NEW EVERY MORNING. (Contributed.) Every day is a fresh beginning; Every morn is the world made new. You who are weary and sorrow and sinning, Hear is a beautiful hope for you, A hope for you and a hope for me, All the past things are past and over. The tasks are done, and the tears are shed. Yesterday's errors let yesterday cover; Yesterday's wounds, which smarted and bled, Are healed with the healing which night has shed, Yesterday now is a part of forever, Bound up in a sheaf which God holds tight, With glad days, and sad days, and bad days, which never Shall visit us more with their bloom and their blight, Their fullness of sunshine or sorrowful night. Let them go, since we cannot recall them; Cannot undo, and cannot atone, God in His mercy receive, forgive them. Only the new days are our own, Today is our's and today alone.
