

Beach Market Report

No. 1 Northern	82
No. 2 Northern	79
No. 1 Durum Wheat	73
No. 2 Durum Wheat	70
No. 1 Flax	1.65
No. 2 Flax	1.58
Barley	.38
Rye	.82
Oats	.21

Above prices corrected Oct. 12

Tales of the Town

We want eggs at The J. P. Reeve Farm Market.

Attorney Koeppler returned on Saturday from a week's visit in the eastern part of the state.

Cashier Bohart of the First State bank of Burkey was a visitor in the city on Monday evening.

Mrs. Morgan Morris of Glendive has accepted a position as pianist at the Bijou opera house.

Clothes do not make the man, but they oft times make a successful man. Let us help you to be successful. The Power's.

The Farmers and Merchants bank in this city is being materially improved this week in the addition of an attractive glass front.

Each school in Golden Valley county has a teacher at the present time which speaks well for the executive efforts of the superintendent.

Miss Bess Runions has been chosen teacher of the Hoot Owl school north of Sentinel Butte. School opened on Monday with a large attendance.

A. B. Kellogg, who has been here for the past three months attending to business interests, returned to his home in Long Beach, Cal., during the week.

Mrs. John Hoffman left on Sunday for Rochester, Minn., where she will undergo an operation at the Mayo hospital in that city. Mr. Hoffman accompanied her.

Julius Johnson of White Bluffs, Wash., who has been looking over his real estate interests in this locality for the past week conferred with Attorney Andrews during his visit here.

Mrs. G. L. Dietrich of Richland, Wash., stopped off in the city during the week on her way home from Wisconsin and visited with her brother, William Hubert, who resides in the city.

The Juggernaut, a V. L. S. E five-reel picture is to be shown at the Beach opera house Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 27 and 28, shows a real railroad wreck. A complete railroad train runs off a trestle and some of the actors are nearly drowned.

Make up your Grocery list from any catalogue you choose. If our prices are not just as low (quality considered) we don't want the order. Several have already given us their grocery bill to figure and every one has given us the order. Try The J. P. Reeve Farm Market and you will be our customer, too.

Sam Stenerson of Carlyle, who was injured while working on a tractor last week and who was brought to Dickinson, passed away on Sunday in that city. At the time of his death he carried accident insurance to the amount of five thousand dollars. His home is at Osakis, Minn. He was unmarried.

C. H. Moulton has just completed threshing a crop of 20,000 bushels of wheat, which averaged close to 30 bushels to the acre. If you want to find out what this splendid crop of wheat is worth to the producer, just look up the market reports and you will find it to be in the neighborhood of $25.50 per acre, or a total of $17,000 for the entire crop.

For the first time in several weeks the dust of the streets has made shopping unpleasant.

Frank Lynch, president of the Lynch Hardware Co. of Casselton, was a business visitor with Attorney Andrews on Monday.

SPOT—For one day, and only one sale to each person. See our window display October 30th, the Spot Sale Day, at The J. P. Reeve Farm Market.

Funeral services for the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Dunlap were held during the week at the home. Rev. Keniston officiated at the services.

Miss Inez McNaughton arrived on Tuesday from her home in Fallon and has accepted a position as stenographer with the firm of Halliday and Gallagher.

In the case of Richardson vs. Taylor, heard in Judge Heath's court on Wednesday, verdict was rendered in favor of plaintiff Richardson in the sum of $8.40, together with costs.

The dry faction in Glendive, prompted by the successful dry election in Richland county, have begun preparations to bring the issue before the Dawson county voters in a few weeks.

Mrs. J. R. Brinton and children left Sunday for their home in Heyburn, Ida., after a three months' visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Doyle, in this city.—Belfield Times.

A. N. Englund went to Beach on Thursday, where he made final proof on his homestead. He was accompanied by A. J. Howie and J. C. Loop as witnesses. Mrs. Loop also went along.—Sentinel Butte Republican.

Earle Williams, the motion picture actor who made such a hit with his acting in The Christian, will appear again at the Beach opera house in a five-reel feature, the Juggernaut, assisted by beautiful Anita Stewart. Smile with Anita Stewart Oct. 27-28.

H. J. Riesland, the eye-sight specialist, well known here for his superior ability in fitting eyes and grinding all glasses himself, will be at the State Line hotel, Beach, Nov. 16, one day only. See him if you are in need of the services of a specialist of ability and long experience. Adv.

Mrs. D. W. Shear of Sentinel Butte returned from a trip to the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco. Her daughter, Ruby, who accompanied her, returned Tuesday of this week. They had a very pleasant trip and enjoyed the fair, as well as their visits at various cities en route.

Ex Judge Simonson writes the Times man from Carlyle, Mont., one of the towns on the new line south of Beach. The Judge says he has built a house and will move his family in the near future. A branch of the Dunham Lumber Co. has been placed in his control and a rushing business is reported. The Times visits Mr. Simonson weekly and we are pleased to learn it is a welcome guest.—Belfield Times.

Hoffman Bros. of this city will in a few days have completed the largest store building in the town of Golva and will conduct a modern meat market and grocery in that town. They have already made ready temporary quarters for their new place of business. The new enterprise fills a new need at the progressive town and there is but little doubt but that the new enterprise will be a winner. Hoffman Bros. have one of the most up-to-date stores in Beach and are experienced in line of business which they are to follow in Golva.

Miss Nerva Teschmann of Fargo is visiting at the home of O. D. Wood this week.

It is estimated that two more weeks of pleasant weather will make it possible for the farmers to gather the harvest.

J. L. Jordan has been confined to his bed during the past few days as the result of a severe attack of la grippe.

L. E. Thorpe and Geo. A. Duncan of St. Paul were business visitors at the Chronicle sanctum during the week.

Did it ever occur to you that there must be a good reason for the large business the J. P. Reeve Farm Market is doing?

Attorney Parks left on Monday evening for Round-up, Mont., where he will be detained for several days in the transaction of legal business.

The threshing reports indicate that the average yield of wheat in the Golden Valley will reach fifteen bushels. This includes the acreage that was hauled out during the past season.

Our Skaar correspondent arises to remark the following: "Being entirely satisfied with the winter we have had this summer, let's have hope's of an equally pleasant summer this winter."

At Salt Lake City Judge Ritchie sentenced Joseph Hillstrom, I. W. W. leader who got a stay of execution through President Wilson, to be executed Nov. 19. The previous date set for Hillstrom's death was Oct. 1.

The M. E. ladies in connection with their baked sale will serve lunches in the postoffice lobby Saturday, consisting of pressed chicken, sandwiches, chicken pie, baked beans, doughnuts, pie, coffee, ice cream and cake.

Tom Stout's letter is again in evidence as patronage burden to several of the Montana weeklies. Congressman Tom Stout is a newspaper man, it is true, but it is quite safe to assume, that from the length of some of his articles, he is not a printer.

O. S. Lessleyoung, charged with fraudulent dealings with farmers in northern Williams county, who has been held in the county jail to await trial at the next term of district court, furnished bonds in the sum of $500 this week and was released.

Judge and Mrs. Victor Pherson and States Attorney and Mrs. John Swihart, of Medora were guests of friends in the city Tuesday, talking in the concert and dance at the opera house that evening. Mrs. Pherson recently returned from an extended visit with relatives and friends in the New England states.

The Avenging Conscience will play a return date at the Beach opera house Tuesday, October 26th. This six reel feature is produced by D. W. Griffiths, conceded to be the greatest producer of motion pictures in the world. See this picture and you will understand why Mr. Griffiths is considered such a great man in picturedom.

M. K. Bowen was among the business visitors in the city during the week. On coming to the city he stationed his car in front of Frank Essene's cafe. While at dinner a thief made away with his coat. It is thought that one of the farm hands who came in with him waited until Bowen went to dinner and then made away with the valuable garment, afterward catching a passing freight train that was leaving the city.

CARD OF THANKS.
We wish to thank those who so kindly assisted us during the illness and death of our infant daughter.
Mrs. and Mrs. Emory Dunlap

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS
The Chronicle wants a correspondent in every neighborhood and town within 10 miles of Beach. If your locality is not represented here in these columns it should be. Write us at once and put your neighborhood on the map.
The Editor.

SKAAR.
Messrs. Bairdson and Cole of Savage were business callers in and around Skaar on Thursday.

Rev. Thomlinson delivered an excellent sermon at the Wilson school house on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. K. P. Hetzler spent Sunday afternoon and evening at the Robertson home near Trotters.

Being entirely satisfied with the winter we have had this summer, let's have hopes of an equally pleasant summer this winter.

On Saturday forenoon 8 auto loads of football players and enthusiasts from Sidney passed through our town en route to Wibaux, where the Sidney team met defeat by a score of 38 to 0.

Threshing has been resumed again with the arrival of this ideal weather. Good yields are reported everywhere around Skaar and it might be said that the fellow who leaves the farm these days is either lazy or crazy.

The directors of Earl school district held their first regular meeting at Skaar hall on Tuesday, the 12th. Owing to the great amount of business to be gone over the meeting was not adjourned until 9 p. m. The directors have let contracts for two new school buildings to be erected this fall.

A minority of the voters of Richland county may be skeptical enough to regard "13" as an unlucky number after the result of last Wednesday's election, but they can still find consolation in the fact that the Yellowstone river will be a long time going dry.

SADDLE BUTTE AND VICINITY.

Little Donald Youells has been on the sick list.

Supt. Jessie L. Kinsey was visiting schools in this vicinity last week.

Leroy Bartle of Hurley, S. D., is assisting his brother Foster in the fall work.

Mrs. Mahlon Stecker and little son, Clifford, were Beach visitors on Saturday.

Mrs. L. L. Parsons and Miss Velleto were Sunday visitors at the R. M. Parsons home.

Foster Bartle is slowly improving from the injuries received in an accident recently. William Rocksvold, Frank O'Rourke and Ed Willis are getting along splendidly with their threshing machine purchased recently from Lovell Bros.

UPPER GOLDEN VALLEY.

Everyone is hustling these beautiful days with threshing. All are reporting good yields.

Bob Kastien came out from Beach Saturday morning to fix up the Hubbard boys' engine and is running it for them a few days.

Mrs. William Crone has been on the sick list the past week. Her many friends hope to see her around again soon in her usual good health.

Bert Shibley, who has been putting up hay with a large crew near here for John Lakey, moved his outfit home last week.

Rev. William Culbertson and daughter went to Beach Friday. Mr. Culbertson was suffering from blood poisoning in his face.

J. M. Herrick had the misfortune to get his collar bone broken last week. He went to Wibaux Thursday with the mail man and had it fixed up by Dr. Ashley.

The North Side Aid Society met with Mrs. John Robertson Wednesday, Oct. 13. A large crowd was in attendance and all report a very pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Almley and children were Beach visitors Monday. Mrs. Almley broke a sewing machine needle off in her hand some time ago and has suffered a great deal with it. She will consult a physician while in town.

Henry Horst, who has been living on the Hallum farm this summer, has moved his family onto his homestead near the Beaver. He and his brother, Andrew, have a section of grazing land and a fine bunch of cattle. They will try ranching on a small scale for a while.

WILLIAMS.

W. A. Cooper is busy threshing.

Curtis Sill was a Golva visitor Thursday.

Gladys Cooper visited Mary McManigal Friday night.

Dallas Blue was a caller at the Coleman home Friday.

Supt. Mrs. S. Kinsey visited Gladys Wells' school October 12th.

Mrs. Frank Gunsolley is spending a few days with Mrs. Elmer Liles.

Mary McManigal and Gladys Wells were callers at Claud Schouboe's Friday.

Gladys Wells spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, near Golva.

The school board of district five met October 13th at school number one.

Olive Coleman and Gladys Cooper visited Miss Jessie Johnson Friday.

Mrs. Frank Peruse is spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Leonard Schouboe.

Mrs. George Gunsolley and daughter, Mrs. Mae Liles, transacted business in Ollie Wednesday.

A Hallowe'en program will be given at the Williams school October 30th. Everybody welcome.

On Tuesday morning at Glendive, Vance Liles and Maud Curl, one of the most popular young folks of the southern Golden Valley, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The wedding ceremony was performed on October 12 at the home of H. E. Hall. The bride was dressed in white satin, the groom in the conventional black. A very sumptuous wedding festival was tendered them at H. E. Hall's. Shortly following the wedding the newly married couple journeyed to Helena, Mont., and other point in the west. They will return home November 1st and will make their future home on the ranch, 28 miles southeast of Beach. The Alpha locality joins the large number of friends in extending sincere congratulations.

OPEN FOR BUSINESS.

We are ready to furnish shoe and auto tire repairing with up-to-date electric machinery.

Satisfaction guaranteed.

OTTO WYGEN, Prop.

SEE
California's Expositions
IN OCTOBER

This will be farmers' month at the San Francisco Exposition, and agriculturists and stockmen of the nations will meet to view the products of efficient husbandry. Live stock exhibits, horse shows, cattle parades, and other events of importance will be held. Nearly a half a million dollars will be awarded in premiums. Plan now to see the great California Expositions—enjoy your trip—

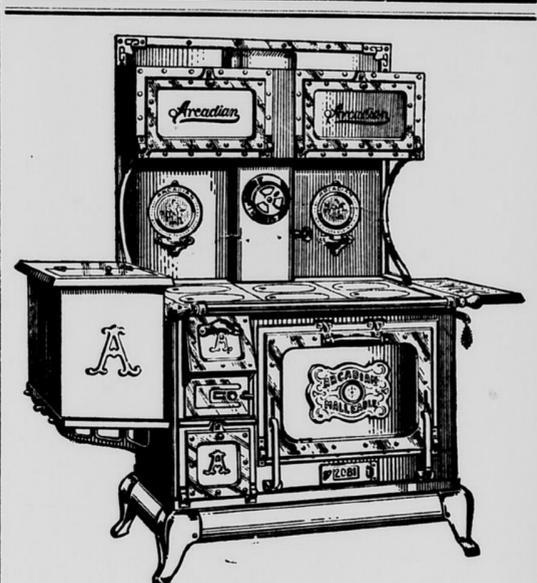

GO NORTHERN PACIFIC

In daily electric-lighted solid vestibuled trains to Spokane and North Pacific points—Steamship connections at Seattle, Tacoma, Portland—Great Northern Pacific S. S. Co., Astoria to San Francisco (meals and berth included) or Shast Rail Route.

WRITE, CALL or PHONE FOR EXPOSITION FOLDER and let us arrange your trip
R. D. WILLIAMS, Agent

NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILWAY

Only Line to Gardiner Gateway Yellowstone National Park
A. M. CLELAND, General Passenger Agent, ST. PAUL, MINN.
Add the Wonderland Series Poster Stamps to Your Collection, 5c a Sheet

The Arcadian Range
Malleable Charcoal Iron
Built Like a Locomotive Boiler
... IT ...
Cooks and Bakes Better
Uses Less Fuel
Is Easier to Keep Clean
Lasts a Life Time

Farmers Supply Co.
Beach Mail-Order-Price Merchants.

Correspondents Wanted

If your locality is not represented in this paper, write us at once as it should be. Do it today - now.

Put Your Neighborhood on the Map