Sadlers Make Hit at Chautauqua Park

AUDIENCES ARE ENTHUSIASTIC OVER BENEFITS TO BE OBTAINED FROM HEALTH LECTURES.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

Campers and visitors at the Valley City Chautauqua are enthusiastic over the practical lectures given by Dr. and Mrs. Wm. S. Sadler, Anna B. Kellogg, trained nurse, and Sarah Mildred Willmer, and the crowd which hear them will grow in number until the end of the Chautauqua.

This number is advertised as the big feature of the Chautauqua program, and if the first lectures yesterday afternoon and last evening are a criterion, they will live up to their advertisements.

Dr. Sadler demonstrates that he is a practical physician, not a faddist. He confines himself to plain words in his talks and his language can be understood and his directions carried out even by school children. A practicing physician in Chicago, Dr. Sadler takes a few weeks vacation every year on the Chautauqua platform, teaching the Gospel of Health, and the secrets of happiness.

Dr. Sadler's wife, Lena K. Sadler, assisted by the trained nurse gives a lecture than which there is probably none so unique on the public platform today. Her subjects are similar to those of her husband, and with the assistance of the nurse and a young boy are acted out before the audience. Her subjects are the home treatment of diseases, the care of the baby and the feeding of children, and are straight from the shoulder. They contain a message which every mother can take home with her.

Miss Kellogg is a sister of Dr. Lena Sadler, and her clever work does much to add to the entertainment.

Miss Willmer, the reader with Dr. Sadler's company is an artist of rare versatility. She interprets a large variety of roles with ease, whether it be those of child life or the Shakespearean drama.

Middlewest Ins. Co. Does Big Hail Business

SEC. GORDON STATES THAT THE MIDDLEWEST DOES $200,000 HAIL BUSINESS.

Secretary Gordon of the Middlewest Fire Insurance Co., stated to a Times-Record representative that today the company touched the two hundred thousand mark in hail premium receipts the figures being $200,928.32.

Last year the Middlewest Fire Insurance Co. wrote in hail premiums about $150,000. The Times-Record believes the above shows that North Dakota people are supporting a North Dakota company and believes there is no reason why the Middlewest Fire in a very short time should not lead all companies in North Dakota in fire and hail premium receipts. Secretary Gordon stated that about 300 hail losses had been reported that the company had their adjusters in the field settling the losses as rapidly as possible but that the could not state at the present time what the losses would amount to.

The Congregational and Methodist Brotherhood will play ball tomorrow night at the Ball Park.

D. W. Clark Composes Popular March

WILL BE USED BY ROUNDS' ORCHESTRA DURING SUMMER TRIP.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

Round's Orchestra left this morning for Storm Lake, Iowa, to participate in the entertainments given at the Chautauqua at that point, from July 19 to the 21st inclusive.

During their stay in this city they have endeared themselves to the music loving people and will be greatly missed as an attraction at our Chautauqua.

Last night's program was especially attractive, the music and songs being among the very best in their repertoire. In concluding, Mr. Round paid a glowing tribute to D. W. Clark, author of a march he has pleased to call "The North Dakota National Guard." In his remarks, he stated that it was one of the prettiest marches he had ever played and was anxious to make it a part of each and every program that the orchestra played during the coming season.

The march, as rendered by this orchestra, was greatly appreciated by the large crowd in attendance, who showed their appreciation and delight by a most hearty encore.

The Times-Record joins in congratulating Mr. Clark upon his success as a composer and predicts for him a brilliant future if he concludes to carry on the work along this line. Mr. Clark is also author of a number of other unpublished compositions which we hope he may bring out in the near future.

Geo. M. Young Is Congratulated

BARNES COUNTY REPUBLICAN CENTRAL COMMITTEE SENDS GREETINGS.

The members of the Barnes County Republican Central Committee, which met this week, adopted complimentary resolutions respecting Mr. George M. Young, the successful candidate for honors in the Second Congressional District. The resolution was adopted unanimously and reads as follows:

"Resolved: That the Barnes County Republican Central Committee does hereby express its confidence in Hon. George M. Young, Republican nominee for representative in Congress. The members of this committee are glad to congratulate Mr. Young upon his victory and to express their appreciation of the honor thus conferred upon Barnes County by the voters of the Second Congressional District and we pledge him our hearty support."

TIMES-RECORD STARTS BIG CIRCULATION CAMPAIGN

Automobiles, Trips to Yellowstone Park, Graphophones, Business Courses and Watches To Be Given Away—Rich Reward for Those Who Aid In Competition.

CAMPAIGN ONLY LASTS FOR SIX WEEKS

Valuable Awards to Exchange for Energy, Hustle, Ambition Perseverance—For Full Particulars See Inside Pages.

Out for new subscribers. Are you with us? The Times-Record wants many more subscribers in the big happy family before Fall comes.

We are going to pay liberally for those who aid in placing Valley City's enterprising evening paper in every home.

While our last campaign brought us many new subscribers we believe that the prizes offered in this coming campaign, under the liberal conditions will appeal to more people and give them something of greater value to work for.

We are going to give something that nearly everyone has longed for—an automobile—yes, two of them. These automobiles will appeal to everyone—men or women, and the children. The winners of these machines can keep them or they can promptly turn them into pockets full of cash.

If the Times-Record put out a body of solicitors to cover North Dakota the cost would run into thousands of dollars. We are going to give the people a chance to earn that money. Besides, canvassers are sometimes a nuisance. Our big prize campaign will make a lot more noise and there's nothing like having some fun along with business. The old apple paring party got the apples pared, the apple butter made and everybody had a good time. This was better than to hire a dozen parers to pare the apples. We are out for more subscribers and we are going to have no end of fun before the campaign is over. There are a few surprises in store for those who actively enter the competition.

Short Campaign

The circulation campaign will only last about six weeks, the closing night being September 7th, on a Saturday night, at 10 o'clock, sharp, when the judges will count the votes and award the prizes. This competition will be more interesting and far reaching than any ever undertaken by a Central North Dakota newspaper. The prizes are not only rich in material value, but are in keeping with this big undertaking. Division of the territory covered by the Times-Record makes the prize winning easy for those determined ones who enter. Energy and ambition are the requisites for success.

Purely a Business Proposition

The Times-Record, at the outset, pledges absolutely good faith and fairness to all the people who will soon be engaged in the campaign. This is not a "something for nothing" scheme, in fact it is no scheme at all. Neither is it a charitable undertaking on the part of the Times-Record. It is a business proposition pure and simple. The object is to advertise this newspaper and to increase its circulation and to win a welcome in every household in the field that it covers.

Here is the Idea in a Nutshell

The prizes are to be given to the candidates securing the highest number of votes in their respective districts; and there are two ways of getting votes—first, by clipping the coupons which will be published daily and will be worth from one to fifty votes, and will be credited to the candidate whose name is written thereon.

A quicker way of getting votes is by securing paid-in-advance subscriptions. The schedule published elsewhere in this issue shows just how many votes each subscription entitles the candidate to. Receipt books will soon be ready for candidates to use in securing subscriptions.

What To Do First.

Send or bring in your name on the regular nomination blank or by letter saying that you wish to enter the competition and the Circulation Campaign Department will give you full particulars. The "early bird" in a short campaign of this kind can get the promise of assistance and subscriptions that later on would be promised to someone else. If you are a "wise old owl" you will start today.

Why Delay?

You Will Never Succeed If You Are Afraid To Make A Start. "Our Doubts Are Traitors And Make Us Lose the Good By Fearing to Attempt."

Enter the Times-Record Prize Circulation Campaign Today—Nominate Yourself or a friend by Sending in the Nomination Blank Properly Filled Out Which Will Be Found in This Issue.

Distribution of Prizes.

The territory of the Campaign has been divided into two districts, in order to give candidates a better chance to secure one of the valuable prizes. District No. 1 includes all territory within the city limits of Valley City, and candidates in that District have only candidates in their own district to compete with for one of the District Prizes. District No. 2 comprises all of Barnes County and surrounding territory, and candidates in this District also have only those in their District to compete with for one of the District prizes.

The automobiles are the two Capital prizes—one automobile will be awarded to a city contestant, and one to an out-of-town candidate—candidate with the largest number of votes to be given their choice of the two cars.

The trips to Yellowstone Park will be awarded as first prize in each District after the automobiles have been awarded.

The graphophones will be the second and fifth district prizes; business courses will be third and fourth district prizes and the gold watches will be the sixth district prizes in each of the districts.

No Losers.

To each and every candidate who works actively up to the close of the Campaign and does not secure one of the fourteen prizes mentioned above, we will give 10 per cent of all money which they have turned in on subscriptions. Therefore, there will be no losers at the close of the campaign every one will get something for their work.

The Time is Short.

The Times-Record's big circulation campaign is starting off with a rush. The ballot box in the business office of The Times-Record is waiting to be stuffed with free vote coupons and the special vote ballots. The campaign closes on Saturday night, September 7, at 10 o'clock sharp. The time is short so don't be bashful and wait to see what someone else is going to do. Be an "early bird" and capture the prize you are after.

Get an Early Start

If you are interested in this prize campaign and want to get started right, come up and get acquainted with the campaign manager or call up by telephone and state what you desire to know, or ask for suggestions. All inquires addressed to the Campaign Manager will receive prompt attention. The next time you are down town drop into this department and let the manager of the campaign explain the details of the plan and show you how easy it is to win. Phone 4. Ask for the campaign department.

Subscribers Should Vote

Thousands of the free votes will go to waste if subscribers do not clip out the vote coupons that are printed in each issue of this newspaper. Then you will be sorry that you did not use them to help some deserving candidate or a friend who may be in the competition.

Get the habit and clip the coupons, beginning today.

A Square Deal to All

This is the motto of the campaign and every candidate will receive equal treatment. Any man, woman or child of good repute living in the territory covered by the campaign may participate in the competition. Candidates living at a distance from Valley City will receive the same attention and their interests will be as safely guarded as those of the candidates living in this city. The campaign is for people living in Valley City and surrounding territory, and not for any one section. Those who enter from outside districts can rest assured that they will be fairly treated. Every person who actively enters this competition will stand a good show of winning a prize. Prominent business men whose standing in the community is unquestionable will be selected as judges to count the votes and award the prizes at the close of the campaign on September 7 at 10 p. m.

The Ballot Box

There is a ballot box in the business office of the Times-Record where votes may be deposited for candidates or nominations cast. Those who desire to vote are welcome to do so at once.

Open Evenings

For the benefit of those who cannot call during the day time, the Circulation Campaign Department of the Times-Record will be kept open evenings until 8 o'clock. The Campaign Manager and his assistants are always on the job and will be pleased to have candidates and their friends call at any time. Campaign Manager's office, 1st floor Times-Record Building. Phone No. 4.

The first thing to do to enter the campaign is to cut out the nomination blank which will be found on the contest page. Each nomination blank counts for 1,000 votes. Not over five nominations will be accepted for any one candidate. Fill in the blanks with your name, address, etc., if you wish to nominate yourself, or with the name of any one else whom you may choose to nominate. Be very careful to write plainly, so that there can be no possibility of an error being made. We also wish to impress upon candidates the importance of securing the correct name and address of all new subscribers so there will be no unnecessary delay in starting the paper.

The second thing to do—send or bring the nomination to the Times-Record, who will give you credit for 5,000 votes towards winning one of the 14 prizes, and will send you a receipt book to be used in securing subscriptions to this paper. A representative of the Times-Record will call on you as soon as possible and explain the plan of the campaign in detail, if there is anything you do not understand, and will render you any assistance possible. It is better to ask questions now than to have to correct mistakes later.

The third thing to do—As soon as you are nominated, see your friends; get them to subscribe for The Times-Record, giving you their votes (the vote scale will be found on the contest page). Send all subscriptions to Campaign Dept., Times-Record, together with the proper remittance and upon receipt of same votes will be issued. Once started do not get discouraged. Pay no attention to how many votes some one else may have to their credit; look after your own candidacy, and thereby set a good example for the other candidates.

The fourth thing to do—As soon as you have secured one subscription, go after another, during your spare time. You do not need to let this campaign business interfere with your regular work, however, if you were to spend your time doing nothing but securing subscriptions to the Times-Record, the reward for your efforts would quite suffice to repay you many times over. Think what a wonderful profit would be yours were you to win one of the three automobiles. Your salary would be equivalent to $225 per week if you were to work every day during the next six weeks.

Attempted Robbery In Farmers' Elevator

HOBOS SUPPOSED TO BE RESPONSIBLE FOR ATTEMPT TO ENTER SAFE LAST NIGHT.

Following the plan adopted by robbers in Jamestown, who robbed the safe of the Occident Elevator three two nights ago, burglars forced the door of the office of the Farmers Elevator here last night, and attempted to enter the safe.

J. H. S. Thomson, manager of the elevator, states that there was not a large amount of money in the safe at the time. The robbers apparently were amateurs, using tools which they picked up about the office, and breaking off the door of the safe. Chief of Police Swanson has no clue to the men who attempted the robbery.

Will Advertise for Help During Harvest

SECRETARY OF COMMERCIAL CLUB WILL USE EASTERN PAPERS TO SECURE AID.

Otto Zetterberg, secretary of the Commercial Club, has begun his first campaign for help to harvest Barnes county's bumper crop.

Mr. Zetterberg expects to insert advertisements in a number of eastern papers and the returns from the ads. will be published in the Times-Record, giving the names of all applicants for work. This morning he furnished the name of David Bryant, of Radison, Wisconsin, who wants to work as cook with a harvest crew. He has requested that all farmers wishing help write to him or call at his office.

D. L. Hoffman, of Courtenay, is registered at a local hotel today.
