A Note of Thanks.

To the mothers of the children, to the children, to Mrs. James Weltman, to Isie Baum, to the Fair Store, to the Colton store, to Gordon Boswell, Florist, and to Mrs. Louis Block, I wish to express my many thanks for their splendid co-operation in helping to make the play, "The Fairie's Child" the artistic success it proved to be.

MRS. LOUIS MORRIS.

The Fairy's Child.

The most artistic children's performance ever presented to a Fort Worth audience was given Monday night at Beth-El Community Centre when the "Fairy's Child", a one-act play, directed by Mrs. Louis Morris was given for the benefit of the Temple Building Fund. Nineteen beautiful children in vari-colored fairy's costumes participated and danced and sang themselves into the hearts of the audience. The stage represented a real fairyland wood scene and as the children performed their songs and dances one seemed to feel that they were transplanted to a real land of make-believe. So many requests for a repetition of the play have been made, that Mrs. Morris has decided to repeat it in about two or three weeks. Following is a list of those who participated, each one performing his or her part in excellent fashion:

- The Fairy Queen.—Caroline Brauer
- Honey, the fairy princess, Ruth Simon
- Moskin, the queen's page.....
-Tobia Miller
- Buttercup.....Lorraine Mehl
- Silverleaf.....Ruth Brown
- Roseberry.....Charlotte Max
- Ferncap.....Marie Friedman
- Trudie, the woodcutter's daughter.....Julia Shanblum
- Thistleskin, the fairy's child.....
-Max Morris
- Little Fairy's: ana Mehl, Elaine Fog
- Joe Ray Swartzberg, Consuelo Toomim, Maurine Block, Cecile Friedman, Helen Ann Carb, Dolly Klar, Regina Colton, Jacqueline Gernsbacher. Violin.....Issie Baum Piano.....Evelyn Fisher Weltman

The members of Temple Beth-El are indeed grateful to the florist, Gordon Boswell for his splendid work and co-operation in making the little play, "The Fairy's Child" such a success. Not alone did he charge a sum too small to mention for the decorations, but gave of his time and labor in decorating so artistically. It is to be hoped that we shall not forget this splendid act of kindness and generosity.

Senator Watson for the Jews.

W. A. Potts, of Arlington, Texas, read in the Columbian Sentinel, published by Hon. Tom Watson, of Thompson, Ga., a reply to Henry Ford on the Jewish question. His reply is very favorable to the Jewish position. It declares that they are the greatest patriots in American history. They adapt themselves to the civilization in which they live, and have always been loyal citizens.

Watson was recently elected to the United States Senate and will sit in the Senate at Washington after March 4th. Mr. Watson was once again; the Jews but in his editorial he took sides with them.

Isidor Raynor, a Jew, of the United States Senate from Maryland, is a first cousin by marriage, to M.. Potts.

In honor of Miss Ruth Gilbert, whose birthday was January fourteenth, Miss Sophia Daley entertained with a picture show party Friday afternoon. The guests were Misses Ruth Gilbert, Etta Katzenstein of Marianna, Ark., Ruth Lubin of New York, Ella Borschow of El Paso, Eileen Brodkey of Omaha, Neb., Leona Cohen, Evelyn Goldstein, Ida Rubenstein, Ida and Ruth Wolffson, Lenora Wolf, Anna Hurwitz, Rose Ritchey, Mrs. Dave Colton, Mrs. Charles Swartzburg and Mrs. Rubenstein. After the show a birthday cake was cut at the home of Miss Gilbert.

Miss Anne Weingarten of Houston who has been the guest of Miss Estelle Shanblum for three weeks, left for Wichita Falls to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lyons.

Honoring her house guest, Miss Anne Weingarten of Houston, and the other out of town guests visiting Fort Worth for the holiday season, Miss Estelle Shanblum entertained on Sunday, January 2nd. The entertainment was in the form of a barn dance, which was one of the most novel affairs of the season. Bales of hay were placed around the walls of the ball room in place of chairs and clever village notices were on the walls, instructing the guests as to their behavior for the evening and directing them to the various places of amusement about the hall. Everyone was arrayed in barnyard costumes as befitted the affair and one would have thought, as he viewed the guests during ing the grand march, that they were back in some little village. The spirit of the affair seemed to spread throughout the hall. The biggest surprise of the evening was when the guests formed in line and good old "weiney" sandwiches and cider were served to all. Midnight arrived only too soon and everyone left, declaring the evening to have sped by all too soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Marks and son, Evan Lee, of Toledo, Ohio, are the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard A. Steinberg.
