THE HOUSE BY THE SIDE OF THE ROAD.

Sam Walter Foss.

There are hermit souls that live withdrawn,
In the place of their self content;
There are souls, like stars, that dwell apart,
In a fellowless firmament;
There are pioneer souls that blaze their paths
Where the highways never ran—
But let me live by the side of the road
And be a friend to man.

Let me live in a house by the side of the road
Where the race of men go by,—
The men who are good and the men who are bad,
As good and as bad as I.
I would not sit in the scorner's seat,
Or hurl the cynic's ban
Let me live in a house by the side of the road
And be a friend to man.

I see from my house by the side of the road
By the side of the highway of life,
The men who press with the ardor of hope,
The men who are faint with the strife.
But I turn not away from their smiles nor their tears
Both parts of an infinite plan—
Let me live in my house by the side of the road
And be a friend to man.

Let me live in a house by the side of the road
Where the race of men go by—
They are good, they are bad, they are weak, they are strong
Wise, foolish—so am I
Then why should I sit in the scorner's seat
Or hurl the cynic's ban?
Let me live in a house by the side of the road
And be a friend to man.
