SOKOLOV EXPLAINS OBJECT OF HIS FIRST VISIT TO PRESIDENT MILLERAND

London: (Jewish News Service).— In an interview concerning the object of his visit to President Millerand of France, Nahum Sokoloff, the Zionist leader declared, that it was not prompted by any change of policy, but was simply due to the fact that Zionist leaders must always remain in contact with the great powers especially when new Cabinets are formed. "Zionist leaders," said Mr. Sokoloff, "performs the functions of ambassadors."

RUSSIAN JEWS OPPOSED TO BOLSHEVISM

Paris: (Jewish News Service).— Under the chairmanship of Advocate Schlossberg, a meeting of the Jewish People's Party consisting exclusively of Russian refugees, held here, declared that it would fight Bolshevism with all its power and it was also opposed to any movement seeking the establishment of a Jewish political organization including the whole world. The aims and principal demands of the association will be to seek for Jews equal rights and a cultural autonomy.

JEWS CHARGED WITH CAUSING EMBARRASSMENT TO ENGLAND

London: (Jewish News Service).— An editorial in "Morning Post" accuses the joint foreign committee of the Anglo-Jewish Association with having caused embarrassment to England and the Allies during the progress of the late war by their insistent demands for equality for the Jews of Roumania and Russia and privileges for Palestine.

Bucharest: (Jewish News Service).— The High Command of the Army ordered the immediate dismissal from services of all Jews holding commissions in the Roumanian Army, on the plea that they are Bolsheviki.

RABBIS ATTACK CHESTERTON

New York: (Jewish News Service). In their sermons yesterday, two reform rabbis, Nathan Krass and Dr. Samuel Schulman, attacked G. K. Chesterton an inverted Balaan. Both accused Chesterton of unfairness to Jews in his book "The New Jerusalem."

POLAND PROMISES SOLUTION OF JEWISH QUESTION

Warsaw: (Jewish News Service).— Premier Wites gave the following written statement for publication in today's "Haint": "The entire Polish Cabinet fully realizes the importance of the Jewish problem in Poland. Several members of the Cabinet were instructed last week to work on the problem. No details were to be presented, but the questions were to be settled as they come up in practical application. Jews have no cause to complain, there can be no doubt of political rights for the Jews, but, in return, the Polish government expected loyalty on their part.'

"Haint" learns independently of the designation of a separate committee of the Cabinet, comprising the minister of internal affairs, foreign affairs and finances to work out the entire program of Jewish-Polish relationship.
