FARMERS SUPPLY CO. BEACH, N. DAK.

Protection is the Business Man's Greatest Resource

Another year nearly past; more property accumulated on the farm; you have built an addition to your house, or built a new barn, and possibly one or two more granaries, bought more live stock and consequently have more feed stored in and about your barns.

What investment is better than buying a FARM FIRE POLICY, protecting your property which you have been years accumulating?

IT NEVER PAYS TO TAKE A CHANCE.

Insure your farm property in the Columbia of Omaha, Nebraska.

J. A. HAIGH

OFFICE IN THE OPERA HOUSE BLD'G. BEACH, N. D.

UNAPPRECIATED.

Burkey and Golva people evidently did not appreciate Beach's appreciation week efforts very highly. The Republican is in receipt of a letter from a Burkey-Golva resident that says that two or three automobile loads of Beach people came out and "threw circulars" at them, inviting them to come to Beach to spend their money. One teacher out there drilled her pupils to march out and receive a flag—but the flag not being forthcoming, the kids didn't march. No flag to appreciate and no marching to be appreciated—and there you are!

Beach friends would certainly like to keep a string on the Burkey trade, but it's going to be a hard matter for them to do so. Golva has a lot of good stores, and that town is already making a big dent in the business that used to go from the south country into Beach.—Sentinel Butte Republican.

SOO SURVEYORS

FINISH WORK.
Watford City, N. D., Dec. 7.—The Soo surveyors who have been working in McKenzie county for several months have completed their work and gone across the Missouri to Sanish. The people of the county feel confident that this survey, which taps some of the most fertile sections, is the final one, and that the Soo will actually begin building next year. It is reported that the company is already assembling material for the bridge across the Missouri from Sanish to Goodall.

It is reported that Germany would consider peace proposals though the Vatican.

SCHOOL TEACHER WOUNDED IN FOOT

Williston, N. D., Dec. 6.—Miss Zora Centerwall, a teacher in Missouri Ridge township near here, was wounded seriously in the foot when a shotgun in the hands of a pupil was discharged accidentally. The boy planned to shoot jack-rabbits and was loading the gun after school was dismissed. The teacher was brought to a hospital here.
