests have departed and we remained to ourselves alone—she and I.

I watched and I waited—I did not ask her to play—I did not dare.

All at once, stretching out her hands to me, she said, "You have not asked me to play!" With a trembling heart, yearning to hear her, I answered simply, "I am waiting."

Slowly she walked to the instru-
