HAPPY THO' MARRIED?

There are unhappy married lives, but a large percentage of these unhappy homes are due to the illness of the wife, mother or daughter. The feelings of nervousness, the befogged mind, the ill-temper, the pale and wrinkled face, hollow and circled eyes, result most often from those disorders peculiar to women. For the woman to be happy and good-looking she must naturally have good health. Dragging-down feelings, hysteria, hot-flashes or constantly returning pains and aches—are too great a drain upon a woman's vitality and strength. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription restores weak and sick women to sound health by regulating and correcting the local disorders which are generally responsible for the above distressing symptoms.

Mrs. Dickover.

"I suffered greatly for a number of years and for the past three years was so bad that life was a misery to me," writes Mrs. B. F. Dickover, of Utica, Ohio, Route 4. "The doctors told me I would have to go to a hospital before I would ever be better. A year ago this winter and spring I was worse than ever before. At each period I suffered like one in torment. I am the mother of six children. I was so bad for five months that I knew something must be done, so I wrote to Dr. R. V. Pierce, telling him as nearly as I could how I suffered. He outlined a course of treatment which I followed to the letter. I took two bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and a fifty-cent bottle of 'Smart-Weed,' and have never suffered much since. I wish I could tell every suffering woman the world over what a boon Dr. Pierce's medicines are. There is no use wasting time and money doctoring with anything else or any one else."

The Medical Adviser by R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y., answers hosts of delicate questions about which every woman, single or married ought to know. Sent free on receipt of 21 stamps to pay for wrapping and mailing only.

Dixon Wants a General Investigation

DIDN'T KNOW ALL CAMPAIGN MANAGERS WERE CALLED BEFORE COMMITTEE

Special to the Times-Record.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 4.—Senator Roosevelt's campaign manager, today told the Clapp committee that he had been reliably informed that Thomas F. Ryan and A. H. Plant, Auditor Southey, contributed heavily to Oscar Underwood's campaign; that Joseph Davies spent $38,000 in Wilson's pre-convention campaign; that Chas. Taft spent $600,000 for the president, and that "leading financiers of New York spent large sums for Harmon.

J. C. Cannon, first witness before the Clapp investigating committee investigating campaign funds, testified he audited every account of the expenditures by the late Bliss, and had no knowledge of the contributions to the republican fund. Specifically he said he knew nothing of the $100,000 contribution John D. Archbold said was made by the Standard Oil company to Roosevelt's 1904 campaign. He knew nothing of any contributions he said, to any national campaign fund.

Dixon followed Cannon and testified that he had collected funds other than those handled by the progressive treasurer, Hooker, who informed the committee yesterday that the total expenditures of the Roosevelt national committee were about $140,000.

"I would like to know the full scope of the investigation," demanded Dixon, interrupting the examination. "Does this include as well the republican and democratic campaign funds?"

"Yes," replied Clapp. "Of course," continued Dixon, "the general impression is that this is rather an investigation of only the pre-convention fund of Roosevelt. Now as a member of the senate I want to see the campaign funds of Taft, Wilson and Harmon also investigated, and I think this should be done before election. I don't think this committee should go only into funds of Roosevelt."

Dixon insisted he was sure that the committee was investigating only Roosevelt's expenses. He added he wanted the committee to summon the managers of Clark, Underwood, Harmon and Taft.

"Don't you know all of those men have been summoned here?" demanded Pomerene.

"No I don't know it," said Dixon. "Well you ought to find out," said Oliver.

Clapp told the witness he had already given out the list showing that all named had been summoned, and he demanded Dixon answer questions.

"The country wants fair play," returned Dixon. "It wants the other men examined within the next few days before election."

"Senator Dixon," exclaimed Clapp, half rising from his seat, "the suggestion that there has not been fair play here is a reflection on the one man in this committee who is friendly to Col. Roosevelt."

Then followed the argument among committee members culminating in a general demand that Dixon be examined about Roosevelt funds. Clapp told Dixon he could tell what he knew about the other candidates later.

"I would send him to jail," declared Pomerene as Dixon closed his remarks to the committee.

Dixon then told what contributions he had personally received. The committee agreed to consider Dixon's demand that the call Charles Taft to testify where he spent $600,000 for Taft's renomination. Dixon renewed his charge that the committee was against Roosevelt and testified he had spent $96,000 in the progressive campaign, not included in the figures presented yesterday by Progressive Treasurer Hooker.

EXHIBIT IS GOOD

Mark Smith, Prof. James and Prof. Henry came with the Barnes county HIGH SCHOOL AGRICULTURE

Spokane, Wash., Oct. 3.—Courses in agriculture were introduced in the high schools of Spokane this fall with notable success. At the Lewis & Clark 70 enrolled for the course, and 60 at the North Central. Although the course is classified as informational rather than scientific considerable practical work is being done in connection with the Spokane Interstate fair, now in progress, and will be continued at the National Apple show in Spokane, November 11 to 17. Trips will be made to nearby orchards during pruning season.

COOPERSTOWN SCRIBE HERE.

Percy Trubshaw, the erudite and handsome editor of the Cooperstown Courier arrived in the city this morning, Bull Moosing his way from Cooperstown to Fargo. Mr. Trubshaw admits he don't know just where he is at on some political subjects, but declares he is pawing for Theodore Roosevelt twenty-four hours out of twenty-four. A host of friends and admirers greeted Mr. Trubshaw when he arrived this morning, and he is being well cared for while waiting for the Normal concert this evening.

SUMMONED FROM OREGON.

Mrs. Charles Ellerbeck arrived here this morning from Marshfield, Ore., summoned by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Thos. Lavery.

RETURNED HOME.

Mrs. M. W. Boyd and children returned home today after a seven weeks' visit in Hillsboro, Wilmar and the Twin Cities.

TOWER CITY VISITORS.

Miss Hazel Stevens and Miss Laura Livingstone of the Tower City schools and Mr. and Mrs. Sherman will be among those from Tower City who will be guests in the city tomorrow to attend the Schumann Heink concert.

DANCE ENJOYED.

The dance given last evening at the Armory under the management of Roy Darling was very much enjoyed. Although there was a comparatively small attendance, the music furnished by the Little German band was good, and those present report a good time.

MONDAY, OCT. 14, 1912.

The above date will be one worth remembering for at that time the "White Ribbon" Special will reach Valley City. Mrs. Lillian M. Stevens of Portland, Maine, National President of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, will speak at the Normal school and also Miss Anna Gordon, president-at-large. Mrs. Edith Smith Davis, who has entertained audiences in Valley City, before, will have a message. Everyone is invited to attend this treat at the Normal.

Jamestown is with good reason proud of the White Way recently installed. But just wait until Valley City has her new lighting machinery, and Fifth Avenue is decorated with the white lights.

New Methods In The Campaign

NATIONAL, CONGRESSIONAL AND STATE COMMITTEES TO ASSUME RESPONSIBILITY

New methods of conducting the republican campaign are to be followed in North Dakota says an authorized statement. Instead of all being under one tent, the national, the congressional and the state tickets will be fought for separately. In the old days the state central committee bore the brunt of all the battles, but since the last state wide campaign lately, North Dakota has been divided into three congressional districts. It has been determined by the state central committee that its duties will be confined entirely to the election of the primary nominees on the republican ticket for state and legislative offices.

This will necessitate a congressional campaign committee in each of the three districts, which will no doubt co-operate with the national congressional committee. All the candidates for congress will be surrounded by their own personal friends and wage an individual and personal rather than a congressional campaign.

The fate of the republican electors will be left with National Committeeman Marshall.

In former campaigns the chairman and members of the executive committee have at times been charged with devoting too much or too little attention to national affairs. They have been compelled to bear the burden of the entire fight and dissatisfactions have arisen. This year responsibility is fixed. Each candidate for congress can have his own personal committee. National Committeeman Marshall will be held responsible for the electors and the state central committee will be praised or blamed alone for what they do on the state ticket.

The members of the executive committee are confident of their ability to elect the entire republican state ticket and draw a large majority of the members of the legislature.

WHITE LINGERIE VS. SERGE.

Spokane, Wash., Oct. 3.—The relative merits of white lingerie and serge of the same color for midwinter wear occasioned an acrimonious debate among girls of the Spokane North Central high school senior class recently. After two hours of exciting forensics white serge "took the count" and the majority determined they would wear white lingerie at the commencement exercises in January. To show still further their contempt for cool weather, they gravely decided to wear no gloves, and to wear low necks and short sleeves. This was decided so partially that the cost to the girls might be kept down. The limit of $10 is placed on the dress material.

A. C. BULLETIN

The question keeps coming up as to whether the light frost we have had has been serious enough to injure corn for seed. In fact, here is one of the letters:

"I would be pleased to have your opinion as to the value of corn picked for seed at this time. Corn is fairly well matured but light frosts recently have frosted the blades and stalks somewhat. Would corn picked now be good for seed? Kindly let me know also the best way to handle corn picked for seed at this time."

This letter was answered as follows by Prof. Shepperd:

"The light frosts we have had will not injure your seed corn at all. It takes quite a freeze to hurt corn that is even approaching the glazing stage-out, of course, the frost killed the blades and stopped the growth. It was not cold enough to injure the germ. Corn picked now and dried out thoroughly before freezing weather will make good seed corn."

A great treat is in store for the people of Valley City when the speakers from the "White Ribbon" special arrive in Valley City. The Normal auditorium should be filled to overflowing to hear Mrs. Lillian Stevens, national president of the W. C. T. U. and Miss Gordon, vice president. Both old and young are cordially invited to listen to these pleasing speakers. Don't forget the date—Monday, Oct. 14th.

State Humane Officer Blake closed a dance hall at Mandan because some of the young people who attended were without parents of sufficient sense to keep them at home.
