$1.50 PER YEAR

- Bits of Local News. -

Sheriff Will of Medora was an official caller in Beach Tuesday.

Remember the Lutheran ladies annual bazaar and supper at the Opera House the 20th of Nov.

A lumber office is being erected at Rier Thompsons yards.

Rier Thompson's lumber yards will be known hereafter as the Golden Valley yards. Note their ad in this issue.

J. C. Gile and son, Milton, and Jack O'Farrel went to the mouth of Beaver creek Saturday to spend a week hunting deer.

The ladies aid of Bocky Rutte Congregational church will meet with Mrs. A. C. Haisman Nov. 24th.

The Ladies Aid are busy preparing for their handkerchief and doll sale and big supper, to be held at opera house the Friday evening before Christmas. A monogram quilt with 400 names of Beach people will be auctioned off.

The Social club have placed an order with the Chronicle for bills announcing a grand Thanksgiving Ball and turkey and oyster supper. They have secured the Beach orchestra and are making preparations to give those who are lovers of dancing a very delightful time. The club expects a large crowd.

J. W. Fox, the mason contractor who has been located in Beach for the past two years, has sold his house and lot to C. E. Barber and completed arrangements to move with his family to Oregon. They departed yesterday for a visit in Winnipeg, Manitoba.

Among the number who attended the dance at Butte Hotel last Thursday evening were Messrs. and Mesdames John Keohane and Henry Sanders, Messrs. Dr. Museus, W. W. Larson, C. G. Moulton, F. C. Davis and W. A. Young. A very pleasant time is reported.

North Dakota farmers have been able to advance their work this fall in a most satisfactory manner. With the labor shortage, the conditions were not promising early in the season, but the ideal weather has enabled the farmers to get more than the usual amount of work cleaned up—and they are still at it.—Forum.

N. B. Stith is in Naupa, Idaho and sends us a copy of the Leader Herald published in that city, and in the same we note with interest the following: "N. B. Stith of Beach, North Dakota, one of the characters in Ogal Alla's novel, 'Blue Eye,' is stopping at the Share House. 'Tobe' and Fred had not met since '88 leaving the Arickaree country about the same time and the meeting here yesterday morning was a happy one. They have been relating reminiscences of early days in Colorado and none can tell just when the visit will end. Nobe is on his way to Cow Lakes, to look up a location for a small colony and may return here. In the meantime he is reading 'Blue Eye' to see how he figures in the story and if he doesn't like the things Fred makes him say in the novel, the author will probably take to the hills. It is evident, however, that the love these men bore for each other in days ago has not lessened."

Miss Gile has a position in the Beach Photo Studio.

H. A. Hunter of Minneapolis, and town site owner of Beach, was here on business yesterday.

H. Jackson is visiting his brother in Fessenden and will remain there until after Thanksgiving.

Joe Morris returned home Saturday from Fargo, where he spent four weeks attending the Murry institute.

Ed Tucker, residing two miles north of town is suffering a siege of inflammatory rheumatism. Dr. Museus was called this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Waldo, residing eight miles northwest of Beach, are the happy parents of baby girl born Tuesday, Nov. 12, '07.

Mr. Laughman has purchased the Beach Mercantile Co's stock of goods and half of the building. Possession will be given soon, as inventory is taken. Mr. Laughman will carry a stock of gents' and ladies' furnishings and groceries. He is a hustler and a man of good business abilities, and we speak for him a good trade.

Rainey & Martin, dealers in pumps, windmills and pump supplies, wish to announce that, by mutual agreement, they have dissolved partnership and the former named, L. S. Rainey, succeeds Mr. Martin in his interests and will continue the business and settle all accounts. He solicits a continuance of trade.

The Ladies Aid of the U. L. church will hold their annual bazaar and oyster supper Nov. 20. The oyster supper will be served at the hotel from 5:30 until 7:30 and the sale will take place at the hall immediately after supper. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The money stringency seems to have been relieved and the eastern banks are again doing business. More than $60,000,000 in gold has been engaged abroad for import to the United States since the present movement began. The markets are opened and flax is $1 per bushel today.

Elmer and Hosey Cate returned to Beach Sunday from Midale, Saskatchewan, Canada, where they have farms and formerly resided, which are now rented. They drove across country bringing household goods and horses, making the trip in six days. The former named will live in town this winter, while the latter is nicely situated on a Golden Valley farm.

A. W. Harper, of La Grande, Oregon arrived in Beach Sunday and visited at the bank until today when he left for Hurley, S. D. While here he had fire guards broken around the Chappell ranch which he is in company with F. E. Near and others recently bought. Mr. Harper informed us that we knew nothing of a financial panic here. He had money in two banks in his town and was able to get only $50 to come here. He has disposed of his creamery interests there but expects to continue to make it his home, as his father and mother are there. Beach people would be pleased to see him and his family return here.

WIBAUX HAPPENINGS.

Enough Harpster was in our midst buying cattle this week. He purchased a bunch belonging to Mr. Accart.

M. J. Gupion returned from Chicago where he has been marketing his cattle. He reports a very weak market.

Our banks are still doing business and have little difficulty in handling everything.

Miss Lucille Knutz left last Sunday night for her home in Minnesota where she will spend the winter.

Mr. Robert Perry was in from Preston Tuesday and transacted business here.

Henry Albion and D. J. McIntyre left Tuesday to lay out a road to Sidney. It will take them about eight days to make the trip.

Elmer Accart will leave in a short time for Antwerp, Belgium. He will travel thru France before returning to the United States.

There will be a home talent play here ere long. "A Noble Outcast" is a neat little play in four acts and will contain both comedy and tragedy. A list of the characters will appear in a short time with full particulars.

The people of our town had a meeting last Friday night and organized a literary society which will be of much benefit to all. We will have a meeting next Friday night, Nov. 22, and want a large attendance if possible. The following officers were chosen: R. B. Chappell, Pres.; Alex. Jeffers, V. Pres. and Miss Scott, Secretary.

(From the Pioneer.) Miss Doyle, of Beach, was here on Friday to attend the dance and visited the next day with her sister, Miss Gertrude.

Mrs. R. H. VanHorn returned the first of the week from Faribault, Minn., where she has been visiting her parents.

Messrs. Thos. Brophy, J. W. McNiece and August Phelan; and Misses Mary Brophy and Nettie L. Robinson were among those who made final proof before U. S. Commissioner Jordan in support of their claims, Monday.

Among those from Beach who attended the dance here Friday, were: Messrs. C. H. Moulton, J. W. Brinton, Frank Borth, C. Smith, Simon Uhlenkott and M. Kendall; and Misses Mayme Uhlenkott, Ella Holven, and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Harkins.

S. B. Chappell departed on Tuesday evening for Los Angeles, Cal., where he will spend the winter with his wife and family who left for that place a short time ago. Mr. Chappell informed us that they would return to Wibaux in the spring.

The most spectacular and unusual case of the week was that of the state against Charles Gore, charging first degree assault, growing out of trouble at Wibaux on the Fourth of July, as a result of which Gore shot and seriously wounded Charles Nelson. At one stage of the case, when it was thought Nelson could not recover, Gore was charged with murder. In view of these circumstances, from which some inferences are obvious, the county attorney moved to instruct the jury to bring a verdict of acquittal, which was done. Judge Cheadle then suggested to the county attorney that it might be possible to charge Nelson with perjury.

We asked Cashier Brubaker an opinion on the financial flurry. He said: "It's a case of nerves-not nerve. If the people do not get excited and lose their heads the whole thing will be buried in about a week. The banks were never in better condition—and western banks especially. I do not believe it will amount to any thing."—Terry Tribune.

Will Rymel returned to Beach Saturday.

J. W. Brinton went over to Fessenden Tuesday to be at home until after Thanksgiving.

Hubert Maus of Burkey took the train here today for his parents home in Kimball, Minn. He expects to return here in the spring with a car of immigrant movables.

THE WEEK AT SENTINEL BUTTE.

Lewis F. Crawford took a long ride north inspecting cattle last week.

Messrs. Stoddard and Martin returned from Chicago Sunday after a month's sojourn.

Mabel and Mand Ollbert visited in Dickinson over Sunday.

Charley House is doing some repairing and addition work on his house.

Calvin Dempsey was absent from school Tuesday, being sick.

A basement is being dug under the Interstate Bank building and a furnace will be supplied.

John Cusick was unfortunate in having his ankle sprained and is confined to the couch.

Several of the neighbors gathered at the home of C. V. Knox on Tuesday night to give a surprise party in behalf of Reverend Douglas who expects to leave the claim soon to reside in Wibaux.

The favorite frigid recreation, skating, is with us; the ice on the town lake is unusually fine and these moonlight nights are being taken advantage of.

Frank Dingman returned from Montana Sunday and will visit a few days in town. Frank sold the relinquishment of his claim south of town for $1000.00.

The claim setting agent of the N. P. is to be in Sentinel Butte this Wednesday to adjust claims for cattle killed on the railway. The engineers have been unusually negligent and careless about stock this year.

Sunday school meets each Sunday at 10:30 and this Sabbath church services at 11:30. All are cordially invited to these meetings.

Brevities of News From Alpha.

Henry Tims and J. Vetufa reached home Saturday with a bunch of cattle which they had near Dickinson.

Section 33 east of Alpha was sold to a man in Minn. at $16.00 an acre. The purchaser expects to move on it in the spring.

Clark Ash and his three sisters were called home to Butler, S. D. by the serious illness of their brother.

J. Irons and son have returned from Iowa. He has sold his property there and will make N. D. his home henceforth.

The families of Wm. and Chalk Tim, Mrs. B. G. Odiorne, daughter Hazel and son Ben, of Alpha, arrived home Sunday evening from up Beaver where they attended a dance Friday night, given in Wm. Smith's new house by Messrs. Smith and Ansley. They report one of the most enjoyable times of their lives. Over one hundred people were in attendance, the music was good and the supper a veritable feast.

Russ & Sanders.

Considering a Change. Lucy caused her mistress a lot of worry by receiving the attentions of a dashing head waiter at a seaside resort hotel. "Really, you ought to speak to Lucy about it," so the friends of the girl's mistress told her; "it would be too bad to see Lucy in love with a married man." Speak to her she did, but to her surprise, saw Lucy parading the board walk the next evening in the same old company, and on the following day Lucy was taken severely to task. "Lucy," said the mistress severely, "I thought I told you that the man is married already." "Yes," replied Lucy demurely, "Ah knows that. But he's dissatisfied."

A Reliable Remedy for Croup.

With the dry, cold weather of the early winter months, parents of croupy children should be on the alert for ominous symptoms. There is no cause for anxiety, however, when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is kept in the home. If this medicine is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the croupy cough has appeared, the attack may be warded off. Mrs. S. Koshinal, of Turner, Michigan, says: "We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for ourselves and children for several years and like it very much. I think it is the only remedy for croup and can highly recommend it." For sale by all dealers.

Doctors' Hard Time.

It is somewhat difficult for an American physician to open a practice in Peru. Before the doctor can be admitted he must take an examination in Spanish before a board in the usual medical and surgical. The fee for this examination is $500 in gold, being the same fee as that paid by a medical student during his seven years' course of instruction in the national colleges. The license when obtained is good for practice in Ecuador, Bolivia and Spain.

A Good Liniment.

When you need a good reliable liniment try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It has no superior for sprains and swellings. A piece of flannel slightly dampened with Pain Balm is superior to a plaster for lame back or pains in the side or chest. It also relieves rheumatic pains and makes sleep and rest possible. For sale by all dealers.

Why He Did Not Marry.

As a reason for not marrying Brahms once wrote to a friend: "At the time when I should have wished to marry, my compositions were either listed at, or at any rate very coolly received. I knew their worth though, and that sooner or later the public would be turned; and in unmarriageable solitude I never really took any reverses to heart."

"But to be questioned by a wife at such moments to have her inquiring eyes anxiously fixed upon me, to hear her ask: 'Again a fiasco?'"

"No, that I could never have borne. For, however much she loved me and believed in me, I could not have expected her to have unwavering faith in my subsequent victory. And had she attempted to console me! Ugh! I can't even think of it. It would have been little less than hell!"

No Growing Pains.

An eminent specialist claims that there is no such thing as "growing pains." We have been taught that when a child has stinging pains in the limbs, shoulders, or other parts of the body, it is an indication that the body is growing, and therefore most parents welcome the news of such suffering in children.

The physician referred to above claims that growing pains are muscular rheumatism and should have immediate attention. Something is wrong, and steps should be taken at once to learn why the child's blood is in imperfect condition.
