

MAN AND THE

Dr. R. V. Pierce of Buffalo, author of the Common Sense Medical Adviser, says "why does not the farmer treat his own body as he treats the land he cultivates. He puts back in phosphate what he takes out in crops, or the land would grow poor. The farmer should put back into his body the vital elements exhausted by labor, or by ill-health induced by some chronic disease." Further, he says, "the great value of my Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is in its vitalizing power. It gives strength to the stomach and purify to the blood. It is like the phosphates which supply nature with the substances that build up the crops. The far-reaching action of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is due to its effect on the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases that begin in the stomach are cured through the stomach. A bilious spell is simply the result of an effort made by the liver to catch up when over-worked and exhausted. I have found the 'Discovery' to be unsurpassed as a liver regulator and rich blood-maker."

MISS LOTTIE KNISKELY of Perth, Kansas, says: "I will here add my testimony of the effectiveness of your remedy upon myself. I was troubled with indigestion for two years or more. Doctored with three different doctors besides taking numerous kinds of so-called 'stomach cures' but received no permanent relief. I was run down, could not sleep at night with the pain in my chest, caused by gas on the stomach. Was weak, could eat scarcely anything although I was hungry nearly all the time. About one year and a half ago I began taking your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and after having taken several bottles am nearly cured of stomach trouble. Can now eat without distress and have gained fifteen pounds in weight. I thank you for your remedy and wish you all success in your good work."

Fargo Forum Sold To Crookston Man

FARGO, Nov. 12.—By order of Judge Peilock made in district court at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon the Fargo Forum and assets were sold by Receiver H. F. Emery to J. P. Dotson, editor of the Crookston Times.

The price paid was $52,500, of which $10,000 in cash was paid to the receiver by the new owner yesterday. Cash will be paid to the amount of $22,500, and a mortgage of $32,000 will be placed on the plant.

The amount paid for the plant in cash and mortgage totals hardly more than the debts which the paper has contracted in recent years. The obligations of the Forum totals nearly $100,000.

Two bidders appeared in court, both making the amount of their bid the same but proposing to pay it by different methods. The unsuccessful bidder was Cal Steadman of Minneapolis.

According to his announcement Mr. Dotson will take charge of the paper today and will make an announcement of the future policy of the Forum in the edition issued this afternoon.

THE TABOO ON MODERATE DRINKING

The use of alcohol is receiving some hard knocks these days. A prominent railway system, not content with the general rule heretofore in force on railways forbidding employees to drink while on duty, now forbids employees to indulge at all in drinking out of employment hours, or in any other conduct which will impair their health or make them less alert and less capable while on duty. The owner of one of the nation's best—a very prominent baseball team—announces that moderation in drinking is not sufficient; the players on his team must leave alcohol entirely alone and abandon cigars. The justification for such rules may be found not only in the difficulty of being moderate in indulgence, but also in the cumulative and after-effects of dissipation. The world is moving; the old fetch of "personal liberty" at whatever cost of danger to the public at large seems to be losing its power. The Journal of the American Medical Association thinks that the time may come when every man to whom the life and safety of others are entrusted may be expected or even required to be as abstemious as ball players and railway employees.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Winterer left Monday morning for Winnipeg to attend the annual banquet and ball of King Edward Perfection K. T., which will take place tomorrow and will be preceded by a field day entertainment. Mr. Winterer is Past Grand Commander of the Knights Templar of Grand Body of the state.

THE VERDICT OF POLAR EXPLORERS

In so far as they were able to judge from all the data presented in the final books of both explorers the following explorers have given it as their opinion that Dr. Cook reached the Pole, and that Com. Peary's similar report coming later is supplementary proof of the first victory:

- Capt. Roald Amundsen, discoverer of the South Pole.
- General A. W. Greely, U. S. A., commander of the "Lady Franklin Bay Expedition."
- Rear Admiral W. S. Schley, U. S. N., commander of the Greely Relief Expedition.
- Capt. Otto Sverdrup, discoverer of the Sverdrup Archipelago.
- Capt. J. E. Bernier, commanding Canadian Arctic Expedition.
- Prof. O. Nordenskjold, commanding Swedish Antarctic Expedition.
- Prof. G. Frederick Wright, author of the "Ice Age of North America."
- Capt. E. B. Baldwin, commanding the Baldwin-Ziegler Expedition.
- Capt. Johan Menander, Mr. Theodore Lerner, Mr. Dillon Wallace, Mr. Max Van Ryselbergh, Prof. W. H. Brewer, Prof. Julius Payer, Prof. L. L. Dyche, Capt. B. S. Osborn, Mr. Henry Bilderbeck, Dr. Middleton Smith, Mr. J. Knowles Hare, Mr. Albert Operli, Mr. F. F. Taylor, Mr. Maurice McConnell, Mr. Robert Stein, Dr. T. S. Dedrick, Mr. Ralph Shalwald, Mr. S. J. Entricken, Mr. J. S. Warmbath, Hon. Jules Leclercq, Mr. L. C. Bement and Prof. Georges Lecointe, secretary of the International Bureau of Polar Research.

PREVENTING HYDROPHOBIA

(W. C. Palmer, agricultural editor, N. D. Agricultural college, Fargo.)
Hydrophobia or rabies is a dreaded disease. Press Bulletin No. 55 from the North Dakota Experiment Station by Dr. L. Van Es is on rabies. It tells how the different domestic animals act when affected. It gives methods of procedure in case of being bitten by a mad dog or suspected mad dog or animal. It gives the following rules for preventing rabies:

1. Keep the canine population down to a minimum by a rigidly enforced dog law, destroying all dogs on which no tax is paid.
 2. Do not depend too much on compulsory muzzling, as this is usually done in such a perfunctory manner as to constitute no protection at all, while when done in an adequate manner, the muzzling frequently amounts to cruelty.
 3. When rabies exists in a community, compel all owners of dogs to chain their animals and have all dogs running loose destroyed, whether suspected or not.
- By no means all animals bitten by a rabid dog take the disease. It is, however, a wise plan to assume that they will and to confine the animals bitten in a secure enclosure that they in turn will not transmit the disease to others.
- In the case of animals we have no means available to prevent infection after a rabid bite has been received. In man, however, the Pasteur treatment, consisting of a preventive inoculation is a rather certain means of preventing the disease. When a person is bitten by a rabid dog, it is advisable for him to submit to the treatment of the nearest Pasteur institute. In North Dakota such treatment may be secured at the Public Health Laboratory at Grand Forks.

Little Master George Deem was a delightful host to ten of his little friends Monday afternoon at the home of Miss Mary Deem on Fifth avenue. The event was in honor of Master George's birthday anniversary and the hours were from 3 o'clock until 6. The first hours were spent with child-like games and later Miss Deem served a prettily appointed birthday luncheon. In the center of the table was the beautiful birthday cake with four candles and a menu of good things which children enjoy was served.

Baker Dragged From Cell and Lynched

ORDERLY MOB DRAG MURDERER FROM CELL—SWUNG FROM CROSS ARM AND SHOT.

Steele, N. D., Nov. 8.—An orderly mob of fifteen or twenty people at an early hour this morning overpowered Sheriff Filbin at the courthouse at Steele, took George W. Baker to the stock yards near the city and hanged him to the cross arm over the gate of the entrance to the yards.

Sheriff Filbin this morning states that it was only three minutes after the first blow was struck at the outside of the jail until the mob had possession of the prisoner and was on the way to the stock yards with him. The sheriff made every effort to stop the work of the mob, but they were not to be denied their revenge and did not hesitate.

Deputy Sheriff Armstrong had been at the jail as a special guard ever since Baker has been confined here, but last night he was relieved and allowed to go home, so the sheriff was without assistance and, as the mob was armed, had no chance to make resistance.

Wore White Handkerchiefs.

Every member of the mob was masked with a white handkerchief, and from the actions and the way things were carried out it was a very carefully planned affair. When Baker had been strung up there were a number of shots fired, and an examination of the body showed that he had been shot at least ten times. The condition of his face shows that he was dragged from the courthouse to the scene of the lynching, as dirt and grit is ground into the skin, making the features unrecognizable.

Baker was in jail waiting trial for the murder of his wife and her father at Dawson, Oct. 30. He had come from California and committed the crime within an hour after reaching town, and from every indication the crime was one of the most cold-blooded affairs in the history of the state. Baker having killed both the man and the woman and then fired several bullets into their bodies after they were cold in death.

All that prevented a lynching on the day of the murder was the fact that the prisoner was spirited out of town early in the morning before the most of the citizens became aware of the fact that a crime had been committed. It is stated here that there were none of the residents of Steele concerned in the affair but that all were outsiders and it is stated that some were from Dawson and some from Jamestown where relatives of the murdered woman live.

Janitor Murray, who was in the building at the time the mob took possession, states that there was no chance to overcome the determination of the members. He saw Baker when he was going down stairs and said a rope was around his neck. Baker kept his feet until the bottom of the stairs was reached and then fell and was dragged on his face for three blocks to the stock yards.

As soon as the mob had left the building the sheriff called up the telephone operator and told her to notify as many as possible that Baker had been taken from the building and for her to call all the assistance she could get. The sheriff, the coroner and a few other citizens went to the stock yards and cut down the body about 2 o'clock in the morning and a guard was established until daylight when the body was taken to the court house and an inquest is now being held.

There have been no arrests made and the authorities will not give out any information as to whether or not there will be.

The combination sale at Riedman's place Saturday was a very successful one and Mart Mason the auctioneer who had the matter in hand says that they may be able to make this a weekly occurrence if those who have property to sell will take an active interest in the matter. Several horses, buggies, wagons, harnesses, plows, scales, manure spreaders and other property were sold at fairly satisfactory figures.

Oscar Iverson, living near Swartwood, Bowman county, was shot in the hip recently by a neighbor, and the Bowman County Citizen severely criticised the states attorney because he refused to issue a warrant for the party who did the shooting.

Sues Pastor On Minneapolis Land Deal

FORMER MINISTER OF METHODIST CHURCH IS IN TROUBLE IN MINNEAPOLIS.

Minneapolis, Nov. 12.—Alleging false representations in the sale of property, Mrs. L. J. Hatch, Penn avenue, has brought suit in the county district court to recover $350 from Rev. Thomas E. Green, former pastor of the Foss Methodist Episcopal church, and at one time pastor of the Valley City, N. D., Methodist church. Drill & Drill, her attorneys, filed the complaint Monday.

Mrs. Hatch alleges that when she purchased the old parsonage of Foss church at 2020 James avenue north, in March, 1911, from Mr. Green, her former spiritual adviser, he represented the lot that went with the building as having a frontage of fifty-five feet, and she paid $3,300 for it. She says that the lot her minister showed her was marked out with walls. When the title to the property came to be examined it was found that the lot on which the old parsonage stood was only forty-five feet wide, as ten feet of the property of the adjoining church had been fenced in with the parsonage lot.

Mrs. Hatch says that Mr. Green knew all about the true limits of the lot and that the ten feet she lost is worth $350.

Mrs. Hatch also says that when she asked for an abstract of the title to the property Mr. Green told her that it was in Philadelphia and could not be obtained without trouble. After the transaction the abstract turned up and it was then found that ten feet of the property sold belonged to the church.

Mr. Green was pastor of the Foss church until one year ago, when he went to St. Louis, Mo., to accept a charge. There he was sued by Mrs. Anna Creighton, Spiritwood, N. D., to recover a cash loan of $500. He settled this suit by giving Mrs. Creighton $400, but the St. Louis congregation was not satisfied with the settlement, and he was advised to resign.

A JAPANESE LUNCHEON.

Affairs which savor of the Flowery Kingdom are always attractive and popular. Write the invitations upon Japanese letter paper that comes apparently by the yard, cutting off a sufficient quantity for the note. The envelopes are long and narrow. To make the writing more mysterious, spell the words up and down, one letter after another, instead of across the page. Have the door opened by a maid in kimono, and one similarly attired in the dressing room. Decorate with all the Japanese fans, parasols, screens and other Japanese articles that are obtainable in the way of embroideries, etc. Use chrysanthemums, cherry blossoms and apple blossoms (artificial ones will answer if the real are not to be had). Above the tables suspend a parasol filled with favors wrapped in Japanese paper and tied with delicate pink, blue, green and lavender ribbon which hang over the edge of the parasol and go to the places where they are held by Japanese boxes filled with sweetmeats. From each rib of the parasol hang a wee lantern. For place cards use small Japanese fans. Have the waitresses in kimonos and serve the following menu: Fruit cocktail, rice soup, lobster salad, creamed chicken with hot rice and potato puffs, Parker house rolls, small cakes and pistachio ice cream in fan shape molds. Japanese permissions, Formosa, Oolong, and rice cakes.

Trees Will Be Carried Free Into This State

In order to encourage the planting of trees in North Dakota railroads passing through the state have agreed to carry free of charge freight shipments of trees and shrubbery which are ordered by municipalities, counties or townships. The railroads would be willing to extend the privilege to individuals but the interstate commerce laws make it impossible to do so.

Several agencies, including the North Dakota Better Farming association and the North Dakota Agricultural college, will wage a campaign to induce communities to take steps to plant more trees. Trees are one of the great needs of the state, say experts. The railroads themselves are taking the lead and trees are being planted on the right of way of every company operating here.

The drifting of soil is one of the big problems of farming in North Dakota, says W. C. Palmer of the North Dakota Agricultural college. "At the Canadian experiment station at Saskatoon the problem has been solved and the planting of trees was the solution. When the station was started 25 years ago it was flat prairie. Now from a short distance the farm looks like a forest. A belt of trees two or three rods wide has been planted around the entire farm and the fields are separated by double rows of trees. These trees break the force of the wind and the soil no longer drifts."

Judge Irgens reports the following marriage licenses for November: Nov. 1—Ole H. Gillund and Miss Pauline Matilda Miller, both of Nome. Nov. 4—Wells H. Gage of Page, and Miss Minnie Peter of Ellsberry. Nov. 4—Rudolph Kisofsky and Miss Matilda E. Trapp both of Fingal. Nov. 4—John Shanks of Worthington and Miss Anna Mary Barr of Ellsberry. Nov. 6—Enns Severson of Spring Grove, Minn., and Miss Emma Brox, of Greenland, N. D. Nov. 8—Simon P. Hinschberger of Sanborn, and Miss Celia M. Keating, of Delplaine, Minn. Nov. 9—William Adcock of Cuba, and Miss Nora Mosen, of Nelson, N. D. Nov. 11—Jens Gregerson of Nelson and Miss Myrtle Critchfield. Nov. 11—E. Carlson of Nottmiller, and Miss Lina Byberg of Grand Prairie.

A wheat straw paper mill may be added to the industries of Minot, if plans now being considered by Twin City business men are carried through successfully. The promoters of the scheme believe that there is an excellent opportunity for a concern of this sort in North Dakota.
