

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY

Rev. J. E. Lilledahl preached in the city of Litchville Sunday.

The members of the Tuesday Night Card Club will meet this evening at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gordon.

Miss Marjorie Coop after spending the holidays with relatives and friends here returned to Jamestown yesterday to resume her studies at St. John's Academy.

Frank Stoddard, came down from Courtenay yesterday and underwent a successful operation at the Platau Hospital.

Miss Flora Walker came down from Kathryn Monday and spent the day taking treatment at the Platau hospital.

Mrs. E. M. Lavery has been confined to her home the past week with the grip.

Mrs. Engebret Larson expects to leave Sunday for California where she will spend six months for the betterment of her health.

Miss Phoebe Phillips who has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. Frank Heimes for the past two weeks left for her home in Detroit, Minn., Sunday night.

Mrs. Walter Coop and Mrs. Emma Coop will return this evening from the cities where they have been visiting and shopping for the past ten days.

Miss Ella Holtquist left today for Minneapolis and Chicago where she will visit with relatives for several weeks, and also buy her spring stock of millinery goods.

Cards have been received in the city to the wedding of Miss Dena Louisa Detmars, to Mr. John W. Kruger of Oriska. The marriage will take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Detmars who live near this vicinity, on January the 15th.

T. X. Jones, who with his wife for the past three weeks has been visiting relatives at Mahkato, returned to the city last night. Mrs. Jones will not return before the first of February.

Miss Marguerite Curtiss of Bristol, England, correspondent of the London Telegraph and other metropolitan dailies, will give several addresses before the Womens' clubs of the city, on Jan. 13th and 14th next. Miss Curtiss is a successful short story and novel writer and is personally acquainted with leading authors of England. She is spending the winter near Heaton, N. D. with relatives. She will be the guest of Mrs. Frank White while here and will be accompanied by her friend Miss Maudie Regan of Fessenden.

The Chautauqua will be held in Valley City beginning June 27 and continuing until July 13th and will be filled full of good things every day of the session. It is hoped that an invitation that will be extended to the Editorial Association of the state which will meet at Wahpeton this week may be accepted and that the state editorial meeting may be held here during one week of the Chautauqua. With our ample facilities of taking care of the guests and our river and parks we can offer as good accommodations to the press gang as any city in the state and we hope they may come.

Sunday morning was a cold one and today is even colder. We enjoyed a beautiful fall and ought not to complain now at a little cold snap but the contract between the weather of a week past and at the present time is so great that one is bound to object more or less. Clear still and cold today.

Editor Greenwood of Nome is spending the day in town visiting with friends. He is combining business with pleasure and it is rumored that he is doing some boosting for his paper. This is as it should be, we don't believe that "bathe's" should be permitted to inhabit the earth but so long as there is no law against such unnatural doings we are always glad to see Brother Greenwood landing the plums. Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Reidman left last week for a visit with Mrs. Reidman's sister at Mountain Home, Idaho. They expect to return in about a week.

Among the few senators who have arrived is Capt. Mudgett, of Valley City—and none are more warmly received. The Captain is one of the prominent business men of this state and has a splendid standing both as a business man and as a politician, to say nothing of his record as a soldier. He led Company G of Valley Through the Philippine campaign in 1898 and '99 and no more popular officer ever enlisted. He and Col. Fraine and Senator Hanley are finding several Spanish American veterans among the legislators and are frequently found to one side fighting the battles again in reminiscent conversation. This is Captain Mudgett's first trip to the senate, but his excellent ability in many other positions of trust assures a splendid stewardship.—Bismarck Tribune.
