Take Care of Yourself in Time

Kidney weakness is the fore-runner of two dangerous diseases—Rheumatism and Bright's Disease.

IT TAKES BUT LITTLE TO BRING THIS ABOUT
—the weakness, slight at first is usually thought insignificant and therefore neglected.
To avoid serious complications, treatment should start with the first hint of trouble—

NYAL'S KIDNEY PILLS
should be kept handy, ready for instance use

A pill or two now and then insures perfect freedom from kidney disorders.
It means strong, healthy kidneys, regular in their action and the blood free from injurious waste matter.

Worth much more—but only fifty cents the box.

PETERMAN-TURNER

Friends in the city will be interested in the following account.

Dan Cupid celebrated with several weddings recently. On Wednesday August 7th at 2:30 p. m., at the residence of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Joe Peterman, Rev. Shore of the Episcopal church united in matrimonial bonds Mary Geneva Peterman of Lisbon to Reuben Stevens Turner of Fargo. The rooms were nicely decorated with sweet peas and other flowers and the beautiful ring ceremony added charm to the occasion.

The wedding was largely a family affair relatives and a few near friend being the only guests.

The bride looked radiant in a modern gown of white satin trimmed with Bourden rose point lace and pearl trimmings. She carried bride's roses. The going away gown was of dark blue waled cloth with bronze colored gloves and hat to match. The groom was dressed in the conventional suit for such occasions and was as happy as a lark.

After partaking of a bountiful luncheon the happy pair departed on a honeymoon trip to Minneapolis and the great lakes and will be at home to their friends, at Fargo in the Marlborough flats Eight street south after October 1.

The outside guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Turner of Fargo, parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Turner, Florence, Gladys and Helen Turner, sisters of the groom; R. S. Mille and wife of Gackel, Joe and Charles Peterman, the former from Gackel and the latter from Montana brothers and sister of the bride; Robert Candor of Cogswell and Miss Hazel Stevens of Detroit as well as Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lucas of our city uncle and aunt of the groom.

The bride is an accomplished young lady having graduated from the Lisbon high school class of 1907, student Oliver college, Michigan 1908 and 1909. Graduate Valley City Normal, N. D., 1910 and she has been teaching since at Tower City, N. D.

The groom was assistant to E. C. Lucas in the drug business here for several years, but is now associated with his father H. R. Turner, Law, Loans & Collections, Fargo and is a capable, energetic young gentleman that will make his way in the world. The Free Press with other friends of the family extends congratulations and good wishes for their prosperity and happiness.—Lisbon Free Press.
