NEW U-BOAT POLICY IS EFFECTIVE; U. S. AWAITS OUTCOME

AUSTRO-GERMAN SUBMARINE CAMPAIGN AGAINST ARMED MERCHANT SHIPS BEGINS AT MIDNIGHT.

BERLIN COMMUNICATION IS LAID BEFORE CABINET

Important Appendixes to Memorandum Delayed in Transit—State Department Unable to Determine if Claims, in Justification of Course, Are Sustained.

London, March 2.—On the eve of the date set by Germany for the beginning of her new submarine campaign against armed merchant vessels, Lord Robert Cecil, minister of war trade, issued this statement: "The British view has always been that defensively armed merchantmen must not fire on submarines of any other nationality, except in self defense. The Germans have twisted a passage in a document, taken from a transport which they sank, into meaning that merchant vessels have instructions to take the offensive. This is not so."

Washington, March 2.—Results of the new Austro-German submarine campaign against armed merchant ships of the Allies which began at midnight, are awaited by the United States with grave concern.

Although under their new instructions Teutonic naval commanders are authorized to sink without warning all armed enemy merchantmen they encounter, it is understood they have been told to make sure that no American citizens are aboard any ship attacked. Furthermore, in the latest communication received regarding submarine warfare, Germany has assured the United States that the new orders are so formulated as to prevent the destruction of enemy liners "on account of their armament unless such armament is proved."

Note Laid Before Cabinet. President Wilson discussed the subject in a conference with Secretary Lansing and then laid the German communication before his cabinet. Later it was said that because the all important appendixes to the German memorandum had been delayed in transit the state department thus far was unable to determine whether claims set forward by Germany and Austria in justification of their course were sustained.

Moreover, it has not yet been decided whether the reiterated assurances regarding the future conduct of submarine warfare, contained in the German note, are of a character broad enough to warrant acceptance of the German proposal to settle the issue growing out of the sinking of the Lusitania. A decision in that connection may be made within a few days and the state department probably will take steps at once to determine what has become of the missing appendixes which were started in the mails from Berlin nearly three weeks ago.

BEGINS U. S. TRADE INQUIRY

Federal Commission to Determine Which Divisions of Country's Industries Are Profitable.

Washington, March 2.—The federal trade commission has begun an inquiry to determine which divisions of the country's industries are profitable and which offer little money making possibilities. Letters went to 250,000 corporations asking them to submit information on which a report will be based.

Virtually every line of business in the United States will be covered in the investigation which was prompted, the commission announced, by inquiries from business men for information concerning the industries in which they are engaged.

Defense Opens in Brandeis Case. Washington, March 2.—An explanation of the various charges against Louis D. Brandeis, now being investigated by a senate committee considering his nomination for the supreme court, was begun by Edward F. McClennen of Boston, a member of Mr. Brandeis' law firm.

Breaks Ice; Scalds Foot. Stevens Point, Wis., March 2.—Leo Walosek is in the St. Michael's hospital recovering from a badly scalded foot received when he stepped through the ice on a saw mill log pond. He struck one of the steam pipes running under the water.

New York Democrats for Wilson. Syracuse, N. Y., March 2.—Strong endorsement of President Wilson and his administration and the recommendation of four delegates at large to the St. Louis convention, not formally pledged but chosen with the understanding that they will work for the renomination and re-election of the President were features of the program for the informal Democratic state convention, virtually agreed to by leaders of the party. Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, arrived from New York.
