Another heavy rain last evening.

Inter-state fair at Fargo, July 29 to August 3rd.

The rain last night was accompanied by a heavy wind and a number of shacks blew over.

The Darton residence, on the north side was sold yesterday morning to Mr. Elliott, of Minnesota.

Mrs. A. O. Roof, came here from Norwalk, Wis., first of the week to be at home with her husband on the claim north of town about eleven miles.

Caleb Heath and Leo Baker fitted up the old bank building and opened a confectionary store in it yesterday. The new firm name will be Heath & Baker. They will carry a full line of fancy candy, fruit and soft drinks.

A dance and supper will be given at the hall Tuesday night, June 18, under the auspices of the ladies aid society of the Catholic church. Emerson's orchestra has been secured to furnish music. Note the posters containing further particulars.

Mrs. Chas. Harkins, came here Saturday to reside with her husband, who for a few weeks past has been employed as bookkeeper at the office of the Dacotah Lumber Co. For the present they will be at home in the Darton residence on the north side. Later, they will occupy rooms in the Woodworth residence, now underway of construction, east side of town.

The daily Janesville, Wisconsin, Gazette of May 30th came to our desk last week. Glancing through it we noted a lengthy written account of a celebration tendered Miles M. Tullar in honor of his ninety-first anniversary of his birthday, by the Evansville Old Settlers Club. Submitted therewith was presented a half-tone likeness of the aged gentleman. He is a father of F. M. Tullar, of Beach, and we take pleasure in quoting the synopsis of the writing: "On Tuesday, May 28, Mrs. I. A. Taggart entertained the Old Settlers Club and a number of relatives and friends at her home on main street in honor of the ninety-first birthday anniversary of her father, Mr. Miles M. Tullar. At one o'clock an elaborate dinner was served; covers being laid for thirty. The afternoon hours were pleasantly spent in visiting. Mr. Tullar is one of the pioneer settlers and has lived near or in Evansville for about sixty-five years. He is enjoying excellent health and until recently it has been his custom to walk to his farm, a distance of two and one-half miles, and is daily seen upon our streets. The event was greatly enjoyed by all present and the memory of it will always be a pleasure to those in attendance."

Shear's & Sawbuck's Way.

Shears and Sawbuck kept a store such as never was before. City folks they wouldn't sell. Wouldn't let 'em have a smell. Fetched their money—but by jing couldn't lay a blessed thing. Couldn't meet 'em face to face. An' then sell 'em with good grace.

Country trade was what they sought. Folks who'd pay for what they bought. For they saw it hide or tail. They sent catalogues by mail. Out to every blessed one. Gettin' mail at Possum Run. We set up at night and read. When we'd order been to bed.

Book was 'bout as big as sin— Had a lot of pictures in. Had a lot of merchandise. Every kind and every size— Givin' prices that they swore. Looked so straight and seemed so true. I bit at it—Jim did too.

Jim's my neighbor 'cross the way— Best man ever worked in the way. Just let him top off a stack— Sheds rain like a turtle's back. Pleasure just to see him work. Never knew old Jim to shirk; Swing a scythe like it was play. Love to watch him in the hay.

Well, we like a pair of fools. Sent off 'get some hayin' tools. Jim got harness and a plow. I a range—I see it now. That the thing, it was so light. Used it for a torch one night. Threw the dam thing in the yard— Use it now for rendering lard.

For Jim used the plow an hour. Found the blame thing wouldn't occur. Tried his harness—broke a tug— Sought for solace in his jug— In the cooler all that night.

Legal.

In the morning, Richard Stout, Hardware merchant bailed him out. Jim said after that he'd stick close as bark to good old Dick. Since he left the Possum jail. Says he won't buy goods by mail. Says Dick's cheaper, anyhow— Might have saved some on the plow. On his other goods some more. At his of friend's hardware store.

Jim says, "We can't sell no truck To rich folks as Sears-Sawbuck. They'll take all our cash away. Fat won't buy our cash or hay. That seemed purty strange to me. So I told of Jim I'd see. So I wrote to them that night. Just to see if Jim was right."

As 'em "what they'd pay for oats? Could they use some likely sheats? Had some four tons of hay. I could ship them right away. Could I furnish Mr. Shears With his family roasting ears? Also would my friend Sawbuck Buy some of my garden truck?

Answer came one summer day. Said they "couldn't use our hay. Couldn't use our oats or sheats. Didn't like our lilly goats. When they needed truck to eat. Bought it down on water street— Sorry, but they must refuse. Anything but cash to use."

I sat down and wrote 'em then: "Hate to trouble you again. But I want to thank you sirs. For your bunch of cockle burrs. If you love your feller man. Do him good sirs when you can. While our merchants sweetly sleep. Shears & Sawbuck shear your sheep." —The Glenwood Herald.

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth; the editor, the subscriber and the liberal advertiser—which was good. The next day it snowed and he created the man who does not believe in advertising and another who does not take the home paper, and then he rested. About that time the devil got into the moulding room and created the man who takes the paper for several years and fails to pay for it. After he has completed this job, having a few lumps left, he created the excuse of a man who settles his subscription by instructing the postmaster to mark his paper "refused"—Throne Record.

CASH RESERVE

Every business man, even the United States government itself, carries a CASH RESERVE.

Each individual needs one just as much. You may say, "It takes all my income to live" but this is a fallacy. People with twice your income say the same and others with much less than your income do save.

YOU can do the same if you simply DETERMINE that you will do it. Try it.

We invite you to grow with a growing bank.
