CHANGE IN MANAGEMENT OF THE NORTHERN SEED COMPANY

A. B. Cox of Courtenay Will Assume Active Control of Big Concern--Change Becomes Effective at Once.

At a special meeting of the stockholders of the Northern Seed Company, held Saturday evening, E. S. DeLancey, manager of the company for several years, resigned, and A. B. Cox of Courtenay, was elected to fill his place. The annual meeting of the company will be held on September 2, when new officers of the company will be elected. In the meantime, Mr. Cox will take active management of the company.

Mr. Cox stated this afternoon that he will immediately give up his business connections at Courtenay, Kensal and Sutton, where the Cox-Nelson company has several large stores, in order to push the business of the Northern Seed Company. His place at Courtenay will be taken by his son, Edward B. Cox, formerly of this city, but who has been living in Courtenay for several months.

The Northern Seed Company is one of Valley City's largest business enterprises, and has grown in a few years from a small beginning to a place where it has secured recognition in every city in the Northwest. As an advertisement for the city, it has been worth as much as any establishment ever located here, with the possible exception of the State Normal school, and every season literally millions of packets of seed are shipped out bearing the name of The Northern Seed company of Valley City.

Mr. Cox the new manager, brings to the company a long business experience whose success insures a conservative management and steady growth.

Graduation Exercises At the State Normal

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

With the giving out of thirty-nine diplomas to graduates of the regular Normal school tomorrow morning the year will close with the largest class ever set out by a State Normal school in the northwest. The total for the year will be 206.

The graduates of the rural classes will give an interesting program at the auditorium tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock, to which the public is invited. There are more than thirty in this class and they have completed a year of hard work. Their exercises will be under Prof. A. B. Wallace, head of the rural department.

In the regular Normal classes there will be 33 professional diplomas and six for those who have completed the two year advanced course. The presentation of diplomas will be made by Pres. G. A. McFarland at the morning exercises, or in his absence, by Prof. Andrews of the department of English.

TIEUP ON DULUTH DOCKS

Strikebreakers Unable to Catch Up With Back Work.

Duluth, Aug. 7.—Conditions are not yet normal at the Northern Pacific docks, owing to the fact, say the officials, that there were so many boats waiting to be unloaded when the strikebreakers were imported that they have not been able to catch up with the work.

It is said that the new men have refused to handle 3,000 barrels of cement in the hold of the steamship Lakewood. The men also refuse to work nights.

MARINES LAND IN NICARAGUA

Lawlessness Disappears With Arrival of American Troops.

Washington, Aug. 7.—American bluejackets and marines were landed in Nicaragua for the protection of citizens of the United States and their property.

Pretty Home Wedding Occurred at Noon

WELL KNOWN YOUNG WOMAN OF VALLEY CITY AND FINLEY MAN MARRIED YESTERDAY

At high noon Tuesday, August 6th at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Arne Olson, occurred the marriage of Arnetta R. Olson, of this city, to E. H. Gilbertson, of Finley, N. D., Rev. Hendrickson officiating. Only immediate friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony. The bridal party entered the living room where an improvised altar and bower had been arranged, to the strains of Lohengrin Wedding March, played by Mrs. E. Nyström. The bride wore an elaborate entrain gown of cream satin trimmed with pearls and carried a beautiful bouquet of bridal roses. The groom wore the conventional black, the attendants of the bride were Miss Ragna Lund, cousin of the bride, of Fargo and Clara Gilbertson, of Portland, N. D., sister of the groom, they wore pretty gowns of cream lace and carried cream roses. Albert Gilbertson, of Finley, N. D. and E. M. Runice, of Fargo, attended the groom. Just before the ceremony Miss Lubelle Wilson, of Fargo, sang "O, Promise Me." The rooms were daintily decorated in a color scheme of pink and white carried out with sweet peas and roses. Immediately following the ceremony, the wedding bell, which hung in a bower was rung by Miss Lund causing a shower of pink and white roses to drop upon the bride and groom. A substantial six course dinner was served, the table being artistically decorated in flowers; a small bouquet of sweet peas completed the place card of each guest present. Toasts were given to the bride and groom and heartily responded to. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbertson left on the evening train for the Twin Cities and for Isle Royal in Lake Superior. They will make their home in Finley, N. D. where Mr. Gilbertson is the cashier of the 1st National Bank. The bride is a graduate of the class of 1908 of the Valley City Normal School and has been instructing in music and drawing since her graduation. Their many friends extend congratulations and wish them happiness.

The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilbertson, of Portland, N. D., Miss Ragna Lund, Lubella Wilson, E. M. Runice and H. O. Lund all of Fargo; Albert Gilbertson and Gustav Gilbertson of Portland, N. D.

First No-Hit Game in Base Ball This Season

LELIVELT RETIRES TWENTY-SEVEN MEN ON STRIKE-OUTS.

Toledo, Ohio, Aug. 6.—After the terrific walloping the Millers handed the Mudhens Thursday the Toledo fans were prepared to see a sweet revenge perpetrated yesterday at Swayne field. But, Oswald, such was not the case. Instead of a victory the Hens were made the victims of that one great feat, mecca sought by every pitcher, a no-hit game. During the nine long innings of Toledo attempts to get to the Millers' most recent and brilliant recruit from the ranks of Spavindom, but twenty-seven Hens were allowed to take their regular time at bat. One pass was issued by the spitball artist, but his support evened up the thing by pulling off a neat double play.

Only one other no-hit game has been registered by a pitcher in any of the big leagues this season. George Mullin, the old Detroit standby, was the other gent who pulled off the famous game with St. Louis, when as a celebration of his birthday, he tossed a no-hit shutout.

Lelivelt faltered but once in his stunt of passing the Hens along in one-two-three order. In the first inning he passed the first man up. From that time on he never was anything but complete master of the situation. His record came mainly through use of the spitter. With his damp delivery working like a dream, he showed wonderful control, cutting the corners and slipping them over without the slightest difficulty.

No-Hit Contestants Are Rare Things

Lelivelt's performance against Toledo yesterday was the first no-hit game pitched in the American association since Aug. 30, 1910. On that day Schardt of Milwaukee turned the trick against the Indianapolis club. There were three no-hit contests in the association last year. Laroy of St. Paul did the job against Indianapolis in July and Robinson of Toledo shut out Kansas City without a blow in June.

No-hit games appear to be getting more uncommon each year. To date not one has been recorded in the National league this year. George Mullin of Detroit boasts the only one in the American this season. On July 4 he did the stunt against the St. Louis Browns.

Pursuant to a call from Chairman H. N. Tucker, of the Progressive Republican League, the executive committee of the league met here last evening at the Rudolf Hotel. CONFESSION OF FAITH BY COLONEL ROOSEVELT IN KEYNOTE ADDRESS

Colonel Strikes Out Boldly in Expressing Views On Democratic and Republican Parties.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—Theodore Roosevelt made his "confession of faith" to the national Progressive convention. The former president struck out boldly into new ground, advocating measures which he said frankly would be denounced as either socialism or anarchy. The delegates listened to his speech with the understanding that they must either adopt a platform substantially in consonance with his views or look elsewhere for a nomination for the presidency.

"The two old parties," he said, "are husks, with no real soul within either, divided on artificial lines, boss ridden and privilege controlled, each a jumble of incongruous elements, and neither daring to speak out wisely and fearlessly what should be said on the vital issues of the day."

As opposed to this incongruity and insincerity of action he asserted that the national Progressive platform will be "a contract with the people," with definite and concrete provisions to be carried out if the people ratify the contract on election day as exactly and honestly "as if it were actually enforceable under the law."

Roosevelt Creed in Brief.

The real danger to privilege comes from the new party and from the new party alone.

We should provide for: Presidential primaries. The election of United States senators by popular vote.

Corrupt practices acts. The recall of judicial decisions on constitutional limitations.

Our aim is to control business—not to strangle it.

I believe in a protective tariff, but I believe in it as a principle, approached from the standpoint of the interests of the whole people and not as a bundle of preferences to be given to favored individuals.

We believe there exists an imperative need for prompt legislation for the improvement of our national currency system.

There can be no greater issue than that of conservation in this country.

The Panama canal must be fortified.

We do not impugn the courts, but emancipate them from standing in the way of social justice. The people must keep in their own hands the right of interpreting their own constitution when their public servants differ regarding the interpretation.

Neither Anarchy Nor Socialism. These propositions are neither anarchy nor socialism, but a corrective to socialism and an antidote to anarchy.

Our first charge is to prevent human waste; eliminate the dead weight of orphanage, depleted craftsmanship, crippled workers and workers suffering from trade diseases, of casual labor and of insecure old age.

Wage scales in all industries should be filed as public documents, and minimum wage commissions should be established in the states and the nation.

We stand for a living wage, and hold that in the continuous industries eight hours should be the maximum of labor, especially in the molten metal industry.

The premature employment of children is abnormal and should be prohibited. So also is the employment of women where they have to stand continually.

Working women have the same need to combine for protection as working men; the ballot is as necessary for one class as for the other. The government must cooperate with the farmer to make the farm more productive.

Says He Will Do No Wrong.

Summing up his "confession of faith" Colonel Roosevelt said:

"I will do anything for the people except what my conscience tells me is wrong and that I can do for no man or set of men; I hold that a man cannot well serve the people unless he serves his conscience; but I hold also that where his conscience bids him refuse to do what the people desire, he should not desire to continue in office against their will. Our government system should be so shaped that the public servant who cannot conscientiously carry out the wishes of the people, shall, at their desire, leave his office and not misrepresent them in office; and I hold that the public servant can by so doing, better than in any other way, serve both them and his conscience. But win or lose, we shall not falter. Whatever fate may, at the moment, overtake us, the movement itself will not stop. Our cause is based on the eternal principles of righteousness, and even though we who now lead may for the time fall, in the end the cause itself shall triumph. We stand at Armageddon, and we battle for the Lord."

TRAPPED BY MEXICAN REBELS

Detachment of Troops Faces Torture and Death.

NO FEDERAL IS SPARED

Indians in Rebellion Execute Every Government Soldier Captured and Should Be of High Rank He is First Tortured.

Mexico City, Aug. 7.—Revolted Sierra Juarez Indians in Northern Oaxaca have surrounded a federal detachment near Ixtlan, according to reports reaching here. Unless the troops can cut their way out of the trap they probably will fall victims of torture, because it is reported here the Indians have suspended personal guarantees. Every federal soldier captured is executed, unless he happens to be of high rank. Then he is tortured before being put to death.

Two soldiers who were caught near Ixtapec were stretched on a rack, then Indians with sharp knives pared off the bottoms of their feet. After this the soldiers were forced to walk long distances. One died under the torture. The other reached the goal set by the rebels, but immediately he was hanged.

The Indians have been in revolt several weeks. They claim they were not properly treated while negotiating with the government for settlement of a land dispute.

The Soft Answer. "Don't you believe a soft answer turns away wrath? I tried it the other day with my wife." "And she got mad?" "Did she? She asked me what her biscuits tasted like, and I merely said 'mush.'"—Baltimore American.

TO DECIDE POINT IN CONTROVERSY

Belasco Offers to Produce Two Plays for Court.

New York, Aug. 7.—David Belasco, who, with William D. de Mille, has been accused of stealing the theme for the play known as "The Woman" from Abraham Goldknopf's play, "Tainted Philanthropy," made the novel proposition to United States Judge Holt that he would produce at his own expense both plays the first week in October to show that Goldknopf's claim is unfounded.

This came as a climax to a heated argument between Belasco, Goldknopf and Adolph Freyer, counsel for Goldknopf, during which Belasco declared he was the victim of a conspiracy, and that the two plays bore no similarity.

Judge Holt willingly accepted the proposition made by Belasco and agreed to decide the suit brought by Goldknopf after witnessing the performance of both plays.

DARROW TRIAL NEARING END

Taking of Testimony Probably Will Be Over in Two Days.

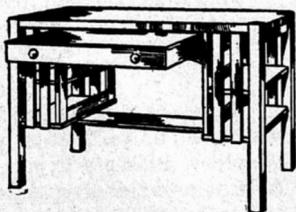

Los Angeles, Aug. 7.—Two more days may end the taking of evidence in the bribery trial of Clarence S. Darrow. Little remains now in the way of testimony, as the rebuttal evidence of the prosecution is expected to be without any of the sensational features that have accompanied the cases in chief of prosecution and defense.

Although the defense practically closed when Darrow left the stand the formal ending of the defendant's case was expected with the call to the stand of Lincoln Steffens for further cross-examination.
