

10 Pounds Pure Buckwheat Flour 55c GET YOUR Five Pounds 25c Coffee only 95c

WINTER'S SUPPLY OF GROCERIES

Regular 25c Package Matches 19c AT BEACH 1 Gallon Tomatoe Catsup 85c

From the Farmers Supply Company at Mail Order House Prices

We have the largest and finest grocery stock in the Golden Valley and are selling it at prices never heard of before in Beach --- Mail-Order-House-Prices

22½ Pounds Fresh Rolled Oats 93c	The Very Best Ham 20c per Pound	Fine Breakfast Bacon 19c per Pound	Pure Lard 12½ Cents Pound	Fine Keeping Apples $1.25 Box	Best Patent Flour $2.98 per 100	10 Pounds Macaroni 53c	Magic Washer Laundry Soap 10 Bars 35c
--	--	---	--	---	---	-------------------------------------	--

Our Guarantee We make the same guarantee that is made by the mail-order house. Anything you buy from us is guaranteed by us to be as represented, and we guarantee above all satisfaction. If you are not satisfied with goods purchased, bring them back and get your money refunded. We are in business to serve you and we want you satisfied when you buy anything from us. Our motto will always be: "Satisfaction, or money back."

FARMERS SUPPLY COMPANY,

The Only "Farmers Supply Company" in Beach -- North of Railroad Track -- East of Depot Mail - Order - Price Merchants The Only Mail - Order - Price Merchants in Beach - North of Railroad Track -- East of the Depot

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

The Chronicle wants a correspondent in every neighborhood and town within 30 miles of Beach. If your locality is not represented here in these columns it should be. Write us at once and put your neighborhood on the map.
The Editor.

Saddle Butte and Vicinity.

Miss Vollette called on Mrs. Parsons Saturday.
Mrs. Blue called on Mrs. Bartle Saturday.
Olive Coleman has been on the sick list for the past week.
Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Carlson visited at the McGrath home Sunday afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. S. Youells and family visited at the R. M. Parsons home Sunday.
Mrs. E. V. Miller and daughter Carrie visited Mrs. L. L. Parsons Sunday.
Don't forget the basket so-called to be held at the Carlson school house Dec. 4.
Mrs. L. L. Parsons went to Beach Monday to visit for some time with Mrs. C. Wolf.
Dallas Blue had the misfortune to break several bones in his right hand in a runaway while threshing at Mr. Coleman's.
A number of the young folks in this locality attended the dance given at Ollie, Montana, Nov. 20. All reported a fine time.
Mr. and Mrs. C. McNeil are visiting with relatives in the Golva neighborhood, but expect to return to their home at "Wolfplain" soon.
Services were held in Carlson school house on Sunday. Rev. Mr. Hammer of Beach preaching. Quite a number were present and the sermon was enjoyed by all. Roland Steele will take charge of the next Sunday.

Williams.

Ira Allen transacted business in Ollie Saturday.
Gladys Cooper transacted business in Golva Friday.
Edward Gunsolley and Clyde Liles were Ollie callers Friday.
Perry Cooper was in Golva visiting the latter part of the week.
A social was given at the Williams school Friday night. The offerings were sent to the Fargo orphans.
UPPER GOLDEN VALLEY
Mr. Roy Kidder was a Beach visitor this week.
Mr. Crain with his family and stock is nicely located on the Bert Shibley place near Beaver creek, where he will make his future home.
A large party of relatives and friends surprised Mr. and Mrs. Clell Trollop Sunday evening, it being their first wedding anniversary. All report a very pleasant evening.
Mr. Shaner is moving another carload of stock and household goods out to the Crain place near Trotters. Mr. Shaner's family will soon be here. We are glad to see such energetic people as Mr. Shaner come into the country. We feel sure he will make good.
There was a big turkey and chicken raffle at John Robertson's Saturday night. Some took home a good supply of poultry and all report a very pleasant time.

SKAAR TEMS.

Guy Toaker was over from Earl Friday on business.
Mr. Brandt of the Dunham Lumber company at Wibaux spent several days of the past week in our community.
On Sunday afternoon Miss Vivian Barnes and Harry Kruger autoed down from Squaw Gap.
The enrollment at Lincoln school is gradually increasing, the total number of pupils enrolled having reached sixteen, with two more yet to enter. There are four first year high school students included in this number.
"Johnny get your gun," as Skaar has declared war on "turkey." The date set for this affair is Sunday, Dec. 12, when Charles Atkinson and Charles Carlson will hold a big turkey shoot at Skaar. At least thirty turkeys will be disposed of; also a countless number of chickens and a number of ducks and geese. This promises to be a real event provided weather conditions are favorable.
EARL.
Albert Bass, a brother of Mrs. See, and four cousins, are spending a few days at the See home.
Preaching services were held at the Jud Gap school house by Rev. Thomlison. A large crowd was in attendance.
Mr. Norem, who is teaching at the Trotters school, spent Saturday and Sunday at the Rev. Thomlison's home.
Mrs. Teal who has been spending the summer with her son, P. A. Wilson, returned to her home at Baraboo, Wis.
T. N. Bond, Dan Beaton, Roy Mitten and Ray Halleck made business trips to Sidney last week.

Miss Carrie Sperry of Trotters spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of her brother.

The dance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emily Miller was well attended and a splendid time was had by all.

Mr. See, who was taken to Sidney for an operation, is doing nicely and his many friends hope for his speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Sperry visited at the former's home at Trotters a couple of days.

BURKEY.

Mrs. Harry Sites has been visiting at F. J. Snow's.
School started at Golva Monday with a good attendance.
Mr. and Mrs. Peterson leave this week for Oregon, where they will reside.
Martin Staeger left Friday for Iowa to care for his aged father, who is ill.
Miss Wolfe and Miss Myrtle Hannifin visited Marian Denton Saturday and Sunday.
Friends regret that Mrs. Leon Kremer is on the sick list and hope for her speedy recovery.
Mr. and Mrs. Bohart expect to move to Golva this week, their new home being all completed.
Mrs. J. W. Page is enjoying a visit from her mother, who came last Wednesday from Olewein, Ia.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sites expect to leave soon for Montana, where they will locate on a homestead.
Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Beier have the heartfelt sympathy of a large number of friends in this vicinity who were grieved to hear of the death of their little child.

Protection is the Business Man's Greatest Resource

Another year nearly past; more property accumulated on the farm; you have built an addition to your house, or built a new barn, and possibly one or two more granaries, bought more live stock and consequently have more feed stored in and about your barns.
What investing is better than buying a FARM FIRE POLICY, protecting your property which you have been years accumulating?
IT NEVER PAYS TO TAKE A CHANCE.
Insure your farm property in the Columbia of Omaha, Nebraska.

J. A. HAIGH
OFFICE IN THE OPERA HOUSE BLD'G. BEACH, N. D.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Curl visited friends at Baker, Mont., Saturday and part of Sunday.
Miss Waite, the popular teacher of Burkey, went to Dickinson last week, where she took teachers' examination.
The ladies of the Altar society of the Catholic church gave a chicken pie supper and bazaar at the town hall, and a very large crowd attended. An elegant supper was served and the proceeds of the sale and supper netted the ladies a neat little sum.
Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McNeill left Friday for their home at Wolfe Point, Mont. They took with them the best wishes of the entire community, where Rose, as she is familiarly called, is a great favorite, and held in high esteem by her pupils and friends.
The Sunshine society ladies will give a chicken pie supper Dec. 1 at Golva from 5 o'clock until all are fed. This is for the benefit of the rest room, and a crowd is expected. The last meeting was held with Florence Page and complete arrangements were made to serve a large number, and we hope all interested and those not will help the ladies in this enterprise, as it will help our little town and benefit those who come to town, especially those with children.

To buy wisely and well read all the ads in The Chronicle
before you do your shopping