The Earl school district election was held Friday, July 30, at the Squaw Gap school house. The following officers were elected. Director, one year term, Miss Lila Curtis; two year term, Charles Atkinson; three year term, Geo. Tasker. Treasurer, K. P. Hetzler. The officers will qualify on August 10th at Wright's school house.

A very interesting and amusing game of base ball was played at Pollard's Friday afternoon between the married and single men who came out to the school election. The game was mostly a one-sided affair, as the "night walkers" out-played the bachelors at every stage of the game. Axel Larson figured as the star base runner for the married men and drew much applause and cheer from the crowd. Charles Atkinson featured in center field by missing everything that came his way. Guy Tasker, the noted comedian and humorist, distinguished himself as "waiter", reaching first base on balls, the only way he could ever hope to see the initial sack. Pat Kierman, in the bachelor's row, made another smashing hit. It is rumored Pat is soon to set up housekeeping, which proves his former hit has gained for him greater laurels. Charles Carlson, another bachelor, showed himself to be right at home in center field and Squaw Gap country, where he had already made a good catch. The final score stood 15 to 9. Windy Phillip's decisions were severely criticised and he narrowly escaped violence only for the presence of our gallant constable, F. Debilzen.

Earl Empie and James Pollard are putting up hay in company. The weather is bad for haying but they are making hay in spite of lack of sunshine.

There was a dance at George Burgoyne's on July 17, and one at Douglas Grove on July 31. They were well attended by the residents of this section and all report a good time.

Marie Pollard had an operation for appendicitis on July 27. Her parents got a doctor from Glendive to perform the operation and at last report she is doing nicely. Her mother is staying in Sidney with her where she is convalescing.

There are many guests for the summer in this locality. Miss Baas is visiting her sister, Miss Beaton; Miss Chrisman is visiting her sister, Mrs. Clarence Hopkins; Miss Kennedy is spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. Tomlinson; Mr. and Mrs. Wyman are the guests of Mrs. Hanum; and also, Mrs. Anderson has been her guest.

There was a school election held in Squaw Gap school house for the three directors and treasurer of the new Earl school district. The following officers were elected: Director for one year, Miss Lila Curtis; director for two years, Charley Atkinson; director for three years, George Tasker. Treasurer, Mr. Stetchleh. The three gentlemen have qualified, Miss Curtis will probably qualify on her return from Medora, where she is at present visiting with friends and relatives.

A DAY LATE.

"Evenin', Jim."
"Evenin', Joe."
"Hail agin?"
"Week ago."
"Adjuster out?"
"Yep, 10 per cent."
Premiums paid—
Few were bent.
"All hailed out?"
"That's my luck;
One day late—
And all my truck!"
