From reports that come from Canada it appears that there is a small army of English recruiting officers in that country touring the Dominion, stopping at each city and town and making overtures to the citizens to join the colors for home defense. The citizens in the western provinces, however, do not consider the entreaties as seriously as they might, for they feel this is a deceit employed to stimulate recruiting. The Canadian feels that once he is among the "recruits" he will be forced to take his place among the others in the war zone.

The mile relay race was won by Ted Hoverson, Alvin Hoverson, Albert Blackburn and Rufus Arnold. The feature of this race were the quarter mile sprints by Ted Hoverson and John McCarthy. McCarthy's efforts enabled his team to finish a good second.

The celebration reflects great credit upon the promoters. It gives evidence of what may be accomplished in the way of entertainment in this city if the work is handled by the people best suited to the promotion of such affairs. It is, moreover, evidence of the liberality of our citizens and business men in their readiness to assist in exploiting the progressiveness of our city and community.

Hardly any other business man and proponent of the celebration was more pleased in the manner in which the Independence Day celebration was carried out than P. S. Washer, one of the members of the finance committee.

Regarding the festivities he expressed himself as follows:

"That Beach has proven herself able and capable of entertaining so many people and carrying out a program of so many events, each and every one on time, such as we had on July fifth, is very gratifying, and I am proud of the fact that the business men of Beach have shown what can be done by pulling together. I have never witnessed a celebration that was so clean and went off without a single accident. There is nothing greater than loyalty to your town or country, regardless of your political affiliation."

J. P. Reeve, another business man who was among the prime movers in making the celebration a success, expressed himself as follows:

"No one had a grouch, which was best evidence of real pleasure. The fact that several people came from distances greater than fifty miles was evidence that the celebration was not only well exploited but that they had confidence enough in the ability of the people of Beach to show their guests a good time. From the reports that came to us in the evening of the fifth every one who left the city expressed themselves as very well pleased with the reception tendered them."

inson, occurred, which, during twelve innings of play resulted in a tie, 0 to 0.

Ball Game of Great Interest.
Dickinson was the first to score; Pippin walked; was sacrificed to second by Armentrout and scored on Robinson's single to left. The game went two more innings before the Beach aggregation started their fusillade which resulted in the removal of Pippin from the rubber and the substitution of Armentrout, who had been in the right garden. "Army" the day previous had pitched a full game and had not the command that he usually has. The first ball he pitched was hit for a single by Jess Haugen and which scored another run. The locals in a later inning garnered another pair of runs before the game ended. The hitting of Smith, Paulson and Haugen featured the game, together with the base running of Canty. The Dickinson bunch are good fielders but were unable to solve the delivery of Soles who aside from being a clever pitcher helped the locals in the run getting by a long hit to center with Smith on base.

Following is a tabulated score of the game as played:

Beach.		R H A E
Tobias c	0	1 2 0
Canty m	1	3 0 0
Smith lb	1	3 1 1
Jefferson rf	1	1 0 0
Vincent 2b	2	1 3 0
Soles p	0	1 2 0
Hoverson 3b	1	0 2 0
Haugen rf	0	1 0 0

Wosein	0	0 1 1
Bishop	0	0 0 0
Pippin	0	0 2 0

Bases on balls off Pippin, 2; off Soles, 1. Two base hits, Smith. Hit by pitched ball, Vincent. Stolen bases, Canty, Umpire, Dunbar.

NOTES OF THE GAME.
The Dickinson squad looked pretty chesty as they sauntered out on the quadrangle. Their air of confidence soon changed, however, when the Beach batting fest prompted them to summon "Army" from his rendezvous in the right garden to do the slab work against his friends.

Mulligan made the only inexcusable error of the game. He fell off the bench when things got exciting.

Otto Stensrud was the good luck sign for the Beach gang. He had hardly joined the group on the bench before three runs came in, cinching the game then and there.

While Philip Paulson, the plucky little portsideer for the locals was visiting the Elks' temple he had the misfortune to get caught on one of the Elks horns.

Mike Power, sometimes of Killdeer, was there with a vengeance, spurring the locals on to victory.

Were it not for the bad sky and the dark grand stand, there is but little doubt but that Jefferson would have bagged the hot liner that was hit to him in the fifth.

When Victor got hit by a pitched ball just over the heart there was a wail in the grandstand. Only one voice, however, manifested the wailing.

The locals were out to win and with "Braves" went and won. Paulson at short sure used his head when unable to throw out a runner at third quickly recovered himself causing a force out at the second station.

CHURCHES

M. E. CHURCH.
Regular services will be held next Sunday morning and evening, July 11. On Sunday morning, July 18th, the Lord's Supper will be administered to the members of the congregation. All are cordially invited to participate with us. Revival meetings begin at Bonnie View next Sunday and will continue for ten or more days.

An entertainment consisting of an address, a lecture, and special singing will be given at the church during the last week in July, the exact date to be announced later. This will be an exceptional treat for all who can avail themselves of the opportunity to attend.

The Tenth Annual Camp Meeting of the Methodist Camp Meeting Association closed the last Sunday in June, and it was the best that has yet been held. Dr. James M. Taylor of New York gave several addresses on missions fresh from the mission fields and such was the response in the matter of support for this important work that over $7,100 were raised in cash and pledges. All told, there was raised in cash and pledges for all financial interests about $12,000. But most important of all was the spiritual feast enjoyed by those who were able to attend. At a platform meeting on the last Sunday afternoon fifty-seven offered themselves for the mission field to go to it whenever the way opened.
