

Worth Careful Thought

Do you read the label to know whether your baking powder is made from cream of tartar or, on the other hand, from alum or phosphate?

Royal Baking Powder is made from cream of tartar, derived from grapes, and adds to the food only wholesome qualities.

Other baking powders contain alum or phosphate, both of mineral origin, and used as substitutes for cream of tartar because of their cheapness.

Never sacrifice quality and healthfulness for low price.

Often Worth Twice Its Face Value

A Bank Check is often worth twice the amount for which it is written. Such occasions arise when you can squelch an argument about a bill,—the tradesman insisting the bill has not been paid while you know it has,—by producing the cancelled check. Properly endorsed it puts the quietus on further hickering and perhaps saves your paying the bill again. Do you use this safety-first, last, and always method of payment?
