FIRST WOMAN TO SIT IN CONGRESS

Miss Jeanette Rankin Runs Ahead of Her Party in Montana.

CAMPAIGNS ON HORSEBACK

Makes Her Own Hats and is an Expert at Making Lemon Pie—Intends to Push Extension of Child-Labor Laws.

Missoula, Mont.—Jeanette Rankin, the first congresswoman, is thirty-five years of age and makes her own hats. She is more interested in children than in anything else in the world, with the possible exception of votes for women.

She is about five feet four inches in height, slender, with light brown hair—not red, her friends insist—and has an unusual store of energy. She is the daughter of one of the best-known of the Montana pioneers, who went west when the state was so sparsely settled that it resembled a wilderness, and she and her three sisters have learned to "rough it" in the big western state. She was graduated at the University of Montana, became an ardent suffragist while a girl, and went to Seattle to study voice culture, and then came to New York city to take a course at the School of Philanthropy in that city.

Ardent Suffrage Worker. Miss Rankin was among the early and most ardent workers for suffrage in the West before any states had granted women the vote. It was said, and fought actively for amendments in Washington and California. In these campaigns, it is said, she went into mines and to farms to argue personally with men and women to induce them to fight for suffrage. She obtained a place as a field secretary of the National American Woman Suffrage association after leaving New York city and went to Florida to establish suffrage organizations there. She is credited with having done more, perhaps, than any other woman in the state to obtain suffrage for the women of Montana. Then after a hard fight she was nominated for congress by an overwhelming vote in the primaries, and election day, it is reported, she had to fight some of the Old Guard Republican leaders in her own state as well as the Democrats. She did a large part of her campaigning on horseback.

Her friends joined her in creating electioneering innovations. She didn't finish her campaign until election night, it is said. On election day her friends telephoned to practically everybody in the state who had a telephone, according to reports received here, and greeted whoever answered the telephone with a cheery: "Good morning! Have you voted for Jeanette Rankin?"

Makes Famous Lemon Pie. "Miss Rankin is a very feminine woman," one young woman who had known her here and who is now a reporter on a New York evening paper said. "She dances well and makes her own hats, and sews, and has won genuine fame among her friends with the wonderful lemon meringue pie that she makes when she hasn't enough other things to do to keep her busy.

"She is the sort of girl who won't stop until she has got the results she is after, and it will be lots of fun to see her in her first fight in congress. Among the things which Miss Rankin has announced that she will fight for in congress is extension of the child labor laws—she intends to represent children as well as women in congress—national woman suffrage mothers' pensions, universal compulsory education and similar propositions. It is expected that she will introduce a new national suffrage bill as soon as she has the opportunity.

TEUTONS GAIN ALT RIVER LINE

SECTION FROM ALPS TO DANUBE HELD BY INVADERS.

Armies Closer to Bucharest—Allies Beaten Near Monastir—Battle Rages On 17-Mile Front.

London, Nov. 23.—The entire line of the Alt river in Roumania, running north and south through the country from the Transylvanian Alps to the Danube, is now in the hands of the Teutonic allies. In all directions the invaders are continuing to make progress with Bucharest their main objective, daily coming nearer. The southern and eastern drive in the Alt region has brought the Teutonic forces across the Topolog river, while to the south between Rochi de Vede and Valeni their line has been drawn considerably nearer the Roumanian capital. Alexandria, 47 miles southeast of Bucharest, has been taken by Field Marshal von Mackensen's troops.

Few Prisoners Captured. Considering the swiftness of the advance of the Teutonic allies through Wallachia, comparatively few prisoners have been taken, although semi-official reports credit them with having captured considerable supplies of needed stores. Near Orsova, 23 officers and 1,500 men were made prisoners, while in the Alt region near Tigveni, 10 additional officers and 400 men fell into the hands of the Teutons. In a big battle extending over a front of about 17 miles northwest and northeast of Monastir—between Trnova and Makovo—the Allies, according to Berlin, have met with a severe defeat through the failure of an attack launched against the lines of the Teutons.

WIDOW OF FLAGLER WEDS

Mrs. Henry M. Flagler, second wife of the late Henry M. Flagler, multi-millionaire, who developed Florida, recently married Judge Robert Worth Bingham of Louisville, Ky.

When Mr. Flagler died three years ago he left the bulk of his $80,000,000 to his widow. Before her marriage she was Miss Lily Kenan of Wilmington, N. C. She married Mr. Flagler on August 24, 1901, ten days after he had divorced his first wife, who was mentally unbalanced. Judge Bingham is prominent in legal and social circles in New York and Kentucky. He retired from the bench in 1911.

NEW SEARCHLIGHT INVENTED

"Scotoscopia" Devised by an Italian, Emits Invisible Rays Illuminating Object Only.

Rome.—Signor Giulio Ulivi, the inventor of F-rays, was badly injured in a laboratory experiment some time ago, and only recovered after many months spent in a military hospital at Milan. Signor Ulivi announces now that he has succeeded in applying the invisible infra red waves beyond the red band of the spectrum to detect objects in darkness by determining their length.

The new invention is known as "Scotoscopia," meaning vision in darkness, and consists of a searchlight emitting invisible rays which illuminate distant objects and render them visible only to the observer. Thus by means of Scotoscopic searchlights warships are equipped to see without being seen.

Photographs or rather Scotographs of objects in darkness can be taken and enlarged so that enemy coasts can be mapped. The invention can be used on land and sea as well as in the air, so that it will be found most useful in waging war against submarines and in the defence against aerial raids. Signals can be exchanged invisibly between ships equipped with Scotoscopic apparatuses and other practical applications of this wonderful invention can be easily obtained.

ONE MASHER SMELLS POWDER

Routed Not by the Explosive Powder, but Simple Complexion Aid.

New City.—Hurling a powder box in the face of a masher who seized and kissed her, Miss May Ebert of Southfields, Rockland county, succeeded in routing him in Parkston.

The powder, which scattered over the flirt, not alone put him to flight when it flew into his eyes, but afforded a clue upon which Policeman Sherwood arrested William Lacey of Pearl river, accused of the attack upon Miss Ebert and her eighteen-year-old companion, Miss Esther Van Auker. The masher grabbed Miss Van Auker and kissed her. Then he kissed Miss Ebert. Snatching the powder box from her handbag, Miss Ebert hurled it into the masher's face and it broke open, scattering the stuff over him from head to foot. The girls fled and reported the incident to the police, who got Lacey, with powder on his clothes, boarding a train out of town. He was held in $100 bail.

LOST TEETH CAUSE ARREST

Police Captured Man Who Came for Them After He Had Had a Fight.

Kenosha, Wis.—Pat Murphy, a Cleveland man, lost his false teeth in Kenosha. Murphy was engaged in a fight with Joe Gallagher in a saloon, and Gallagher was stabbed in the back with a knife.

As Murphy fled from the saloon his false teeth fell out, and they were turned over to the police as a clue to his identity. Murphy found that he could not get along without the teeth any longer and he came to the police and made an appeal for them. He got the teeth, but at the same time he was arrested on charge of assault with intent to do great bodily harm. He was held in bonds of $750 for an adjourned hearing and went to jail, being unable to furnish the bonds. Gallagher was not seriously injured.

Business Man Praises Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy Successful Merchant After Investigation Found a Remedy That Restored His Health. "This is Thanksgiving day in the state of Pennsylvania, and I want to devote a part of it in writing a letter to you. On the 26th day of November, 10, I was stricken with heart trouble. My family physician called it Angina Pectoris. I had from one to five attacks in 24 hours, in the latter part of December, 1910. I wrote to the Miles Medical Co. for information concerning my case, and in reply I received a very kind and instructive letter, which I handed to my family doctor, and he told me to use your Remedies in connection with the medicine he gave me, so I did. I used five bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy and seven bottles of Dr. Miles' Nerveine. I was confined to the house for about four months. The action of my heart is now, and has been normal for the last six months. I can truly recommend Dr. Miles' Nerveine and Heart Remedy to do what they are intended for, if you kindly for your advice in answer to my monthly reports. I am now sixty-seven years of age, have been in the mercantile business for thirty-five years and lived retired for the last thirteen years." A. B. HOLLINGER, Lincoln, Penna.
