THE GREEKS AND THE BULGARIANS.

The kaleidoscopic turn of events on the Balkans, strange as it may seem, is by no means a surprise to those who are more or less acquainted with the Balkan politics, and with the Balkan intrigues for the last few years.

King Constantine, the brother-in-law of the Kaiser, who, of course, is in closer touch with the chancelleries of the Teutonic Allies than his able Premier, is said to have been assured by the German and Austrian governments that, even should Bulgaria attack Serbia, Greek interests in Macedonia will not be affected by it in any way.

But not this assurance alone has driven Monsieur Venizelos from office. He had to resign because he would consent to a landing of French troops on Greek soil.

The purpose of the landing was meant less against Bulgaria than against Turkey. After the Allies had failed to conquer the Peninsula of Gallipoli, they decided to storm Constantinople from the Tschadajla line.

It is a very curious fact that the reason that causes Bulgaria to join the war, causes Greece to remain neutral.

As Russia, in this war, suffered defeat after defeat, the Allies would be forced to leave Constantinople to the Russian Ally as a compensation for his defeats; and as Serbia is an Ally, the Anglo-French troops, operating in Macedonia, would not be withdrawn until Serbia was in a position to defend Macedonia single handed.

Bill Graham, the Schafer-Watford City newspaper magnate, has built a few more Soo lines through the county. His latest line intersects the Great Northern at Watford, goes up Cherry Creek to some point in the vicinity of Ellsworth, thence west to Charbonneau Creek and down this creek to the Yellowstone river.

Washington has recognized Carranza as head of the Mexican government. Even though one may view the act of the administration without bias, he must admit that a poor choice has been made.

The proposed abandonment of the Dardanelles campaign "over the Russian's Heads" may be the first intimation of the European double-cross that has been expected in some of the diplomatic circles.

Carranza is the enemy of religion, regardless of creed. His guarantees are only promises which he has no intention of fulfilling when he assumes the position of dictator.

Editor McGarry of the McKenzie County Chronicle makes the very accurate observation that the mint is the only institution that makes money without advertising.

It has been hinted that the North Dakota "Appreciation Week" propaganda has something other than booster purport.

The repeated reports of the death of Villa might indicate that the wish was the father to the thought.

WHOSE CREED IS THIS? Believe as I believe, nor more nor less than I am right, and no one else, confess; Feel as I feel, think as I think; Eat what I eat, and drink what I drink; Look as I look, do always as I do, And then, and only then, I'll fellowship with you.

That I am right, and always right, I know, Because my own convictions tell me so; And to be right, is simply this: To be Entirely and in all respects like me; To question, doubt, or hesitate, is sin; Which damns eternally the soul within.

I reverence the Bible if it be Translated first and then explained by me; By churchly laws and customs I abide, If they with my opinions coincide; All creeds and doctrines I admit divine, Excepting those which disagree with mine.

Let sink the drowning if he will not swim Upon the plank that I throw out to him; Let starve the hungry if he will not eat, My kind and quality of bread and meat; Let freeze the naked if he will not be clothed with such garments as are made for me.

'Twere better that the sick should die than live, Unless they take the medicine I give; 'Twere better sinners perish than refuse To be conformed to my peculiar views; 'Twere better that the world stand still than move In any other way than that which I approve.

Mrs. S. A. Smith Renders Interesting Selection.

Among the interesting numbers which were rendered at the young ladies' band concert on Tuesday evening was the recital of "Hostler Joe," a very dramatic selection which was rendered by Mrs. S. A. Smith. Mrs. Smith's talent as an elocutionist was very well exemplified in the rendering of this very rhetorical discourse.

The Avenging Conscience.

D. W. Griffith's great production The Avenging Conscience, with Henry Walthall and Blanche Sweet in the leads, proved to be such a great attraction and so many have been eager to see this picture again that the opera house management decided to bring this picture for a second time.

M. O. Malmin left yesterday for Bowman county, where he will work in behalf of the Non Partizan League with the farmers in that section of the state.

Large Audience Sees Graustark

Famous Story by McCutcheon Depicted in Pictures at the Beach Opera House.—Excellent Production.

Graustark, a Big Four picture which was shown at the Beach opera house last week, was a picture that did great credit to George Barr McCutcheon's story and the acting of Francis Bushman and Beverly Bayne was very clever indeed.

The Avenging Conscience with Henry Walthall and Blanche Sweet teaches a great lesson. The picture is taken from Poe's story of The Tell-tale Heart. Henry Walthall is making a great hit all over the country with his work as the little colonel in Griffith's The Birth of a Nation.
